DOCUMENT RESUME

ED 060 465 AC 012 493

AUTHOR	Pitzer, Ronald L., Ed.
TITLE	Family Life: Literature and Films. An Annotated Bibliography. Supplement to Fourth Revision.
INSTITUTION	Minnesota Council on Family Relations, Minneapolis.
PUB DATE	71
NOTE	96p.
EDRS PRICE	MF-$0.65 HC-$3.29
DESCRIPTORS	Adolescence; American Culture; *Annotated Bibliographies; Audiovisual Aids; Bibliographies; Books; Child Development; Family (Sociological Unit); *Family Life; *Family Life Education; *Films; Marriage; Older Adults; Pamphlets; Parent Child Relationship; Parents; Periodicals; *Publications; Sex Education; Sexuality; Social Problems; Youth

ABSTRACT

This supplement to the fourth edition of "Family Life Literature and Films: An Annotated Bibliography" includes materials produced since the publication of the fourth edition (see AC 012 492). The materials are listed under nine topic headings, as follows: I. The American Family: Theoretical, Historical, and Subcultural Perspectives; II. Human Sexuality and Sex Education; III. Adolescence and Youth; IV. Looking Toward Marriage; V. Married Living; VI. Child Development and Parenthood; VII. Middle and Later Years; VIII. Family Life Education: Philosophy and Methodology; and IX. Social Problems and the Family. Publishers and Sources of Materials are listed with addresses, and an author index is provided. (DB)

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION & WELFARE
OFFICE OF EDUCATION
THIS DOCUMENT HAS BEEN REPRODUCED EXACTLY AS RECEIVED FROM THE PERSON OR ORGANIZATION ORIGINATING IT. POINTS OF VIEW OR OPINIONS STATED DO NOT NECESSARILY REPRESENT OFFICIAL OFFICE OF EDUCATION POSITION OR POLICY.

ED 060465

SUPPLEMENT 1971

FAMILY LIFE

LITERATURE AND FILMS

An Annotated
Bibliography

1

AC012493

Minnesota Council on Family Relations

FOREWARD

We are in the midst of an "information explosion"--or at least an explosion of education materials related to marriage, parenthood, and family relationships. The policy of the Minnesota Council on Family Relations has been to revise its comprehensive Family Life Literature and Films: An Annotated Bibliography approximately every three years. However, there has been such a spate of new materials since the most recent edition was prepared in August, 1970, that this supplement has been prepared as an interim-offering until a totally revised edition can be prepared in the fall of 1972. Due to the time pressure under which this supplement was prepared, no claim is made as to comprehensiveness. We hope that it does include most of the major written and audio-visual material which has appeared within the past years. We invite your suggestions.

Thanks is extended to Ruth Jewson, Sylvia Robertson, Linda Giesen, and Gwen Bagaas of the National Council on Family Relations for their assistance in compiling and annotating this section, and to those members of the Minnesota Council on Family Relations who offered suggestions for inclusion in this supplement.

Ronald L. Pitzer, Editor
Extension Family Life Specialist
University of Minnesota

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FORWARD

I. THE AMERICAN FAMILY: THEORETICAL, HISTORICAL, AND SUBCULTURAL PERSPECTIVES

- A. General Information ... 1
- B. Theoretical Perspectives ... 1
- C. Historical Perspectives: Past, Present, and Future Families ... 3
- D. Comparative Analyses and Cross-Cultural Perspectives ... 4
- E. Social Class and the Family ... 5
- F. Racial, Ethnic, and Religious Variations ... 6
- G. Kin-Family Network ... 8

II. HUMAN SEXUALITY AND SEX EDUCATION

- A. Sexual Standards and Behavior ... 9
- B. Changing Sex Roles ... 12
- C. Biology and Reproduction ... 15
- D. Family Planning, Birth Control, and Population Problems ... 15
  - 1. Books ... 15
  - 2. Pamphlets and Periodicals ... 19
  - 3. Audio-Visual Materials ... 19
- E. Sex Education ... 20
  - 1. General ... 20
  - 2. For Children ... 22
  - 3. For Young People ... 22
- F. Audio-Visual Materials ... 23

III. ADOLESCENCE AND YOUTH

- A. General References on Adolescence and Youth ... 25
- B. Some Suggested Texts for Junior and Senior High School ... 27
- C. Some Suggestions for Teenage Reading ... 28
- D. Audio-Visual Materials ... 28

IV. LOOKING TOWARD MARRIAGE

- A. General Information on Courtship, Love, and Mate Selection ... 29
  - 1. Books and Periodicals ... 29
  - 2. Audio-Visual Material ... 30
- B. College Level Marriage and Family Texts and Anthologies ... 30
- C. Subcultural Factors in Mate Selection: Race, Religion, Ethnic Background, Social Class ... 32

V. MARRIED LIVING

- A. General Information ... 33
  - 1. Books ... 33
  - 2. Audio-Visual Materials ... 35
- B. Working Wives and Mothers ... 35
- C. Marriage and Family Counseling ... 35
  - 1. Books ... 35
  - 2. Audio-Visual Aids for Counselors ... 37
- D. Divorce and Remarriage ... 37
- E. Family Financial Management ... 38

VI. CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND PARENTHOOD

- A. General Information ... 39
  - 1. Books ... 39
  - 2. Audio-Visual Materials ... 43
- B. More Comprehensive Information ... 44
- C. Special Kinds of Parent-Child Relationships ... 46
  - 1. Books ... 46
  - 2. Audio-Visual Materials ... 48

VII. MIDDLE AND LATER YEARS

A. General Information 49
    1. Books and Pamphlets 49
    2. Audio-Visual Materials. 50

VIII. FAMILY LIFE EDUCATION: PHILOSOPHY AND METHODOLOGY

A. Philosophical Perspectives and Current Status of Family Life Education. 52
B. Curriculum Guides 52
C. Bibliographies and Reference Lists. 53

IX. SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND THE FAMILY

A. General 54
B. Drugs and Alcohol 54
    1. Books and Pamphlets 54
    2. Audio-Visual Materials. 57
C. Poverty 60
D. Mental Illness, Mental Health, Identity Problems, Self-Awareness. 61
E. Death, Bereavement, Suicide 61
    1. Books 61
    2. Pamphlets and Periodicals 63
    3. Bibliographies. 63
F. Crime and Delinquency 64
G. Work and Leisure. 65
    1. Books 66
    2. Films 66

PUBLISHERS AND SOURCES OF MATERIALS

AUTHOR INDEX

THE AMERICAN FAMILY

I. THE AMERICAN FAMILY: THEORETICAL, HISTORICAL, AND SUBCULTURAL PERSPECTIVES

A. General Information

Broderick, Carlfred B., A Decade of Family Research and Action, Lake Mills, Iowa: Graphic Publishing Co., 1971, $3.50.

A compilation of the "decade of the sixties" review articles which appeared in the Journal of Marriage and the Family -- November 1970, February 1971, and May 1971.

Buder, Leonard, et al., Where We Are: A Hard Look at Family and Society, Child Study Association of America, 1970, 117 pp., $3.50 (paper).

Proceedings from a Child Study Association Conference. Reflects both generalized deep concern and specific optimism about American society. Examines fundamental questions such as "Can man prevail?" "Can reason prevail?"

Crawford, Charles O., Health and the Family: Medical-Sociological Analysis, The Macmillan Company, 1971.

The American health scene has changed and is changing and is being linked more and more with government and society. This book seeks to place health in a contemporary perspective and to analyze the interaction between health and the family.

Duvall, Evelyn M., Faith in Families, Rand McNally, 1970, 206 pp., $4.95.

A basis for happy family life built on an understanding of what a modern family is and how to deal with the problems of family life.

Goode, William J., Elizabeth Hopkins, and Helen M. McClure, Social Systems and Family Patterns: Propositional Inventory, Bobbs-Merrill, 1971, 779 pp., $30.00.

A compilation of research findings containing: (1) most of the major correlations among factors internal to the family unit, and (2) most of the major propositions relating family variables to other institutions.

Scanzoni, John H., Opportunity and the Family, Allyn and Bacon, Inc., 1970, 256 pp.

A study of the conjugal family in relation to the economic opportunity structure.

Waller, Willard W., On the Family, Education and War: Selected Writings, University of Chicago Press, 1970.

A unified presentation of Waller's theories regarding dating, marriage, family interaction and divorce plus his thinking on social problems and the conflict between insight and scientific method.

Werner, Hazen G., Look at the Family Now, Abingdon Press, 1970.

A present day view of the family especially for the Christian reader.

B. Theoretical Perspectives

Adams, Bert N., The American Family: A Sociological Interpretation, Markham Publishing Co., 1970, $7.95.

Theoretical frameworks for the study of the family in the tradition of family sociology.

THE AMERICAN FAMILY

Aldous, Joan, Thomas Condon, Reuben Hill, Murray Straus, and Irving Tallman, Family Problem Solving: A Symposium on Theoretical, Methodological, and Substantive Concerns, The Dryden Press, Inc., 1971, 452 pp.

Represents the initial efforts of a group of social scientists to isolate and define central issues pertaining to research on the family as a problem solving group. It is a collection from a symposium held on the University of California, Riverside Campus, sponsored by the Family Study Center of the University of Minnesota. Included are the formal papers, their critiques, and a significant portion of the debates and discussions which ensued.

Anderson, Michael (Ed.), Sociology of the Family, Penguin Books, 1971, 352 pp. (paperback).

A set of readings on the sociology of the family, with main emphasis on the family systems and their problems in Western industrial society.

Duvall, Evelyn M., Family Development, J. B. Lippincott, 1971 (4th Edition).

Places emphasis on the family life cycle, supported by consistent application of the developmental task concept.

Farmer, Mary, The Family, Humanities Press, 1971, 168 pp. (paperback $2.25).

A sociological approach to the study of the family--one of a series prepared for increased sociological study in Great Britain, hence, the emphasis is on modern Britain. The book studies and explains human behavior as it relates to the family and marriage in order to achieve a fuller understanding of the processes at work in society.

Feucht, Oscar E., Family Relationships and the Church, Concordia Publishing House, 1970, 239 pp.

A sociological, historical and theological study of family structures, roles and relationships.

Goode, William J. (Ed.), The Contemporary American Family, Quadrangle Books, 1971, 302 pp., $8.95.

A study of the contemporary American family through readings in the areas of: biosocial bases of the family; mate choice; courtship; marriage; husbands and wives; parents and children; family problems; and new family forms.

Hill, Reuben, Nelson Foote, Joan Aldous, Robert Carlson, and Robert MacDonald, Family Development in Three Generations, Schenkman, 1971, 424 pp., $11.25.

This is a research report of changes in family patterns of planning and achievement over three generations. Three generations of 300 families were studied through five interviews over a years period to determine the real differences and similarities between the generations.

Kanwar, Mahfooz A. (Ed.), The Sociology of Family, Hamden, Connecticut: Shoe String Press, 1971, 326 pp., $12.50.

Readings in four categories--family and early socialization, general family relations, family and social change, cross-cultural family systems--from many cultures. From the literature of sociology, psychology, and anthropology.

Reiss, Ira L., The Family System in America, Holt, Rinehart, and Winston, Inc., 1971, 493 pp.

The author investigates current American family patterns, drawing upon materials from anthropology and history to show the American family in the dual perspective of its nature and its counterparts in other societies. He proposes a universal definition of the family institution, and then analyzes this institution in relation to courtship and marriage as well as to various deviant behaviors. Closes with a discussion of the family system for the rest of the century.

THE AMERICAN FAMILY

Toman, Walter, Family Constellation: Its Effects on Personality and Social Behavior (2nd Ed.), Springer Publishing Co., 1969, 280 pp., $5.75.

An examination of the effects of one's family on one's personality and the course of one's life.

Udry, J. Richard, The Social Context of Marriage (2nd Ed.), J. B. Lippincott, 1971, 512 pp., $9.95.

A sociological view of American marriage written to be understood by the reader without a background in the social sciences as well as those with a more extensive knowledge of sociology. Covers the significant aspects of marriage and other heterosexual relationships. Chapter titles include: Social Factors in Marital Success; External Roles and Marital Interaction; and Divorce and Remarriage.

Winch, Robert F., The Modern Family (3rd Ed.), Holt, Rinehart, Winston, 1971.

A presentation of a general theory of the family and an analysis of the family in the United States in light of that theory.

C. Historical Perspectives: Past, Present, and Future Families

Bremner, Robert H. (Ed.), Children and Youth in America: A Documentary History, Vol. I (1600-1865), Harvard University Press, 1970, 836 pp., $10.00.

This is the first of three volumes that will provide the complete documentary history of public provision for American children, tracing the changing attitudes of the nation toward youth during the first two and one-half centuries of its history. This volume is divided into three units of time--1600-1735, 1735-1820, and 1820-1865--each of which represents a stage in the development of public policies toward children.

Demos, John, A Little Commonwealth: Family Life in Plymouth Colony, Oxford University Press, 1971, $6.95.

This is a study of the family in the Pilgrim colony which was white America in its first two generations of its existence. The author's research is based on physical artifacts, wills, estate inventories, and a variety of legal and official documents. The author reconsiders commonly held views about 17th century American Puritanism, and gives a short history of the colony, the physical setting of family life, and the structure of the family.

Hunt, David, Parents and Children in History, Basic Books, 1970, 226 pp., $6.95.

A historical study of the psychology of family life in early modern France.

McLennan, John F. and Peter Riviere (eds.), Primitive Marriage, University of Chicago Press, 1971, $8.50.

An anthropological inquiry into the origin of the form of capture in marriage ceremonies.

Otto, Herbert A. (Ed.), The Family in Search of a Future: Alternate Models for Moderns, Appleton-Century-Crofts, 1970, 204 pp. (paperback $2.95).

This reader proposes a variety of possible models for alternatives to the historical system of marriage and the family.

Robertson, Constance Noyes, Oneida Community, An Autobiography, 1851-1876, Syracuse University Press, 1970, 364 pp., $11.50.

Excerpts from the actual writings of the Oneida Commity edited by the granddaughter of the founder of the movement, John Humphrey Noyes.

Sennett, Richard, Families Against the City, Harvard University Press, 1970, 258 pp., $8.50.

A discussion of the middle class home of industrial Chicago, 1872-1890, the interaction of city life, family structure, and work experience at a critical moment in history. The dominant mode of family life was of small nuclear units in which the mother tended to dominate as the role of the father was gradually weakening.

Shanin, Teodor (Ed.), Peasants and Peasant Societies, Penguin Books, Inc., 1971, 448 pp. (paper $2.95).

Both historical and current material on peasantry: the social structure of peasantry; peasantry as an economy; the peasantry as a class; the peasantry as a culture; and the peasantry as an object of policies of the modern state.

Skolnick, Arlene S. and Jerome H., Family in Transition: Rethinking Marriage, Sexuality, Child-Rearing, and Family Organization, Little, Brown and Co., 1971, 542 pp. (paperback).

A reader built around the topics: Conceptions of the Family; The Politics of Sex and Marriage; The Politics of Child-Rearing; and the Politics of Household and Life Style.

Toffler, Alvin, Future Shock, Bantam Books, Inc., 1970, 561 pp. (paperback $1.95).

A study of American society and what the future will bring for it. Includes chapters on the fractured family and the future prospects for human relationships.

D. Comparative Analyses and Cross-Cultural Perspectives

Arnold, David (Ed.), The Sociology of Subcultures, The Glendessary Press, 1970, 172 pp., $6.00.

A tracing of the evolution of the concept of subculture and a discussion of the roles of subcultures within a culture.

Bronfenbrenner, Urie, Two Worlds of Childhood: U.S. and U.S.S.R., Russell Sage Foundation, 1970, 190 pp., $7.95.

The author holds that the different patterns of child-rearing in the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. are responsible for American children being more ready to engage in antisocial behavior than Soviet children. The Soviet child is brought up to look beyond his own gratification to the needs and expectations of his society while we leave our children to be brought up by their peers in an atmosphere pervaded by subtle opposition to the standards of adult society.

Clignet, Remi, Many Wives, Many Powers, Northwestern University Press, 1970, 384 pp., $11.50.

Two Ivory Coast groups are examined to determine the nature of polygynous marriage, the differences between matrilineal and patrilineal societies, and the effects of urbanization on family interaction and power structures.

Cronin, Constance, The Sting of Change: Sicilians in Sicily and Australia, University of Chicago Press, 1970, 307 pp., $12.50.

The author's study of a southern Italian family and Sicilian immigrants in Sidney, Australia validates her hypothesis that first generation immigrants in a new country show habit changes in the public sector of life and value changes in the private sector.

Fox, Lorene K. (Ed.), East African Childhood, Oxford University Press, 1967, 140 pp. (paperback $1.95)

Written to fill the need for non-Western textbooks in Africa, this book tells of the childhood of three different children in different locations in Africa. It includes pictures. Gives information about the life styles of these three groups including moral training, traditional health practices, traditional attitudes toward marriage and family, and mistrust and punishment.

Glazer, Nathan, et al., Perspectives on Soviet Jewry, KTVA Publishing House, 1971, 113 pp. (paper $2.50).

This book is a compilation of nine articles on various aspects of Jewry and the Soviet Union. It considers what it is like for Jews to live in an atmosphere of suspicion as exists in the Soviet Union, and with the actual restriction of opportunities of the Jews.

Hill, Reuben and Rene Konig, Families East and West: Socialization Process and Kinship Ties, Mouton and Company, 1970, $20.00.

This volume contains thirty papers prepared for the Ninth Family Research Seminar of the International Sociological Association which was held in Tokyo in 1965. This history-making seminar brought both Eastern and Western sociologists together for scientific discussion around the objectives of educating Western scholars in the categories and generalizations about extended family behaviors codified by Eastern scholars, and of sharing new Western methodological developments and research findings about family and personality development with the East.

Ishwaran, K. (Ed.), The Canadian Family, Holt, Rinehart, and Winston, 1971, 557 pp., $8.50 (paper).

Book of readings with specific focus on the family in Canada. Sections include Family Patterns; Family and Socialization; Family, Education, and Religion; Marriage; Kinship Network.

Lewis, Oscar, Five Families: Mexican Case Studies in the Culture of Poverty, Mentor Books, 1959, 318 pp. (paperback $.95).

A cross-cultural study of five Mexican families who live very differently from the other four within the "culture of poverty."

Pinchbeck, Ivy and Margaret Hewitt, Children in English Society, Volume I, University of Toronto Press, 1970, $9.50.

The story of English children from Tudor times to the eighteenth century.

Presvelou, Clio and Pierre de Bie (Eds.), Images and Counter-Images of Young Families, International Scientific Commission on the Family, 1970, 207 pp. (paperback).

Transactions of the Second International Seminar of the International Scientific Commission on the Family - ICOFA (IUFO), Smith, W. Robertson, Kinship and Marriage in Early Arabia, Beacon Press, 1903, 324 pp., $2.95 (paper).

An anthropological study of the Arabian family reprinted for this generation of students.

E. Social Class and the Family

Coleman, Richard P. and Bernice L. Neugarten, Social Status in the City, Jossey-Bass, Inc., 1971, 320 pp., $9.75.

This is a systematic analysis of the status structure of a large city (Kansas City) which describes the various groups of society and their views and values. The upper and lower classes are treated in greater detail because this is where the difference lies between small and large cities. The authors offer insight and speculations on the change that the status system is undergoing in contemporary America.

Craft, Maurice (Ed.), Family, Class and Education, Fernhill House, Ltd., 1970 (paperback $3.75).

This is a study of the relationships between home, environment and performance in school.

Pearlin, Leonard I., Class Context and Family Relations: A Cross-National Study, Little, Brown and Co., 1970, 224 pp., $7.95.

A report of a study made in Turin, Italy, of the complex relationships that exist between the family and other social systems, especially social class and occupation.

Weller, J. E., Yesterday's People: Life in Contemporary Appalachia, Kentucky Paperback, 1966, 160 pp. (paperback $1.95).

Observations of life in Appalachia today characterized by a slow fatalism despite efforts of church and school.

F. Racial, Ethnic and Religious Variations

Berger, Stephen D., The Social Consequences of Residential Segregation of the Urban American Negro, Metropolitan Applied Research Center, Inc., 1970, 68 pp. (paperback $.50).

A paper based on the psychological and sociological impact of racial segregation in housing on American minorities forced to live in ghettos and how it affects the nation as a whole.

Clark, Margaret, Health in the Mexican-American Culture, University of California Press, 1971, 253 pp. (paperback $2.45).

A description of the community life, language and education, work and economics, religious participation, and family life of the Mexican-American people.

DuBois, W.E.B., The Negro American Family, The Massachusetts Institute of Technology Press, 1970, 156 pp. (paperback $2.95).

A new edition of DuBois' classic of 1909. The story of the Negro American family and social change.

Galarze, Ernest, Herman Gallegos and Julian Semora, Mexican-Americans in the Southwest, McNally and Loftin, Publishers, 1970, 90 pp. (paperback $2.50).

This is the result of a two-year study, surveying the effects of farm mechanization, urban redevelopment, population squeeze, and other causes of upheaval in Mexican-American communities in California, Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, and Colorado. It traces the immigration movement from its origins in Mexico and assesses the current economic, political, cultural, and educational status of these people, the second-largest minority in the U.S.

Grossman, B., Black Means. . ., Hill and Wang, 1970, $3.95.

A small, illustrated book for young people designed to give new meanings to the word "black" and to break down cultural polarities between white and black.

Kane, Michael B., Minorities in Textbooks, Quandrangle Books, 1971, 148 pp. (paperback $1.95).

The author discusses the treatment of Blacks, Jews and other minorities and concludes that textbook treatment of minorities has not changed appreciably since 1950.

Kiser, Clyde V. (Ed.), Demographic Aspects of the Black Community (Volume XLVIII, Number 2, April 1970, Part 2), Milbank Memorial Fund, 1969 (paperback $3.00).

Proceedings of the forty-third conference of the Milbank Memorial Fund held at the Carnegie Endowment International Center, New York City, October 1969.

THE AMERICAN FAMILY

Lewis, Claudia, Indian Families of the Northwest Coast: The Impact of Change, University of Chicago Press, 1970, 224 pp., $8.75.

A study of the impact of change on a large "band" of Salish Indians living on the east coast of Vancouver Island.

Lind, A.W., Hawaii's People, University of Hawaii Press, 1967, 115 pp.

A study of the blending of the people of three cultures into the people of Hawaii.

Mack, Raymond (ed.), Prejudice and Race Relations, Quadrangle Books, 1970 (paperback $2.45).

An analysis of the historical circumstances of prejudice and racial tensions in the United States, elements of the current crisis, and available options to Americans seeking a "just" society. A collection of materials from the pages of the New York Times in the past decade.

Rodman, Hyman, Lower-Class Families: The Culture of Poverty in Negro Trinidad, Oxford University Press, 1971, 242 pp. (paperback).

Detailed description of lower-class family life and values within a community. Also offers a theoretical interpretation of the data as a step toward a general theoretical statement of the relationship between lower-class status and family structure.

Rubel, A.J., Across the Tracks: Mexican-Americans in a Texas City, The University of Texas Press, 1966, 245 pp. (paperback $2.95)

An examination of the cultural adaptation of Mexican-Americans in a predominantly white community.

Sager, Clifford J., M.D., Thomas L. Brayboy, M.D. and Barbara R. Waxenberg, Black Ghetto Family in Therapy: A Laboratory Experience, Grove Press, 1970, 245 pp., $6.50.

This book deals with the interviews of four therapists of a simulated Black ghetto family and their complex problems. The interviews show the manner in which each therapist's own personality elicited different responses from the family. Each therapist then evaluates his interview in its successes and failures.

Scanzoni, John H., The Black Family in Modern Society, Allyn and Bacon, 1971, 353 pp. (paperback $4.95).

This book is an effort to extend our knowledge about the black family in urban America, contributing to the analysis of the general structure and process of family systems in modern society. The author contends that the "classic studies" of black family processes need to be up-dated.

Schlesinger, Benjamin, The Jewish Family, University of Toronto Press, 1971, $7.50.

A survey of the Jewish family in history, in the kibbutz and in America plus an annotated bibliography of books on the Jewish family.

Staples, Robert (Ed.), The Black Family: Essays and Studies, Wadsworth Publishing Company, Inc., 1971, 393 pp. (paperback).

Selections from various viewpoints are chosen to give the reader a better understanding of the internal behavior processes and the psycho-social dimensions of the Black family as well as the effects of social, political and economic factors upon it.

Washington, Joseph B., Jr., Marriage in Black and White, Beacon Press, 1971, 358 pp., $7.50.

In light of historical data and the present attitudes of liberals, social scientists, and established religion, the author discusses the problems of "passing," the children of black-white marriages, and the folklore concepts of black-white marriage. He believes that "our fear of candidly facing black-white marriages is our only problem. . ." in dealing with American racism, and supports without reservation black and white social intimacy including marriage.

THE AMERICAN FAMILY

Willie, Charles V. (Ed.), The Family Life of Black People, Charles E. Merrill Publishing Co., 1970 (paperback).

An analysis of the many variations and adaptations which characterize the family life of black people, both middle and lower class, pathological and nonpathological.

G. Kin-Family Network

Anthony, E. James and Therese Benedik (Eds.), Parenthood: Its Psychology & Psychopathology, Little, Brown & Co., Boston, 1970, 617 pp.

This book by twenty-nine authors, deals comprehensively with the subject of parenthood. The purpose is to present parenthood, not as it relates to a fixed time and place, but as a process in continual change. Each author brings his own background and range into a multidisciplinary view.

Farber, Bernard, Kinship and Class: A Midwestern Study, Basic Books, 1971, 224 pp., $7.95.

Studies the family as an institution and shows how kinship organization prevents lower-class children from developing as they normally would in our society and this hinders their progress. This was made in conjunction with a preschool program for children who were classified as "disadvantaged" and the study arises from a need to know about kinship in lower-class populations.

Firth, Raymond, Jane Hubert, and Anthony Forge, Families and their Relatives, Humanities Press, 1971, 476 pp., $10.00.

This is a kinship study done in a middle-class urban sector of society in two areas of London. It reveals the range and variation in the kinship patterns uncovered, and the aspects of our society which are significant for understanding much of social behavior. It also adds to our understanding of the theory of social relations in modern industrial society.

Harris, C.C (Ed.), Readings in Kinship in Urban Society, Pergamon Press, Ltd., 1970, $8.75 (paper $6.00).

Kinship, marriage and old age in an urbanizing society are discussed in a cross-cultural perspective including studies in Greece, France, Spain, Canada, Wales, the Netherlands, and Denmark.

HUMAN SEXUALITY AND SEX EDUCATION

II. HUMAN SEXUALITY AND SEX EDUCATION

A. Sexual Standards and Behavior

1. Books and Periodicals

Athanasion, Robert and others, "Sex," Psychology Today, July, 1970, pp. 39 ff.

A report on over 20,000 responses to a lengthy questionaire on sexual attitudes and practices.

Bartell, Gilbert D., Group Sex, Peter H. Wyden, Publisher, 1971, 298 pp., $6.95.

After studying more than 280 men and women of various occupations in the Midwest, Texas, and Louisiana who were "swingers," Dr. Bartell wrote this detailed report on a new sexual phenomenon: middle class Americans who engage in sexual relations, as a couple, with at least one other partner. This book of intimate case histories and observations opens the door to a practice hitherto discussed only in the underground.

Belliveau, Fred and Lin Richter, Understanding Human Sexual Inadequacy, Bantam Books, 1970, (paperback $1.25).

A translation of the technical language of Masters' and Johnson's Human Sexual Inadequacy into the lay language of the average reader.

Bernstein, Rose, Helping Unmarried Mothers, Association Press, $6.95.

The author shares her extensive experiences with the non-married pregnant woman.

Burt, John J. and Linda Brower, Education for Sexuality, W. B. Saunders Co., Philadelphia, 1970, 508 pp., $9.75.

Intended as a textbook for teachers of human sexuality in elementary, junior, and senior high schools, this volume by two health educators stresses the biological and anatomical.

DeMartino, M.F. (ed.), Sexual Behavior and Personality Characteristics, Grove Press, 391 pp., (paperback $.95).

A collection of articles from psychology and sociology concerning human sexual behavior.

Dizenzo, Patricia, Phoebe, McGraw-Hill, 1970, 120 pp.

The story of Phoebe, now famous as the film story of a premarital pregnancy, is here presented in book form.

Ferm, Deane William, Responsible Sexuality--Now, Seabury Press, 1971, 179 pp., $4.95.

Directed primarily to church people; discusses the preoccupation of the church with sexual morality. Emphasis mainly historical, theological, and cross-cultural. Concludes with the author's personal interpretation of the kinds of responsible sexual attitudes needed in our current American society.

Friedman, Leonard J., Virgin Wives: A Study of Unconsummated Marriages, J. B. Lippincott, 1962, 161 pp., $4.50.

A research study of one hundred virgin wives and their treatment.

Gagnon, John H., and William Simon (eds.), Sexual Deviance, Harper and Row, 1967, 310 pp.(paperback).

A collection of articles on deviance in general, male homosexuality, female prostitution, and female homosexuality.

HUMAN SEXUALITY

Goldstein, Martin, M.D., E. J. Haeberle, and Will McBride, The Sex Book: A Modern Pictorial Encyclopedia, New York: Herder and Herder, 1970 (illustrated, 8 3/4 x 11 1/2 format), $9.95.

A pictorial sex "encyclopedia." Blends frankness with concern for mutual tenderness and respect in expression of sexuality. Includes photographs of sexual organs, couples during intercourse, and many others.

Hart, Harold H. (ed.), Sexual Latitude: For and Against, Hart Publishing Co., 1971, 256 pp., $7.50 (paperback $2.45).

A volume of original essays in which writers, psychologists, publicists, and doctors present a spectrum of thought covering the issues of premarital sex, group sex, homosexuality, extramarital sex, and other aspects of personal behavior in which opinion is strongly polarized.

Hayakawa, S.I. (ed.), Etc.: A Review of General Semantics and Sexuality, 1968, 125 pp., $2.00.

A noted semanticist discusses in a series of articles, how people talk about sex.

Hegeler, Inge and Sten, The XYZ of Love, Crown Publishers, 1970, $6.95.

Answers to questions about sex by the writers of a popular Danish column which appears in several Danish publications. The questions come from their readers.

Hettlinger, Richard F., Sexual Maturity, Wadsworth, 1970, 66 pp., (paperback).

A discussion of the relationship of sexuality to personal maturity, which asks the reader to reexamine his or her sexual assumptions and goals.

Holmes, Urban T., The Sexual Person, Seabury Press, 1970, 163 pp., (paperback $2.95).

A discussion of the Church's role in human sexual development which was prepared under the auspices of the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church.

Johnson, Cecil E. (ed.), Sex and Human Relationships, Merrill Publishing Company, 1970, 258 pp., (paperback $2.95).

Modern readings on various aspects of sexuality, including excerpts from Masters and Johnson, Albert Ellis, Margaret Mead and others.

Johnson, Eric W., Sex: Telling It Straight, Bantam Books, 1971, 96 pp. (paperback $.75).

Author presents the reader with facts and discussions he will need to make his own choices responsibly.

Karlen, Arno, Sexuality and Homosexuality, Norton, 1971, 666 pp., $15.00.

A look at the "hidden ride" of the sexual revolution--a continuing crisis of sexual identity. Uneven. Rather strongly anti-homosexual.

Kirkendall, Lester A., and Robert N. Whitehurst, The New Sexual Revolution, Donald W. Brown, Inc., 1971, 236 pp., $6.95.

Includes information on diverse sexual practices, sexual ethics, auto-erotic behavior, homosexuality, pornography, etc. Intention is to evaluate human sexuality in the contemporary world and to provide directions for those who demand a new sexual "bill of rights." Research and discussion of old guidelines dispell myth and show reality.

Krause, Harry D., Illegitimacy: Law and Social Policy, Bobbs-Merrill Co., Inc., 1971, 379 pp., $14.

This book investigates and states the current law of illegitimacy in an effort to evaluate the law in the light of social facts of illegitimacy and the author's perception of what would be rational policy. It includes case examples and notes on the laws of selected foreign countries.

HUMAN SEXUALITY

Lehrman, Nat, Masters and Johnson Explained, Playboy Press, 1970, 217 pp., $1.25.

A simplification of the Masters and Johnson volume on human sexual response by an editor of Playboy magazine.

Margolis, Herbert F. and Paul M. Rubenstein, The Groupsex Tapes, McKay, 1971, $6.95.

Taped interviews with participants in "group sex," describing what they do and why they like it.

Marshall, Donald S. and Robert C. Suggs (eds.), Human Sexual Behavior: Variations in the Ethnographic Spectrum, Basic Books, Inc., 1971, 302 pp., $10.00.

The range and diversity of human sexual experience throughout the world as seen in ten contemporary societies (five of which are rather primitive) by members of the Institute for Sex Research.

Masters, William H. and Virginia E. Johnson, Human Sexual Inadequacy, Little, Brown and Co., 1970, 448 pp., $12.50.

A discussion of the Masters and Johnson therapy format for treating sexual dysfunction.

McCary, James L., Sexual Myths and Fallacies, Van Nostrand-Reinhold Co., 1971, 206 pp., $6.95.

Discusses 83 widely held misconceptions about human sexual matters. McCary contends that only frank and open presentation of the subject of sex can lead people to a fuller understanding of themselves, as well as to a more fulfilling sex life. An important source of factual information about human sexuality.

National Council on Illegitimacy, Illegitimacy: Today's Realities, National Council on Illegitimacy, 1971, 77 pp., (paperback $3.25).

An up-to-date look at the problems of illegitimacy.

Neubeck, Gerhard (ed.), Extramarital Relations, Prentice-Hall, 1969, 205 pp., $5.95 (paperback $2.45).

A symposium on the nature of extramarital relationships and their consequences for the individuals concerned, their marriage and their children.

Pannor, Reuben, Fred Massarik, and Byron Evans, The Unmarried Father, Springer Publishing Co., 1971, 196 pp., $6.25.

This book deals with the unmarried father, his impact upon the unmarried mother, and the decision-making about the baby. The study arose after social workers at Vista Del Mar Child-Care Service in Los Angeles concluded that the phenomenon of illegitimacy and its problems were closely related to the unmarried father and his relationship to the mother.

Pierce, Ruth I., Single and Pregnant, Beacon Press, 1970, $5.95.

A trained social worker answers the questions: What can I do?; Where can I go?; and Who can help me?, for the girl who is single and pregnant. She outlines the different possible courses of action and what to expect along each one of them.

Reuben, David, M.D., Any Woman Can: Love and Sexual Fulfillment for the Single, Widowed, Divorced. . . And Married, David McKay Co., Inc., 1971, 364 pp., $7.95.

Written in question and answer format, this is a book of advice on sexuality for women.

Reuben, David, M.D., Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Sex* *But Were Afraid to Ask, David McKay Company, Inc., 1969, 342 pp., $6.95.

A book of questions and answers dealing with human sexuality suitable for the information seeking public.

Spock, Benjamin, Decent and Indecent (rev. ed.), Fawcett Publications, 1971, 207 pp. (paperback $.95).

In this book, Dr. Spock diagnoses what is wrong ethically, psychologically, and sexually with the world children have to live in and gives a prescription for hope and survival.

Student Committee on Human Sexuality, Yale University, The Student Guide to Sex on Campus, Signet Special, 1970, 167 pp., (paperback $1.00).

First sex guide written for college students by college students, answering questions with the facts and without moralizing. Discusses in detail birth control methods, abortion, and venereal disease.

Victor, Ann, Yesterday's Child, J. B. Lippincott, 1970, $3.95.

The story of Angie, caught in the predicament of being an unwed mother who knows that many people are going to be hurt no matter what decision she makes.

Weltage, R. E. (ed.), The Same Sex: An Appraisal of Homosexuality, Pilgrim Press, 1969, 155 pp.

A collection of articles taken from a symposium on the church's responsibility for and ministry to homosexuals which was convened by the United Church of Christ. The articles represent a range of attitudes toward the homosexual.

Winick, Charles and Paul M. Kinsie, The Lively Commerce: Prostitution in the United States, 1971, $8.95.

A comprehensive, authoritative, and highly readable study of prostitution based on over 2000 interviews with prostitutes, clients, madams, pimps, judges, policemen, and others, and on the files of the American Social Health Association.

Wynn, John C. (ed.), Sexual Ethics and Christian Responsibility: Some Divergent Views, Association Press, 1970, $6.95.

A collection of position papers on the question of Christian sex ethics in the modern world.

Young, Leontine, Out of Wedlock, McGraw-Hill, 1954, 249 pp., (paperback $1.95).

A classic piece of social research on illegitimacy now reprinted for the younger reader.

B. Changing Sex Roles

Clemens, Lois Gunden, Women Liberated, Herald Press, 1971, 158 pp., $4.95.

A definition of the issues of women's liberation and a clarification of scriptural views of women's roles.

Colton, Helen, What's on Woman's Future Agenda?, Family Forum, 1971, 52 pp., (paperback $1.00).

An examination of the place of woman in American society and some speculation as to what she will be able to accomplish in the future.

Bird, Carolina, Born Female: The High Cost of Keeping Women Down, David McKay, 1970 (rev.), $6.95.

Claven, Sylvia, "Women's Liberation and the Family," Family Coordinator, October 1970, pp.317-323.

Explores the issues involved in goals of the Women's Liberation Movement and the possible attendant effects on the American family.

Committee on Education and Labor, House of Representatives, Discrimination Against Women, Parts I and II, U. S. Government Printing Office, 1970, Part I = 615 pp., Part II = 1,261 pp. (paper).

Contains testimony and materials regarding discrimination against women for the special subcommittee on education.

CHANGING SEX ROLES

Cooke, Joanne, Charlotte Bunch-Weeks, and Robin Morgan, The New Woman, Fawcett, 1970, 222 pp., (paperback $.95).

An anthology of prose, poems and polemics by various women interested in Women's Liberation. It includes such titles as "Double Jeopardy: To Be Black and Female," "For a Brilliant Young Woman Who Lost her Mind," "The Realities of Lesbianism," and "Woman as Secretary, Sexpot, Spender, Sow, Civic Actor, Sickie."

Dahlstrom, Edmund (ed.), The Changing Roles of Men and Women, Beacon Press, 1971, 304 pp., $8.95 (paperback $2.95).

A sociological examination of the "sex-role" debate which is currently underway in Sweden and is beginning to gather force internationally, this volume includes chapters on the family and married women at work, sex roles in the socialization process, parental role division and the child's personality, the position of men and women in the labor market. Foreward by Alva Myrdal and an appendix of the 1968 report to the United Nations on "The Status of Women."

Epstein, Cynthia Fuchs,Woman's Place: Options and Limits in Professional Careers, University of California Press, 1970, 221 pp., $6.95.

Deals with the questions of why the best women underperform, underachieve, and underproduce when they have fought to attain their right to participate equally with men in all social and economic spheres.

Figes, Eva, Patriarchal Attitudes, Fawcett, 1970, 192 pp., (paperback $.95).

A book about women in relation to society as a whole, their traditional role and reasons for changing it, and it largely about men. It contains such chapters as: "A Man's World," "A Man's God," and "Learning to be a Woman."

Gornick, Vivian and Barbara Moran (eds.), Woman in Sexist Society, Basic Books, 1971, $12.50.

Greer, Germaine, The Female Eunuch, McGraw-Hill, 1971, 349 pp., $6.95.

Harding, M. Esther, The Way of All Women, G. P. Putnam's Sons for the C.G. Jung Foundation for Analytical Psychology, 1970, $7.00.

An examination of the feminine psychology which first appeared in 1933, this edition has been updated and enlarged with sections on aging and on friendships between men and women.

Harrington, Charles C., Errors in Sex-Role Behavior in Teen-Age Boys, New York: Teachers' College Press, 1970, 109 pp., $5.95 (paperback $2.95).

A research study of the link between sex identity and errors in sex-role behavior in adolescent boys.

Holter, Harriet, Sex Roles and Social Structure, Universitetsforlaget, 1970, 279 pp., (paperback).

A lengthy consideration of the facts of sex differentiation and social roles as they relate to behavior, politics, occupation, and education with a discussion of the implications of continued sex differentiation. By a Norwegian social scientist.

Kraditor, Aileen S. (ed.), Up from the Pedestal (Selected Writings in the History of American Feminism), Quandrangle Books, Inc., 1970, 372 pp., $8.95 (paperback $2.95).

Lopata, Helena Z., Occupation: Housewife, Oxford University Press, 1971, 387 pp., $9.50.

A study of 1,000 women in the metropolitan Chicago area interviewed over a five year period. The basic finding is that women are becoming more creative and flexible.

Millett, Kate, Sexual Politics, Doubleday, 1970, $7.95.

An exposition, by a leading feminist, on the patriarchal bias in our culture and literature.

Morgan, Robin (ed), Sisterhood is Powerful, Vintage Books, 1970, 602 pp. (paperback $2.45).

An anthology of writings from the women's liberation movement, including articles by such writers as Kate Millet and Marilyn Lowell Fletcher, and such poets as Sylvia Plath and Gwendolyn Brooks.

Mumaw, Evelyn King, Woman Alone, Herald Press, 1970, 128 pp., (paperback $1.95).

A study of women who are destined never to marry with the goal of helping such women to gain life fulfillment.

Oden, Marilyn Brown, Beyond Feminism, Abingdon Press, 1971, $2.50.

A call to women to strive for more equality with men; to strive for true creativity within their new freedom.

O'Neill, William L., The Woman Movement: Feminism in the U. S. and England, Quandrangle Books, 1971, (paperback $2.65).

An explanation of the course of feminist development in American and, to a much lesser extent, in England during the last century and a half.

Rossi, Alice S., Essays on Sex Equality, University of Chicago Press, 1970, 242 pp., $8.75 (paperback $1.95).

This volume includes the writings of the philosopher John Stuart Mill and his wife Harriet Taylor Mill on the subjects of marriage and divorce, enfranchisement of women, and the subjugation of women.

Scott, Anne Firor (ed.), What is Happening to American Women, SNPA Foundation Seminar Books, (paperback $2.00).

A collection of papers on the status of women in America from the seminar of the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association Foundation held at Duke University in the summer of 1970.

St. Andre, Lucien, The American Matriarchy: A Study of Married Life in 1997 A.D. (2nd ed.), The Florham Park Press, Inc., 1970, 112 pp., $4.50.

A piece of utopian literature designed to point up the shortcomings in our family system as it exists today and the direction in which the author perceives that it is moving.

Seton, Cynthia P., A Special and Curious Blessing, Norton, 1968, 184 pp.

A book about what it feels like to be a woman.

Seward, Georgene H., and Robert C. Williamson (eds.), Sex Roles in Changing Society, Random House, 1970, 419 pp., $9.95.

Traces the development of sex-role patterns in Western culture and then presents the contemporary scene in selected societies the world over.

"Sexism in Family Studies." Special issue of the Journal of Marriage and the Family, Vol.33, August, 1971.

Thompson, Mary Lou (ed.), Voices of the New Feminism, Beacon Press, 1970, $5.95.

A sampling from the leading advocates for the Feminist Movement.

C. Biology and Reproduction

Berrill, N. J., The Person in the Womb, Dodd, Mead and Company, 1968, 177 pp.

An intimate profile of the person in the womb, joined with a plea for that person's emergence into a better world than the present. The author is an eminent biologist.

Bulmer, M. G., The Biology of Twinning in Man, Oxford University Press, 1970, 205 pp., $6.50.

This is an attempt to discuss multiple births in the same manner as one might write about the same phenomenon in any other mammal. It is primarily a critical review and reassessment of literature that already exists, including some new and reanalyzed data. Divided into three sections, it discusses the physiology of multiple births, the evidence of existence of the various kinds of twins, and the factors affecting the frequencies of twins.

Diamond, Milton, Perspectives in Reproduction and Sexual Behavior, Indiana University Press, 1969, 479 pp., $20.00.

A very technical book detailing the physiology of human reproduction and sexual behavior.

Gifford-Jones, W., M.D., On Being A Woman: The Modern Woman's Guide to Gynecology, The Macmillan Company, 1971, 329 pp., $6.95.

A book of gynecologic facts to answer the questions that women ask about their bodies, contraception, etc.

Rorvik, David, Brave New Baby: Promise and Peril of the New Biological Revolution, Doubleday and Company, Inc., 1971, 202 pp., $5.95.

An exploration of the fascinating, sometimes frightening possibilities that emerge as man changes himself from creature to creator.

D. Family Planning, Birth Control and Population Problems

American Friends Service Committee, Who Shall Live? Man's Control over Birth and Death, Hill and Wang, 1970, 144 pp., $3.95.

The report examines the consequences of man's conquest over many of the causes of death, his failure to control his fertility and the threat to the future of mankind posed by the resultant imbalance between resources and population. It reviews the many aspects of family planning--biological, medical, legal, social, political, moral, religious--as they seek answers to such questions as "How do we balance a child's right to be born against its right to a decent life?"

Calderone, Mary Steiche, M.D., Manual of Family Planning and Contraceptive Practice, The Williams and Wilkins Company, 1970.

This revision of the 1964 edition is not merely expanded in size but in concepts and subjects, from a manual on contraceptive techniques to a reference textbook on family planning and contraceptive practice.

Callahan, Daniel, Abortion: Law, Choice and Morality, The Macmillan Company, 1970, 524 pp., $14.95.

Abortion discussed from the legal, medical, religious, social, ethical and moral viewpoints. Bibliographical references at the end of each chapter.

Cartwright, Ann, Parents and Family Planning Services, Atherton Press, 1970, $9.50.

A discussion of the ways in which people can be helped to plan their families so that they can have the number of children they want at the time they want. Particular emphasis is placed on the advice and help given to parents of young children and on what can be done to improve such services.

FAMILY PLANNING

David, Henry P., Family Planning and Abortion in the Socialist Countries of Central and Eastern Europe, The Population Council, 1970, 306 pp., (paperback).

In 1955, the socialist countries in central and eastern Europe adopted very liberal abortion policies and this book deals with the results and the changes that have been made. This is a good reference work on abortion practices and laws as well as family planning.

Douglas, Emily Taft, Margaret Sanger: Pioneer of the Future, Holt, Rinehart, and Winston, 1970, 274 pp., $7.50.

This is the story of Margaret Sanger who pioneered in birth control in the United States sixty years ago.

Ehrlich, Paul R., and Anne H. Ehrlich, Population / Resources / Environment: Issues in Human Ecology, Freeman and Company, 1970, 383 pp., $8.95.

Documentation of the plight of man in the modern overpopulated world with suggestions for a program for the preservation of the world.

Fawcett, James T., Psychology and Population: Behavioral Research Issues in Fertility and Family Planning, The Population Council, 1970 (paperback).

This report is to explore why greater interplay could not be brought about between the two sciences of psychology and demography and to discuss the distinctive contributions that psychology can make to the broader field of "population studies."

Fletcher, Joseph, Morals and Medicine: The Moral Problems of the Patient's Right to Know the Truth: Contraception, Artificial Insemination, Sterilization and Euthanasia, Beacon Press, 1960, 243 pp. $1.95.

Frankel, Lillian B., This Crowded World: An Introduction to the Study of Population, Columbia Books, Inc., 1970, 60 pp. (paperback $1.50).

A book about the population problem, for children in the fourth through sixth grades.

Fryer, Peter, The Birth Controllers, Stein and Day., 1966, 384 pp., $6.95.

Biographical history of the developers and champions of birth control--Margaret Sanger, Marie Stopes, and many others.

Group for the Advancement of Psychiatry, The Right to Abortion: A Psychiatric View, Group for the Advancement of Psychiatry, 1969, 23 pp. (paperback $1.00).

Psychiatric arguments in favor of legalized abortion based on the premise that women have the right to choose to marry or not to marry, therefore they should also have the right to decide whether to have a child or not.

Guttmacher, Alan F., M.D. (ed.), The Case for Legalized Abortion Now, Diablo Press, 1967 (paperback $1.95).

A collection of opinions of articulate spokesmen for the reform movement who, while agreeing on the need for change, often do not agree on the means or ends of change. Dr. Guttmacher sought to include the full range of thinkers who support reform.

Hall, Robert E., M.D. (ed.), Abortion in a Changing World, Volumes I and II, Columbia University Press, 1970, Vol. I = 377 pp., Vol. II = 220 pp., $10.00 each.

A report of the proceedings of an international conference on abortion convened by the Association for the Study of Abortion at Hot Springs, Virginia. Volume I contains the 35 formal papers presented at the conference under five separate headings: ethical, medical, legal, social, and global aspects of abortion. Volume II contains the record of ten panel sessions which dealt with abortion and animation, poverty, public health, society, obstetrics, morality, constitutionality, mortality, progeny and womankind.

FAMILY PLANNING

Hardin, Garrett, Birth Control, Western Publishing Company, 1970, (paperback $1.95).

A discussion of the biology of reproduction and birth control with the premise that the dream of "every child a wanted child" is now within our grasp.

Himes, Norman E., Medical History of Contraception, Schocken, 1970, 521 pp., (paperback $3.45).

The history of the idea and practice of contraception from the preliterate societies to the present.

Johnson, Stanley, Life Without Birth, Little, Brown and Company, 364 pp.

Kempton, Winifred, Medora S. Bass, and Sol Gordon, Love, Sex and Birth Control for the Mentally Retarded, Planned Parenthood Association, 1971, 36 pp., (paperback).

Short book for the parents of mentally retarded children giving advice and suggestions for telling their children about sex, birth control, marriage, etc. Other books which give related information about mentally retarded children and sex are referred to.

Kennedy, David M., Birth Control in America: The Career of Margaret Sanger, Yale University Press, 1970, 320 pp., $8.75.

A history of the birth control movement in the United States and a biography of the movement's leader, Margaret Sanger.

Lader, Lawrence, Abortion, Bobbs-Merrill Company, Inc., 1966, 212 pp., $5.95 (paperback $1.95, Beacon Press)

While somewhat dated because of changes in some states' abortion laws it is an informative book giving an over view of the abortion picture around the world. Indexed and includes notes and special references for each chapter.

Lee, Nancy Howell, The Search for an Abortionist, The University of Chicago Press, 1969, 207 pp.

Detailed empirical study of the whole range of factors--psychological, social, medical, financial and legal--that effect the woman who seeks an abortion using information from 144 American women who have sought and undergone abortion. The communications networks used by these women to arrange their own abortions are described in detail.

Milner, Esther, The Impacts of Fertility Limitation on Women's Life Career and Personality, the New York Academy of Sciences, 1970 (paperback).

Noonan, John T., Jr. (ed.), The Morality of Abortion, Harvard University Press, 1970, 276 pp., $8.95.

A discussion of the movement to accept abortion with a call to reassess the direction of that movement.

O'Brien, John A., Family Planning in an Exploding Population, Hawthorn Books, Inc., 1968, 222 pp., $5.95.

Statements, documents and articles by leading figures in America and Europe who have made appeals for a reappraisal of the issue of birth control assembled by the editor. Also includes the editor's own views. Joseph Krebs, Lois Mattox Miller, Ellen Winston, Clare Boothe Luce, Cardinals Leger, Alfrink and Suenens.

Ortho-Pharmaceutical Corporation, Understanding Conception and Contraception, Ortho-Pharmaceutical Corporation.

A manual of the female role in the sexual relationship with helpful diagrams. Especially for women.

FAMILY PLANNING

Peel, John and Malcolm Potts, Textbook of Contraceptive Practice, Harvard University Press, 1969, 297 pp., (paperback $2.95).

Attempts to fill the need for an authoritative textbook presenting the student and the practicing doctor, with the scientific and clinical data required for a thorough understanding of the background, principles and application of contraceptive methods.

Population Council, A Manual for Surveys of Fertility and Family Planning: Knowledge, Attitudes and Practice, The Population Council, 1970, 405 pp. (paperback).

A discussion of the nonparticipation of psychologists in the study of population growth. A call that psychologists answer the vital question, "Why do people want children?"

Reiterman, Carl (ed.), Abortion and the Unwanted Child, Springer Publishing Company, 1971, 181 pp., $7.50.

The major concern of most of these studies is with what life holds out socially and emotionally for the unwanted child.

Rosen, Harold (ed.), Abortion in America: Medical, Psychiatric, Legal, Anthropological and Religious Consideration in the Prevention of Conception, and the Interruption of Pregnancy, Beacon Press, 1967, 321 pp., $2.95.

A collection of articles concerning abortion in the U. S. The author is pro-abortion.

Rossman, Isadore, M.D., Two Children by Choice: The Why and How of the Two Child Family, Parents' Magazine Press, 1970, 151 pp., $3.95.

Presents the arguments for limiting families to two children.

Stycos, J. Mayone, Ideology, Faith, and Family Planning in Latin America: Studies in Public and Private Opinion on Fertility Control, McGraw-Hill Book Company, 1971, 418 pp., $15.00.

A study of public and private opinion about the population explosion in Latim America including political, psychological, religious, and ideological aspects of the problem.

Weinberg, R.D., Laws Governing Family Planning, Oceana Publications, Inc., 1968, 100 pp., $3.00.

A discussion of the laws relating to contraception, sterilization, and family planning.

Westoff, Leslie Aldridge and Charles F. Westoff, From Now to Zero: Fertility, Contraception and Abortion in America, Little, Brown and Company, 1971, 358 pp., (paperback $3.95).

A report for the lay readership of the findings of the 1965 National Fertility Study under the auspices of the National Institute of Child Health and Human Developemnt.

Williams, Glanville, The Sanctity of Life and the Criminal Law, Alfred A. Knopf, 1970, 350 pp., $6.95.

A jurist deals with the legal, theological, biological, moral, social, demographic, penological aspects of the control of conception, sterilization, artifical insemination, abortion, suicide, and euthanasia.

Willke, Dr. and Mrs. J.C., Handbook of Abortion, Hiltz Publishing Company, 1971 (paperback $.95).

A pro-life discussion of the abortion controversy.

World Health Organization, Abortion Laws: A Survey of Current World Legislation, WHO, 1971, 78 pp. (paperback $3.50).

This publication gives new abortion legislation and development in over 50 countries. "The aim of the survey is to outline the conditions, procedures and safeguards governing legal abortion in each of the countries covered." Also includes an extensive bibliography.

FAMILY PLANNING

2. Pamphlets and Periodicals

Association for the Study of Abortion, Inc., 120 West 57th Street, New York, NY 10019 (212) CI5-2360.

Publishes a quarterly newsletter and a bibliography (both free), reprint articles relating to abortion for 10¢ each, and has some films available (also free).

Country Profiles, The Population Council and The International Institue for the Study of Human Reprodution.

A series of occasional papers, each setting forth the nature, scope, and accomplishments of population activities in a specified country, based on an internationally comparable outline. Selected issues available in French and Spanish.

Current Publications in Population/Family Planning, The Population Council and the International Institute for the Study of Human Reproduction, Columbia Universkiy.

A four page abstract bibliography issued every month and consisting of titles deemed by the Population Council staff to be of particular interest to administrators and scholars in the field (no charge).

Perspectives, Published quarterly by Planned Parenthood Federation of America, Inc., The Center for Family Planning Development, 515 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10022.

Journal for those in the family planning field. Contains articles about research, programs, and developments in family planning as well as reviews of recent books in the field.

Reports on Population/Family Planning, The Population Council and The International Institute for the Study of Human Reproduction, Columbia University.

A series of occasional papers, each of which presents in depth the current experience, information, and evidence on a central topic related to family planning. Selected issues available in French and Spanish.

Selected Bibliography, Katherine Dexter McCormick Library, Planned Parenthood/World Population, 515 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10022.

Includes articles and books on contraception, infertility, abortion, population, demographic research, family planning surveys, family planning programs, poverty and family planning.

Studies in Family Planning, The World Population Council, 245 Park Avenue, New York 10017.

A monthly bulletin containing articles on a wide range of topics related to population and family planning. Available in French and Spanish beginning with Volume 1, Number 49, January 1970.

Social Biology (formerly Eugenics Quarterly), published for the American Eugenics Society by the University of Chicago Press, 5801 Ellis Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60637.

Sociology Biology is devoted to furthering the discussion, advancement, and dissemination of knowledge concerning the biological and the sociocultural forces which affect the structure and composition of human population.

3. Audio - Visual Materials

Films

The Tragedy of the Commons--Issues in Population Biology, King Screen Production, 320 Aurora Avenue North, Seattle, WA 98109, Purchase = $295; rental = $35.

FAMILY PLANNING

Filmstrips

Modern Methods of Family Planning, National Health Films, 15 min. $37.50. Also available on slides for $50.00.

A discussion of the reasons for planning a family with an introduction to the use of the various methods.

E. Sex Education

1. General

Anderson, Wayne J., How to Explain Sex to Children, T.S. Denison, 1971, 176 pp., $4.95.

A handbook for parents and teachers as they work together with their children in explaining sex to them. It gives sound and clear ways to handle sex education at various age levels from infancy to teenyears. He stresses giving sex education along with a sound attitude toward life.

Breasted, Mary, Oh! Sex Education!, Praeger Publishers, 1970, $7.95.

An examination of the movements pro and con concerning sex education.

Burke, Susan (ed.), Responsible Parenthood and Sex Education, International Planned Parenthood Federation, 1970 (paperback $1.75).

This volume is the proceedings of the International Planned Parenthood Federation Working Group held in Tunesia in 1969. It is devoted solely to consideration of the aims and objects of education in responsible parenthood and sex education for children and young people, including the report and recommendations of the working group participants. Also included are the IPPF statement on responsible parenthood and sex education, a summary of the discussion which took place during the meeting, and a set of background papers on the status of this type of education in nine different countries.

Child Study Association of America, Sex Education, Recommended Reading, Child Study Association of America, 1969, 16 pp., (paperback $.50).

Child Study Association of America, Sex Education and the New Morality, Columbia University Press, 1967, 90 pp., (paperback $1.95).

An examination of the search for a meaningful social ethic.

Child Study Association of America, When Children Ask About Sex, Child Study Association of America, 1969, 40 pp., (paperback $.75).

A handbook for parents to help with their childrens' questions about sex.

Clark, LeMon and Isadore Rubin (eds.), 150 Sex Questions and Answers, Health Publications, 1970, 122 pp., $2.25.

150 questions have been gleaned from readers of Sexology and are answered here.

Colton, Helen, Adults Need Sex Education Too, Family Forum, 1970 (paperback $2.10 incl. postage).

A book for parents who need sex education to be good sex educators.

Colton, Helen, How to Talk Sex to Our Children, Family Forum, 1970 (paperback $.60).

Answers to parents' questions about masturbation, pornography, reproduction and other areas of sexuality they will need to be able to discuss with their children.

SEX EDUCATION

Curtis, L. R., About My Daughter, Doctor. . ., Educational Information Institute, 232 pp., $4.95.

A book for parents of preadolescent daughters for help in interpreting sexual development to them. Suitable to read by parents and child.

Del Solar, Charlotte, Parents' Answer Book: What Your Child Ought to Know About Sex, Wonder Books of Grosset and Dunlap, Inc., 1971, 89 pp. (paperback $1.00).

One hundred most often asked children's questions on life, love and reproduction with simple and honest answers all parents can use, as compiled by the Parent and Child Institute.

Goldstein, Martin, M.D., and Erwin J. Haeberle, The Sex Book: A Modern Pictorial Encyclopedia, Herder and Herder, Inc., 1971, 208 pp., $9.95.

An encyclopedia of sex terms fully illustrated with explicit photographs of physical development, sex organs, sexual intercourse, contraceptives, homosexuals, etc. Elementary text.

Grams, Armin, Sex Education: A Guide for Teachers and Parents, Interstate Printers & Publishers, 1970 (paperback).

A discussion of the role teachers and parents should play in the sex education of their children as they move through the developmental life stages to adulthood. It aims at helping adults to better understand their own sexuality so they can become more effective models and guides for youth.

Julian, C. J., and Elizabeth Noland Jackson, Modern Sex Education, Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1972.

Kirkendall, Lester A., Kirkendall on Sex Education: A Collection of Readings, E. C. Brown Center for Family Studies, 1970, 70 pp. (paperback $1.00).

Essays and studies on sex education collected from The Family Coordinator and The Family Life Coordinator.

Kirkendall, Lester A., and Isadore Rubin (eds.), Sex in the Childhood Years, Association Press, 1970, 190 pp., $4.95.

Contemporary views on childhood sexuality reprinted from Sexology magazine.

La Leche League International, The Womanly Art of Breastfeeding, La Leche International, 1963, 155 pp. $4.00.

The rationale behind the League's stand in favor of breast feeding and advice for the mother who chooses to breast feed her child.

Lehman, Edna, Talking to Children about Sex, Harper and Row, 1970, 235 pp., $4.95.

A step-by-step handbook for talking to children about sex from infancy to teen age. The content is outlined by the child's age.

Levenson, Sam, Sex and the Single Child, Simon and Schuster, 1969, 64 pp., $3.50.

A humerous look at the sex attitudes of parents and children.

Life Cycle Center, The Me I Want to Be and And A Time for Choice, Kimberly Clark Corporation, Box 551-CK, Neenah, Wisconsin 54956, $19.95.

For, respectively, the elementary and secondary levels. Each kit contains a set of transparencies, a script-narration, suggested questions for discussion, projects and activities, annotated bibliography of sources for further information, and three informational booklets. To stimulate honest personal discussion of emotional and physical development.

SEX EDUCATION

Taylor, Donald L. (ed.), Human Sexual Development: Perspectives in Sex Education, Davis, 1970, 407 pp. (paperback).

Written for the college level, especially for teachers of sex education or family life education, this book deals with sex, sexuality, and the psychosexual development of the child. Includes suggestions for sex education programs.

Wrage, Karl, Man and Woman: The Basics of Sex and Marriage, Fortress Press, 1966, 245 pp., $8.75.

A very complete book of the sexual aspects of child-rearing and marriage. Physiology and emotions are taken into account. Many diagrams showing genetic union, sexual characteristics, the process of childbirth. Suggestions on the content and process of sex education of the child.

2. For Children

Schlein, Miriam, Laurie's New Brother, Abelard-Schuman, 1961, 40 pp.

A story to prepare the older child for the coming of a new baby.

Strain, F. B., Being Born, Hawthorn Books, Inc., 1970, 125 pp., $4.95.

A book for children giving the story of reproduction and fetal development. Does not consider intercourse.

Hamilton, E. H., What Made Me?, Hawthorn Books, Inc., 1970, 26 pp., $4.95.

A book about sexual reproduction for the child to read.

Hobson, L. Z., I'm Going to Have a Baby!, The John Day Company, 1967, 40 pp.

A book for children about the new baby that is coming into their family. It stresses family relationships and answers some questions about the birth of the baby.

3. For Young People

Bohannan, Paul, Love, Sex and Being Human, Doubleday and Company, 1969, 144 pp.

This book by an anthropologist is based on the belief that human behavior best results from accurate knowledge of alternatives rather than on the basis of fear.

Brown, Fred, and R. T. Kempton, Sex Questions and Answers, McGraw-Hill Book Company, 1970, 259 pp., $.95.

Questions about sex are answered in a manner suitable for high school students and adults.

Gordon, Sol, Facts About Sex: A Basic Guide, The John Day Company, 1969, 43 pp., $3.95.

A book for junior high and high school youth designed to answer their questions about sex and help them to accept it as an inherent part of life.

Gordon, Sol and Roger Conant, Ten Heavy Facts About Sex, Family Planning and Population Information Center, Syracuse, New York, 1971.

A comicbook for young people who have tuned out traditional establishment approaches to sex education. This is especially for the young person taking part in sexual relations who as part of the sexual revolution is more active but no better informed than his predecessors about sexual matters.

SEX EDUCATION

Hatch, Claudia (ed.), What You Should Know about Sex and Sexuality, Scholastic Book Services, 1969, 120 pp.

A book of questions and answers about sexual development designed for the ninth and tenth grade student.

Hettlinger, Richard F., Growing Up With Sex, Seabury Press, 1971, 162 pp. (paperback $2.25).

A discussion of the psycho-socio-emotional sides of growing up with sex as well as the physical side of development.

Johnson, Eric W., Sex, Telling It Straight, Bantom Books, 1971, 96 pp., (paperback $.75).

The facts of sex written for the young people in the belief that people are more likely to use their sexual power for good if they know all about it.

Jones, S. N., Sex and the Now Generation, John Knox Press, 1970, 108 pp., $2.45.

A reiteration of the view that sexual intercourse should be responsibly expressed, preferably in marriage.

Pomeroy, W. B., Boys and Sex, Delacorte Press, 1968, 153 pp., $4.50.

An authoritative look at human sexuality especially written for the preadolescent to adolescent boy.

Pomeroy, W. B., Girls and Sex, Delacorte Press, 1969, 159 pp., $4.50.

The equivalent of Boys and Sex but for girls, this book will answer honestly the questions asked by girls as they grow into women.

F. Audio-Visual Materials

About Your Sexuality, Beacon Press, 1971, Multimedia kit, $80.

A collection of multimedia resources--tapes, records, games, pictures, literature, filmstrips, leader's guide--designed to help young people obtain frank and accurate information about sexuality and to stimulate discussion between young people and adult leaders.

Birth Day, Florence Crittendon

Masculine or Feminine: Your Role in Society, Coronet Films, 16 mm, sound, color, 18 minutes.

Uses cinema verite techniques to expl[illegible]nging attitudes about gender role in contemporary American society. Senior high.

Not Me Alone, Polymorph Films, Inc., 1970, [illegible]utes.

This film follows a couple as they att[illegible]ildbirth preparation classes and have a baby by the Lamaze method of natural childbirth with the husband present during both labor and delivery as well as later during rooming-in.

A Shared Beginning, Merrill/Bracken Releas[illegible]poration, 1971, 28 minutes.

Documentary presentation of prena[illegible]ation and childbirth using preparatory classes and breathing techniques.

V. D.: A New Focus, American Educational Films.

SEX EDUCATION

What About Sex?, Nett-Link Productions, 16 mm, sound, black and white, 24 minutes.

Designed to stimulate discussion of sexual behavior and attitudes in coeducational senior high school classes.

You Got What?, Franciscan Films, 16 mm, sound, color, 23 minutes.

Uses modern film techniques, sometimes to the sacrifice of content. Intended to counteract usual fear tactics in V.D. films.

ADOLESCENCE AND YOUTH

III. ADOLESCENCE AND YOUTH

A. General References on Adolescence

Bachman, J. G., R. L. Kann, M. T. Mednick, T. N. Davidson, and L. D. Johnson, Youth in Transition: Blueprint for a Longitudinal Study of Adolescent Boys, Vol. I & II, Institute for Social Research, University of Michigan, 1969, 530 pp.

Presentation of the design for a total project in longitudinal study and some topics for further research, comprises Vol. I. Vol. II is concerned with family background and intelligence of tenth grade boys.

Child Study Association of America, The Function of Rebellion, Child Study Association of America, 1969, 83 pp. (paperback $2.45).

A discussion of the question, "Is Youth Creating New Family Values?"

Donovan, F. R., Wild Kids: How Youth Has Shocked Its Elders Then and Now, Stackpole Books, 1967, 286 pp., $6.50.

The author shows that the relationships of parents and youth have always been the same and in fact may have been worse in the past.

Duffy, Joseph and George A. Giuliani (eds.), Selected Readings in Adolescent Psychology, McCutchan Publishing Corporation, 1970, 275 pp. (paperback).

A reader including articles by the best known writers in the field of psychology concerning adolescent development, the adolescent's relationship to school, sex and marriage, vocational orientation and society as a whole.

Easson, W. M., The Severely Disturbed Adolescent, International Universities Press, Inc., 1969, 237pp.

An examination of the methods and goals of residential treatment for severely disturbed adolescents.

Fane, Arthur and Xenia Fane, Behind Every Face: A Changing Person, Ginn and Company, 1970, 101 pp. (paperback).

A guide through self-development suitable for teens as they discover who they are.

Feinstein, Sherman C., Peter Giovacchini, and Arthur A. Miller (eds.), Adolescent Psychiatry, Vol. I, Developmental and Clinical Studies, Basic Books, 1971, 552 pp., $15.00.

A reader including general considerations on adolescence, developmental stages in the adolescent process, effects of early object relations on adolescent character structure and psychotherapy with adolescents. The position statement of the American Society for Adolescent Psychiatry on Training in Adolescent Psychiatry is also included.

Frey, Sherman H. (ed.), Adolescent Behavior in School, Rand McNally, 1970, 446 pp. (paperback).

This is a reader designed primarily for the teacher in training or in practice. It contains many articles on the child in relation to the school, a relationship which has a great influence in his life. The articles are intended to expose the reader to a wide variety of determinants, outcomes, and concerns related to adolescent behavior in school.

Gersh, Marvin J., M.D. and Iris F. Litt, M.D., The Handbook of Adolescence: A Medical Guide for Parents and Teen-Agers, Stein and Day Publishers, 1971, 225 pp., $6.95.

Covers most medical concomitants of adolescence, i.e., physical development, heredity, weight problems, glandular diseases, sex and contraception, special care of teeth, eyes, skin, breasts, etc., problems such as smoking, drugs, etc.

ADOLESCENCE AND YOUTH

Hansel, Robert R., Like Father, Like Son - Like Hell, The Seabury Press, 1969, 126 pp., $3.95.

An examination of the alienation that exists between many young people and the rest of society, especially parents and teachers which the author thinks lies not in age but in the difference in thinking and life experience of those involved--in what Hansel calls the Assumption Gap.

Kavanaugh, Robert, The Grim Generation, Trident Press, 1970, $5.95.

The author presents a portrait of the American college student and the many faces or masks which he may wear. He challenges America to provide its students with a relevant curriculum, a concerned faculty, and a vital academic atmosphere where fear is forbidden and innovation invited.

Lenard, Grace, Don't Just Hear--Listen, Lawrence Publishing Co., 1971, 163 pp. (paperback $4.95).

Deals with youth-adult communication.

Lukas, J. Anthony, Don't Shoot--We Are Your Children!, 1970, $8.95.

Report on the Linda Fitzpatrick murder, other young Americans and the clash of generations.

Maizels, Joan, Adolescent Needs and the Transition from School to Work, Oxford University Press, 1970 354 pp., $11.25.

This is a report of a British research study of the needs and opportunities of 15-18 year olds during the transition from school to work.

Medinnus, Gene R. and Ronald C. Johnson, Child and Adolescent Psychology: A Book of Readings, John Wiley and Sons, Inc., 1970.

A reader on child and adolescent development including the influence of the family and society on the socialization of the individual.

Muuss, Rolf E. (ed.), Adolescent Behavior and Society: A Book of Readings, Random House, 1971, 532 pp. (paperback).

A collection of articles dealing with the wide range of relationships that an adolescent has in our society and the developmental tasks that he must accomplish.

Office of Child Development, Teenagers Discuss the "Generation Gap", U. S. Government Printing Office 1970 (paperback).

Interviews with young people around the problems of today. The generation gap was seen to be primarily a gap in communication.

Powell, Marvin and Allen H. Frerichs (eds.), Readings in Adolescent Psychology, Burgess Publishing Company, 1971, 331 pp. (paperback $4.95).

A book of readings which strives to: 1. give the student the opportunity to explore in depth studies presented only briefly in texts; 2. to present studies completed in the span of the last decade; and 3. to present studies spanning the major areas of adolescence.

Self, William L, Bridging the Generation Gap, Broadman Press, 1971 (paperback $1.95).

A Baptist minister's advice to parents and young people.

Sklansky, Morris A., M.D., Sylvia W. Silverman, and Helen G. Rabichow, The High School Adolescent: Understanding and Treating His Emotional Problems, Association Press, 1969, 256 pp., $6.95.

An examination of the problems of and the treatment process with adolescents.

Snyder, Ross, Young People and Their Culture, Abingdon Press, 1969, 218 pp., $4.50.

A discussion of Snyder's belief that young people should develop a culture with the main goal of fulfillment for the individual.

Tarnowsky, Peter, Prove It To Me, Daddy--Prove It To Me!: A Play for our Times, Jericho, New York, Exposition Press, 1971, 39 pp., $3.00

Examines the gap that has torn our generations apart--in clear, modern language.

Tooman, Charles, And Then They Said We Had To Get Married, Abbey Press, 1971, 128 pp. (paperback $1.2

Aimed at communities, churches, families, and schools--to challenge them to help and support stressful teenage marriages caused by pregnancy.

Westley, William A. and Nathan B. Epstein, Silent Majority, Jossey-Bass Inc., 1970, $7.75.

The report of two long-term psychiatric-sociological studies of the ordinary, dutiful student, designed to investigate the relationship between the emotional health of these "typical" students and the way their families are organized.

B. Some Suggested Texts for Junior and Senior High School

Avery, Curtis E. and Theodore B. Johannis, Jr., Love and Marriage: A Guide for Young People, Harcourt, Brace, Jovanovich, Inc., 1971, 170 pp., $4.95.

A text suitable for high school which seeks to help young people arrive at a realistic approach to married life especially by dealing with areas in which couples most frequently make decisions.

Baker, Katherine Read and Xenia F. Fane, Understanding and Guiding Young Children, Prentice Hall, 1971, Second Edition, 348 pp.

Includes a new chapter, "Children Are Members of Families" together with updated materials and new photographs. Stresses child understanding rather than child care. Intended for high school child development courses; also useful in adult education courses.

Barclay, Champion, Brinkley, and Funderburk, Teen Guide to Homemaking, McGraw-Hill, 1971 (Third Edition), 528 pp., $7.80.

This edition retains coverage in the five basic areas of home economics at a beginning level plus added information regarding consumership as applied to the lives of teen-agers, and a broad approach to successful family living by teen-agers and their families. Built-in tests for personal evaluation and vocational information included.

Landis, Judson T. and Mary G. Landis, Personal Adjustment, Marriage and Family Living (Fifth Edition) Prentice-Hall, 1970, 418 pp.

A text for the course in marriage and the family revised in terms of the social changes of the past decade.

Meiklejohn, Phyllis J., The Family: Selected Sources, McClelland and Stewart Ltd., 1969, 85 pp. (paperback $1.40).

A resource book designed for young people in secondary school: a series of readings to provoke thought.

ADOLESCENCE AND YOUTH

C. Some Suggestions for Teen-Age Reading

Barnes, Kenneth C., He and She, Penguin Books, 1970, 205 pp. (paperback $.95).

A book on sex and development designed for boys and young men but also appropriate for girls.

Berger, Terry, I Have Feelings, Behavioral Publications, 1971, $3.95.

This is the fourth book of a series of illustrated books for children on psychologically relevant themes. It covers 17 different feelings, both good and bad, and the situations that precipitated each one. Geared for 4-9 year olds to read by themselves. Photographs included.

Brister, C. W., It's Tough Growing Up, Broadman Press, 1971, 128 pp., $2.95.

Christian guidance for the younger generation in our troubled and changing times. Offers help and reassurance in the problems of growing up.

Edens, David, Teen Sense (A Guide to the Turbulent Teens), Warner Press, 1971, 112 pp. (paperback $2.00).

Christian answers to some of the questions of adolescence--physiological and psychological changes, values and moral codes.

Glassberg, Bert Y., Teen-Age Sex Counselor (revised edition), Barron's Educational Press, 1970, 182 pp. (paperback $1.50).

Questions asked by teenagers about sex are answered. Suitable for home or school.

Johnson, Eric W. and Corrinne B. Johnson, Love and Sex and Growing Up, J. B. Lippincott, 1970, $3.95,

Clear answers for the questions fo children aged ten to twelve years. Specific sex information within a family context for the average youngster who lacks specific answers.

D. Audio-Visual Materials

Saturday Morning, Columbia Pictures, 1970, 88 min.

A new story of today about young people and their hopes and desires verbalized by them.

The Searching Years, Churchill Films.

A series of five films, I Owe You Nothing, Wait Until Your Father Gets Home, Mom, Why Won't You Listen?, Can A Parent Be Human, and Ivan and His Father.

LOOKING TOWARD MARRIAGE

IV. LOOKING TOWARD MARRIAGE

A. General Information on Courtship, Love, and Mate Selection

1. Books and Periodicals

Amstutz, H. Clair, M.D., So You're Going to Be Married, Scottsdale, Pa.: Herald Press, 1971, 95 pp. (paperback $ .95).

Written for the engaged and just married. Emphasizes the interrelationship of the spiritual, emotional, and physical aspects of love and marriage. The author, a medical doctor, leads the reader to a fuller appreciation of the home and wholesome family living.

Boll, E.S., The Man That You Marry, Macrae-Smith, 1963, 183 pp., $4.20.

A book for the girl who is about to be married to help her understand men and masculinity. Urges consideration of men as individuals who will react uniquely to situations they will meet in their marriage.

Bossard, J.H.S. and E.S. Boll, The Girl That You Marry, Macrae-Smith, 1960, 190 pp.

A book for the soon-to-be-married man to help him to realize the uniqueness of his future wife as a person with her own attitudes, values, and needs.

Drakeford, John W., This Insanity Called Love, Word Book Publishers, 1970, 152 pp.

The author examines the whole multiform of love, primarily in the lives of half a dozen famous men and women of history, then analyzes the currently fashionable idea of romantic love.

Eichenlaub, J.E., The Marriage Art, Dell Publishing Company, 1969, 218 pp. (paperback $ .95).

A step-by-step guide to sexual intercourse suitable for the about-to-be-married, especially the very naive.

Hamilton, Eleanor, Sex Before Marriage, Bantam Books, 1970, 138 pp. (paperback $ .95).

The author advocates premarital sexual expression, especially through petting, not especially through intercourse, without guilt or fear.

Hedgepeth, William, The Alternative: Communal Life in New American, Macmillian, 1970.

Imbiorski, W.J. and J.L. Thomas, Beginning Your Marriage, Cana Conference of Chicago, 1969, 120 pp. (paperback $ .75).

A manual which outlines the teaching of the Roman Catholic Church for Catholic youth planning marriage.

Kanter, Rosabeth Moss, "Communes", Psychology Today, July 1970, 53ff.

Lanes, Selma G., "Communes: A Firsthand Report on a Controversial New Life Style", Parent's Magazine, October, 1971, pp. 61ff.

LeShan, Eda J., Mates and Roommates: New Styles in Young Marriages, Public Affairs Pamphlet No. 468, 1971, 28 pp., $ .25.

Mead, Margaret, "Communes: A Challenge to All of Us", Redbook, August, 1970, pp. 51-52.

Mead, Margaret, "Marriage in Two Steps", Redbook, 127: 48-49, 1966.

Novalis, Mosaic, Novalis, 1970 (paperback $7.95).

An eleven pamphlet course for engaged couples.

Otto, Herbert A., "Communes: The Alternative Life Style", Saturday Review, 53: 16-21, April 24, 1971.

Riker, Audrey P. and Holly E. Brisbane, Married Life, Charles A. Bennett, 1970, 543 pp.

A strictly marriage book--divided into two main sections: personal relationships; and the business of marriage. Much emphasis on the planning and meaning of a wedding.

Roberts, Ron, Coming Together in America, Prentice-Hall, 1971.

Report of a sociological investigation into the roots and development of the growing interest in communal living in the U.S.

Shaffer, Helen B., "Communal Living", Editorial Research Reports, August 6, 1969, pp. 577-594.

Slater, Philip E., "Cultures in Collision", Psychology Today, July 1970, 53ff.

Wills, Theodore and Lee S. Christie, "Living Together: An Alternative to Marriage", The Futurist, 1970, pp. 50ff.

2. Audio-Visual Materials

Johnny Lingo, Brigham Young University, Department of Motion Picture Production, 1969, 27 min., color, $265.

The story of an Hawaiian trader who bought Mahana for his bride, even though she was considered worthless by her father.

Marriage: A Simple Glory, Fred A. Niles Communications Centers, Inc., 1967, 40 min.

Using the marriage ceremony as the basis for thematic development, this film is meant to stimulate the audience to inquire of themselves of their attitudes toward marriage and the meaning of personal commitment.

Marriage--What Kind for You?, Brigham Young University, Department of Motion Picture Production, 25 min., color, $265.

An engaged couple have the opportunity to see the sharp contrast between several married couples at a cocktail party.

B. College Level Marriage and Family Texts and Anthologies

Adams, Bert N., and Thomas Weirath (eds.), Readings on the Sociology of the Family, Markham, 1971, 475 pp.

Benson, Leonard, The Family Bond: Marriage, Love, and Sex in America, Random House, 1971, 441 pp. $8.95.

Two central themes: the nature and source of family bonds and the pressures that undermine these bonds in contemporary America; "mutual ego support" as a basic element in husband-wife ties and parent-child relations. Combines the practical and the theoretical.

Bowman, Henry A., Marriage for Moderns (6th edition), McGraw-Hill, 1970, 623 pp.

Both theoretical material and appropriate coordinated readings are available to the student in this revised edition.

LOOKING TOWARD MARRIAGE

Clatworthy, Nancy M. and Jerome D. Folkman, Marriage Has Many Faces, Charles E. Merrill, 1970, 436 pp., $7.95.

A text appropriate for the introductory course in marriage and the family dealing with the various aspects of marriage.

Harris, C.C., The Family: An Introduction, Praeger, 1970, 212 pp., $6.75.

An introductory text in the family with a concentration on the British family. It is divided into three sections: kinship, marriage and the family; the family and society; family process and family structure.

Kephart, William H., The Family, Society, and the Individual (3rd edition), Houghton Mifflin Company, 1970, 666 pp., $8.50.

New research data has been incorporated into this revision. The book is especially concerned with the family as a social institution.

Kirkendall, Lester A., Marriage and Family Relations (A Reading and Study Guide for Students), W.C. Brown Company, 1970 (paperback $3.50).

A study guide with suggested bibliographies, etc.

Kirkendall, Lester A. and Wesley J. Adams, The Student's Guide to Marriage and Family Life Literature: An Aid to Individualized Study (5th edition), W.C. Brown Company, 1971, 147 pp. (paperback $3.50),

A study guide including bibliography, questionnaires, etc.

Klemer, Richard H., Marriage and Family Relationships, Harper and Row, 1970, 340 pp.

This is a text for the course in marriage and the family employing the case-study approach.

Klemer, Richard H., Marriage and Family Relationships, Instructor's Manual, Harper and Row, 1970, (paperback).

Suggested activities and test questions for the above text.

Landis, Paul H., Making the Most of Marriage (4th edition), Appleton-Century-Crofts, 1970, 707 pp., $8.95.

A revised text for the course in marriage and the family.

Luckey, Eleanore and George W. Wise, Human Growth and the Family, Graded Press, 1970, 160 pp. (paperback).

Traces the interaction of the family and the individual as the individual grows through his life cycle and as the family as a unit progresses through the stages of the family life cycle.

Martinson, Floyd M., Family in Society, Dodd, Mead, and Company, 1970, 395 pp., $7.50.

A sociological view of the American family as it has related itself to various systems in three hundred years of history--in a totalitarian, legalistic oligarchy of Massachusetts Bay Colony; in a society that greatly valued freedom as during the fight for American independence; in a slave society such as the South; and in a period of rapid change from rural-agricultural to urban-industrial society.

Saxton, Lloyd, The Individual, Marriage, and the Family: Current Perspectives, Wadsworth Publishing Company, 1970, 457 pp. (paperback).

An accompanying reader to the author's text of the same title which will give impetus to discussion around topics of current interest to college students.

Reimer, George R., Dialog: Dating and Marriage, 1968, Holt, Rinehart, and Winston, Inc.

Attempts to prepare students for better communication, decision-making, and self-knowledge as part of the preparation for marriage. Especially for Catholic youth.

Turner, Ralph H., Family Interaction, John Wiley and Sons, Inc., 1970, 505 pp., $10.95.

A text in sociology of the family with particular emphasis on the internal processes of individual families.

C. Subcultural Factors in Mate Selection: Race, Religion, Ethnic Background, Social Class

1. Books

Besancency, Paul H., S.J., Interfaith Marriages: Who and Why, College and University Press, 1970, 223 pp., $6.50.

The principle findings of social scientists about couples who choose to marry across religious lines.

Cox, Rachel Dunaway, Youth into Maturity, Mental Health Materials Center, 1970, 360 pp., $12.50.

This is a longitudinal study of how 63 young people functioned during a 10-year period following their graduation from college. The purpose of this study was to clarify the concept of the mentally healthy, normally functioning young adult. Six tasks of adulthood were investigated in the interview (2nd) after ten years. They were: further education, work, marriage, parenthood, relationships with own parents, and management of money. One of the interesting findings has to do with the experiences of those in the Korean War or World War II compared with the effects of those who have fought in the current Viet Nam War.

Hathorn, Raban, W.H. Genne, and Mordecai Brill (eds.), Marriage: An Interfaith Guide for all Couples, Association Press, 249 pp., $5.95.

An examination of the concepts of marriage of the Roman Catholic, Jewish and Protestant faiths.

McHugh, James T., Mixed Marriage: New Directions, U.S. Catholic Conference, 1971, 36 pp. (paperback $ .50).

Explains the change of Catholic attitude and discipline according to Pope Paul VI's Apostolic Letter on Mixed Marriages (Jan. 1, 1971) and in accordance with the American Bishop's Statement on the Implementation of the Apostolic Letter on Mixed Marriages.

V. MARRIED LIVING

A. General Information

1. Books

Augsburger, David W., Cherishable: Love and Marriage, Herald Press, 1971, 174 pp. (paperback $ .95)

An exploration of the rights and "wrongs" of living together. It deals with men's and women's roles in marriage, conflict (destructive and constructive); parenting, discipline, money, fidelity and faith, etc.

Bach, George R. and Peter Wyden, The Intimate Enemy, Avon Books, 1969, 384 pp. (paperback $1.25).

The art of constructive marital fighting is illustrated through many examples of fights and their outcomes.

Bird, Joseph and Lois Bird, Marriage is for Grownups, Doubleday, 1971, $5.95 (paperback $1.45).

Communication, money, sex, inlaws, children and work.

Bird, Lois, How to Be a Happily Married Mistress, Doubleday and Company, 1970, $5.95.

A definition of the role of woman as lover-wife with suggestions for making the most of a marriage.

Carr, Jo and Imogene Sorley, The Intentional Family, Nashville: Abingdon Press, 1971, 144 pp., $3.50.

Shows how a family can make choices that will direct its own destiny into intentional channels. For a family to become intentional, it must consider such phases of life as: basic relationship learning together, management of time and money, and facing change.

Clinebell, Howard J. and Charlotte H. Clinebell, The Intimate Marriage, Harper and Row, 1970, 232 pp. $5.95.

Two counselors give suggestions for improving the average marriage by increasing true communication and action toward one another.

Curtis, L.R., Sensible Sex: A Guide for Newlyweds, Publisher's Press, 1968, 72 pp., $3.00.

Explains sexual intercourse to the newly married couple.

Drakeford, John W., Games Husbands and Wives Play, Broadman Press, 1970, 128 pp., $2.95.

This book outlines the "games" that husbands and wives unwittingly "play". The author gives the aim of each game, the rules, and a list of maneuvers that will help to win the game, but the winner may ultimately lose more than the game.

Eisner, Betty Grover, The Unused Potential of Marriage and Sex, Boston: Little Brown, 1970, 243 pp., $5.95.

Based on the premise that the institution of marriage faces too many impossible demands from too many sources, all clamoring for immediate and often simultaneous solution. Discusses four components of marriage — procreation, companionship, growth, sex. An uneven book, but well worth reading.

Fane, Arthur and Xenia Fane, Behind Every Face: A Challenge of Success, Ginn and Company, 1970, 90 pp. (paperback).

This little book covers the wide range of married life including marital interaction, home management, family finances, family planning, and styles of family living.

MARRIED LIVING

Genne, William H., Husbands and Pregnancy, Abbey Press, 1970, 96 pp. (paperback $1.00).

Help for the husband about to be a father, in understanding pregnancy, childbirth, and parenthood.

Glidewell, John C., Choice Points: Essays on the Emotional Problems of Living with People, Massachusetts Institute of Technology Press, 1970, $5.95.

The choice points are the critical moments when we make decisions that somehow change the nature of our relationships with other people and provide a new self-understanding. The author defines the choice points and the two choices available.

Grey, Alan L. (ed.), Man, Woman and Marriage (Small Group Process in the Family), Atherton Press, 1970, $6.95.

The author brings together some controversial works pertaining to the family as a small group specialized in function.

Hunt, Morton, The Affair: A Portrait of Extramarital Love in Contemporary America, World Publishing, 1970, 317 pp., $6.95.

A study of extramarital relationships through interviews with eighty unfaithful men and women. Seldom were both spouses included in the study.

McCall, George J., Michal M. McCall, Norman K. Denzin, Gerald D. Suttles and Suzanne B. Kurth, Social Relationships, Aldine Publishing Company, 1970, $7.95.

An exploratory analysis of voluntary relationships between two persons--lovers, spouses, friends parents, siblings, rivals, clients, employees, employers, partners, et. al.

Moss, J. Joel and A. C. Moss, Moss on Marriage, Brigham Young University Press, 1968, 35 pp. (paperback $1.50).

How to have a happy marriage and make it an exciting experience is the theme of this book which may be best accepted by Mormon youth.

Otto, Herbert, More Joy in Your Marriage, Cornerstone Library, 1969, 192 pp. (paperback).

A practical guide to bring joy into a marriage including games, gifts, thoughtful actions, food, vacations etc.

Plattner, Paul, Conflict and Understanding in Marriage, The John Knox Press, 1970, 95 pp., $2.95.

The author believes that all marriages will have conflict and the couples must learn to deal with it effectively. He uses the Jungian model of personality types to analyze marital conflict

Rainer, Jerome and Julia Rainer, Sexual Adventure in Marriage, Simon and Schuster, 1965, 317 pp., $5.95.

Addressed to the many husbands and wives who have no sexual problem but who are risking future dissatisfaction because even the deepest pleasures can grow stale and monotonous with repetition. Tells frankly how to preserve marital pleasures over the years.

Rubin, Isadore (ed.), Sexual Freedom in Marriage, New American Library, 1969, 231 pp. (paperback $ .95).

A collection of short articles dealing with the questions most men and women ask about human sexuality.

Seidenberg, Robert, M.D., Marriage in Life and Literature, Philosophical Library, Inc., 1970, $5.95.

The author believes that marriage can bring problems to some people. He uses clinical materials as well as literature to demonstrate both these problems and the prospect of growth.

MARRIED LIVING

Smith, Gerald W., Me and You and Us, Peter Wyden, Inc., 1971, $4.95.

A reader-participator book containing a program of 47 new experiences for couples struggling with communication problems.

Thorp, Roderick and Robert Blake, Wives: An Investigation, Evans, 1971, $7.95.

A revealing study of marriage based on interviews with 40 married women, diverse in age, experience, socio-economic status, and life style. Candid revelations about themselves, their husbands, and their marital and extra-marital relationships.

Trobisch, Walter, I Married You, Harper and Row, 1971, $4.95 (paperback $1.95).

2. Audio-Visual Materials

Encounter, St. Francis Productions, 1969, 7 min.

Through six short illustrations of success or failure in communication, this film examines both positive and negative factors in the attempts of the husband and wife, parent and child to encounter, to love each other.

B. Working Wives and Mothers

Beer, Ethel S., Working Mothers and the Day Nursery, Mystic, Conn.: Lawrence Verry, Inc., 1970 (2nd edition), 189 pp.

Callahan, Sidney Cornelia, The Working Mother, Macmillan Company, 1971, 264 pp., $5.95.

In this book sixteen women tell how they successfully combine careers and child-rearing. The author points a way to a solution that lies in the transformation of our ideas of work, why women need it, and the realm of being a mother.

C. Marriage and Family Counseling

1. Books

Ackerman, Nathan W. (ed.), Family Therapy in Transition, Little Brown and Company, 1970, 341 pp.

A discussion of the transition to family therapy from individual therapy by many counselors.

Berger, Milton M., M.D., Videotape Techniques in Psychiatric Training and Treatment, Brunner, 1970, 303 pp., $15.00.

This volume makes available the first comprehensive presentation of every aspect of videotape in psychiatry, covering legal and ethical considerations as well as theory and practice and the technical and artistic guidance. Twenty-six leading experts present their practical experience with videotape in psychiatry--in medical school, hospital and private settings, for individual, family and group therapy. A comprehensive bibliography and glossary are included.

Brodey, Warren M., M.D., Changing the Family, Clarkson N. Potter, Inc., 1968, 160 pp., $6.00.

A physician's discussion of treating adolescents and children with emotional difficulties in the context of the whole family.

Friedman, Alfred S. and Ivan Boszormenzi-Nagy, Psychotherapy for the Whole Family, Springer Publishing Company, 1965, 342 pp.

Moving from thinking of dysfunction only in terms of individuals the author describes treatment of whole families in a therapeutic program carried out in their homes.

MARRIED LIVING

Friedman, Alfred S., Therapy with Families of Sexually Acting-Out Girls, Springer Publishing Company, 1971, $7.50.

This book deals with family therapy in one area--that of families with daughters who have problems related to sexual behavior--vagrancy, promiscuity, incest, homosexuality, etc. Case examples are given with detailed reports of progress from the therapy and the problems that arise. It also approximates a guide to practice by reporting on the learning process of the beginning family therapist and on the role of his supervisor.

Gangsei, Lyle B., Manual for Group Premarital Counseling, Association Press, 1971, 251 pp., $6.95.

Designed to bring the values of group counseling procedures to the practice of premarital counseling, this manual is for the use of clergymen, psychologists, counselors, and educators.

Greene, Bernard L., M.D., A Clinical Approach to Marital Problems, Charles C. Thomas, 1970, 445 pp., $20.00.

This book distinguishes between individual and marital therapy, but gives extensive coverage to treatment of the personality. Uses systems theory as an approach to both diagnosis and treatment, dealing thoroughly with both.

Henry, William E., John H. Sims and S. Lee Spray, The Fifth Profession, Jossey-Bass, Inc., 1971, 221 pp., $8.75.

The authors studied four distinct professions--psychiatry, clinical psychology, psychoanalysis, and psychiatric social work--to find out what motivated those in each profession to choose the therapeutic specialty. Their purpose was to determine whether these practitioners are sufficiently similar to warrant their classification as a "fifth profession" and whether the training for this fifth profession should be significantly different from the training that now prevails in each of the four "parent" professions.

Hine, James R., Grounds for Marriage, The Interstate Printers and Publishers, Inc., 1967, 79 pp., $6.25.

A study and work manual to be used by marriage counselors, ministers, teachers, and couples preparing for marriage. Includes questionnaires as bases for discussions, work sheets, etc.

Howells, John G., Theory and Practice of Family Psychiatry, Brunner/Mazel, 1971, 953 pp., $25.00.

A new approach to family psychiatry where the family replaces the individual as a unit in clinical practice. There is a full presentation of the theory and practice of family psychiatry with an extensive bibliography.

Shepard, Martin, The Love Treatment, 1970, $5.95.

Includes taped interviews concerning sexual intimacy between patients and psychotherapists.

Stein, Calvert, Practical Family and Marriage Counseling, Charles C. Thomas, 1969, 341 pp., $12.50.

Practical guides to the management of everyday problems in child guidance, school difficulties, sex, the teenager, and marriage.

Stewart, Charles William, The Minister as Marriage Counselor, Abingdon Press, 1970, 224 pp., $4.75.

This revised edition includes a new section on a theology of marriage and a selected bibliography. Dr. Stewart writes on pastoral care and marital counseling for the practicing minister and the training student, and sees the minister as marriage counselor as a value-bearer, a symbol of religion, representing life's central values to those who seek his help.

Zuk, G.H. and Ivan Boszormenyi-Nagy, Family Therapy and Disturbed Families, Science and Behavior Books, 1969, 243 pp.

An interdisciplinary volume which tries to redefine concepts and methods in family treatment. Considers the great variety of approaches now being used and of professionals doing family treatment.

2. Audio-Visual Aids for Counselors

The Family Game: Insight and Understanding, Games Worth Playing, Berkeley, Ca., Roseman-Robbins, 1971.

A game for a family (parents and children) to play together. In the process of enjoyable play, it can yield valuable insights to both the therapist and to sensitive family members.

Hine, James R., Marriage Counseling Kit, The Interstate Printers and Publishers, Inc., $25.00.

A set of cards which may be used to help couples understand each other's ideas concerning marriage and family life and offer them opportunities to discuss the points on which they may differ.

D. Divorce and Remarriage

Becker, Russell J., When Marriage Ends, Fortress Press, 1971, 56 pp. (paperback $1.50).

A case-oriented discussion of divorce for those working through the emotions that follow a divorce.

Bernard, Jessie, Remarriage: A Study of Marriage, Russell and Russell, 1971 (reissued with new preface), 372 pp.

Shows that most persons in their remarriage are as successful as those in their first marriages Sections include: "A Cultural and Statistical Overview; The People Who Remarry; Solidarity, Competition, and Conflict; and Evaluation."

Cantor, Donald J., Escape from Marriage: How to Solve the Problems of Divorce, Wm. Morrow and Company, 1971, 191 pp., $4.95.

Examines the process of divorce, explaining legal implications of the marriage contract and various states' divorce laws. Points out the evils of the "adversary system" which demands charge and proof of fault and which often results in making children the innocent victims and prevents justice. Case histories are included.

Carter, Hugh and Paul C. Glick, Marriage and Divorce: A Social and Economic Study, Harvard University Press, 1970, 451 pp., $8.50.

This is a comprehensive and systematic coverage of information on the social, and economic aspects of marriage, divorce, and widowhood. It explores the importance of certain elements in promoting marriage at mature adult ages and explains circumstances under which marriages seem to fail.

Clark, Homer H., Jr., Law of Domestic Relations, West Publishing Company, 1968, 754 pp.

Gives legal dimension of domestic relations. Exactly what the title implies--this book gives laws and statutes. Quite technical.

Mindey, Carol, The Divorced Mother: A Guide to Readjustment, McGraw-Hill, 1970, 268 pp., $6.95.

A practical book written by a mother that married at twenty, had two sons, divorced at thirty, and remarried after having been a single parent for seven years.

E. Family Financial Management

American Home Economics Association, The Family: Focus on Management, 1970, 76 pp., $3.00.

Seven selected papers from a national conference which examined in detail the concept of family as a sociological and economic unit of study, with implications for teaching, research and service.

Bratton, Esther Crew, Home Management Is . . ., Ginn and Company, 1971, 337 pp.

A home management textbook emphasizing keeping house, making decisions, and using resources. Teacher's manual also available.

Hill, Mary Lamb and Helen Karr McFarland, Home Management for Low-Income Families: Ninth and Tenth Grade Level, The Division of Vocational and Technical Education, State of Illinois and Illinois State University, 1971, 64 pp. (paperback).

A home-management curriculum for the ninth and tenth grade girl who will likely marry before finishing high school.

The Time-Life Family Legal Guide, Time-Life Books, 1971, 400 pp., $9.95.

Based on the advice of a board of legal consultants. Covers a wide range of family-related legal matters.

CHILD DEVELOPEMENT AND PARENTHOOD

VI. CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND PARENTHOOD

A. General Information

Ackerman, Nathan W., et al., Summerhill: For and Against, Hart Publishing Company, 1970, 320 pp., $7.50.

Sixteen writers in education, sociology and psychology evaluate the concepts of A.S. Neill's Summerhill, a framework of education.

Arnold, Arnold, Violence and Your Child, Henry Regnery Company, 1969, 224 pp., $4.95.

An indictment of television, movies, comic books, war toys, and magazines as purveyors of violence subtly easing into the makeup of our children.

Arnold, Arnold, Your Child and You, Henry Regnery Company, 1970, $5.95.

This book is based on the author's column "Parents and Children" and has been written to provide parents with a concise and coherent approach to the myriad problems child-rearing involves.

Arnold, Arnold, Your Child's Play, Essandess, 1968, 120 pp.

A discussion of the meaning of play.

Beadle, Muriel, A Child's Mind, Anchor Books, Doubleday and Company, 1971, 294 pp., (paperback $2.95).

An answer to the question "How do children learn during the years from birth to age five?" It is the author's thesis that learning occurs much earlier in life and is less susceptible to later modification than is generally suspected, therefore, a child's experiences during the pre-school years largerly determine all future academic progress, as well as the personality traits upon which his success in life depends.

Bernhardt, Karl S. and David K. Bernhardt (ed.), Being a Parent: Unchanging Values in a Changing World, University of Toronto Press, 1970, 187 pp., (paperback $2.50).

This is a collection of articles written by Karl S. Bernhardt on parent education. He believes that the fundamental values of human relationships have not changed and that children need parents to guide and nurture these close relationships.

Biller, Henry B., Father, Child and Sex Role, Heath Lexington Books, 1971, 208 pp., $12.50.

An examination of the formation of sex identity and sex roles.

Bricklin, Barry and Patricia M. Bricklin, Strong Family, Strong Child, Delacorte Press, 1970, 230 pp., $5.95.

Practical hints for child-rearing, including the function of a family council.

Briggs, Dorothy Corkille, Your Child's Self-Esteem, Doubleday and Company, 1970, $6.95.

A discussion of the importance of high self-esteem for the child and how to help him to develop it.

Button, Alan Dewitt, The Authentic Child, New York: Random House, 1969, 241 pp., $5.95.

A penetrating analysis of the characteristics of the child who becomes authentic from his relationship with authentic parents. Stresses the importance of parents' acceptance, honesty, and willingness to be human. Will help parents see beauty in their children and experience joy in a mutual, nonpower relationship, rejects pat solutions in parent education in favor of developing spontaneously open relationships with children.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND PARENTHOOD

Carr, Jo and Imogene Sorley, The Intentional Family, Abingdon Press, 1971, 144 pp., $3.50.

All families come in a frustrating combination of two life-styles: at times intentional and at other times otherwise. This book is meant to help families to make decisions that will guide their lives into intentional channels.

Crook, Roger H., The Christian Family in Conflict, Broadman Press, 1970, 127 pp., $1.50.

A discussion of the family conference as a way to enable the family to cope with the conflict of the demands of their faith and the pressures of society.

Dobson, James, Dare to Discipline, Tyndale House Publishers, 1970, $3.95.

A psychologist offers advice to parents and teachers about the management of children and young people.

Dodson, Fitzhugh, How to Parent, New American Library, 1970, 444 pp. (paperback $1.25).

Donovan, Frank R., Wild Kids, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania: Stackpole Books, 1967.

An eye-opener for people who are unaccepting of today's children and their behavior. Shows how kids have been rebelling against authority throughout history. Shows how children have been exploited and dominated in all generations by adults.

Dreikurs, Rudolf and Loren Grey, A Parent's Guide to Child Discipline, Hawthorn Books, Inc., 1970, 101 pp., (paperback $3.95).

Specific step-by-step instructions for dealing with children's misbehavior including many examples.

Elkind, David, A Sympathetic Understanding of the Child Six to Sixteen, Allyn and Bacon, Inc., 1971, 154 pp., $7.95.

A discussion of the social and mental development of the child including age profiles of the child at each year from six to sixteen.

Fader, Daniel, The Naked Children, Macmillan Company, 1971, 254 pp., $6.95.

The story of one school year in the life of Cleo, Wentworth, Snapper, Rubbergut, and Uncle Wiggly, thirteen and fourteen year olds in the 1965-66 academic year, in a Washington, D.C. Junior High School. Written by a former teacher, now professor, this book is a call for "good change in bad education."

Fane, Arthur and Xenia Fane, Behind Every Face: A Family, Ginn and Company, 1970, 92 pp. (paperback).

A guide meant for the couple who are about to start a family or who already have one. It covers responsibilities of parenthood, preparing for the arrival of a child, and dealing with problems in child-rearing.

Fremon, Suzanne S., Children and Their Parents, Harper and Row, 1968, 205 pp., $5.95.

A study of relationships between parents and children, with the child's point-of-view kept firmly in mind.

Gardner, G.E., The Emerging Personality: Infancy Through Adolescence, Delacorte Press, 1970, 284 pp. $6.95.

A child psychiatrist discusses the developmental tasks which a child must accomplish as he grows from baby to teenager.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND PARENTHOOD

Gordon, Thomas, Parent Effectiveness Training, Peter H. Wyden, Inc., 1970, 338 pp.

A method of dealing with children based on respect for persons. It teaches how to listen honestly to a child; how to express one's ideas effectively; and how to work out differences. Many examples are given.

Hainstock, Elizabeth G., Teaching Montessori in the Home: The Pre-School Years, Random House, 1968.

Step by step instructions on how to teach Montessori in the home with maximum benefits.

Hainstock, Elizabeth G., Teaching Montessori in the Home: The School Years, Random House, 1971, 176 pp., $6.95.

A practical guide to show parents how they can help their school-age children "learn better and learn more--and actually enjoy the learning process."

Henderson, George (ed.), America's Other Children: Public Schools Outside Suburbia, University of Oklahoma Press, 1971, 430 pp., $8.95.

A collection of fifty articles by persons concerned with education built on the premise that there is no place for substandard education anywhere in our school system. Offers solutions as well as presenting the problems. It is a book for communities, law, agencies shaping the lives of poor people as well as a book about education.

Hesse, Emily, How to Raise a Superkid, Macmillan Company, 1968, 151 pp., $4.95.

This book suggests that raising children is a game where in parents compete for points. It is written in a spirit of fun but the underlying assumption, that children should be accepted for what they are rather than pawns in the game, is clear.

Homan, William E., Child Sense: A Pediatrician's Guide for Today's Families, Basic Books, Inc., 1969, 308 pp., $6.95 (paperback $1.25).

This pediatrician suggests that the development of a child's personality depends on love, discipline and independence. Then he goes on to discuss in a rambling informal way, eating, sleeping, toilet training, sibling relationships, personality traits, sex education, the special child, adopted, handicapped, child of divorce. He concludes that the total health of the child is divisible into the aspects of physical soundness and emotional well-being, and suggests the physical health has had more attention than emotional health.

Jeffries, D.J., Your Child is Crying, The Home and School Press, 1970, 128 pp., $3.95.

This book tries to point out to parents and educators, the needs of today's children in light of present social problems and the crisis in modern education. It concludes that education must become the one thing that truly liberates man from being trapped in society.

Klein, Ted, The Father's Book, William Morrow and Company, $7.95.

A common sense guide for every man who wants to be a better father.

Leeper, Sarah Hammond, Ruth J. Dales, Dora Sikes Skipper, and Ralph L. Witherspoon, Good Schools for Young Children, (2nd edition), Macmillan Company, 1968, 465 pp.

A guide for working with three, four and five year old children. An interdisciplinary approach for teachers and parents to early childhood education. In three sections the authors deal with the needs of small children for school in our society; the planning and teaching of the curriculum; and the administration and supervision of programs for young children.

LeShan, Eda J., Natural Parenthood: Raising Your Child Without a Script, Signet Books, 1970, 160 pp. (paperback $ .75).

The author advocates a return to self-confidence in parenting--growing, thinking, and learning about oneself and applying that knowledge to helping children fulfill themselves.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND PARENTHOOD

McIntire, Roger, For Love of Children: Behavioral Psychology for Parents, CRM Publishing, 1970, $6.95.

Application of operant conditioning to the parent-child relationship. Explains how parents can manipulate, change, even predict the behavior of their children.

Morrison, A. and D. McIntyre, Schools and Socialization, Penguin Books, 1971, 240 pp., (paperback $1.65).

A discussion of the relationship of social factors in the home and the school on the academic success of a student; of influences upon moral development and its effect on education; of the influence of education upon political attitudes of young people and their subsequent choice of and occupation.

Myers, Caroline Clark and Garry Cleveland, Your Child and You, Hewett House, 1969, 222 pp., $4.95.

The authors, authorities on child care, offer many good suggestions for dealing with normal developmental tasks.

Neill, A.S., Freedom--Not License, New York: Hart Publishing Co., 1966.

Neill takes the philosophy underlying his Summerhill School and applies it more specifically to the adult-child relationship, pointing out the difference between freedom and excessive permissiveness. Will provide parents with more understanding of the power of trusting children.

Nelson, Elof, Prime Time: A Guide for Parents in Family Life, Journal-Chronicle Company, 1971, 83 pp (paperback $1.50).

A study prepared for the Minnesota Jaycees, this book covers the subjects of: parents as people; parents as mates and lovers; parents as partners in child-rearing; and parents as enablers in family life.

Reich, Hans, Children and Their Mothers, Hill and Wang, 1964, 64 pp.

Photographs of mothers and children from many parts of the world.

Reich, Hans, Children of Many Lands, Hill and Wang, 1958, 220 pp.

Photographs of children all over the world showing the cultural differences but also their unity as children.

Santamaria, Frances Karlen, Joshua, Firstborn, The Dial Press, 1970, $5.95.

The experiences of an American wife in Greece, in natural childbirth and mothering.

Sharkey, Bernarda, Growing to Wonder, Paramus, N.J., Paulist Press, 1971, 96 pp., $1.95.

A book about fostering wonder in children. Primarily for parents who have children from pre-school through 6th grade levels. Contains common sense guidance on how to bring out the creativity of a child, how to develop a sense of wonder that will stand the child in good stead emotionally later an an adult. Also beneficial to teachers and educators. Filled with photography.

Shedd, Charlie, Promises to Peter: Building a Bridge from Parent to Child, Word Books, 1970, 147pp., $3.95.

A book about increasing communication between parents and children through three premises: growing toward self-government; lessons in how to love; and the dignity of work.

Sheen, Fulton J., Children and Parents, Simon and Schuster, 1970, $4.95.

A series of pastoral essays on items as they relate to children such as freedom, duties, discipline, work and play, adolescence, teenagers, etc.

Silverman, Anna and Arnold Silverman, The Case Against Having Children, David McKay Company, 1971, 212 pp., $5.95.

This couple argues that for many women motherhood is a substitute for the things they wanted to do and were not able to do. They also argue that marriages without children can be very happy, if not happier than with children. Also presented is evidence that children from smaller families are more bright, more creative, and better adjusted than children from large families.

Stevens, Anita and Lucy Freeman, I Hate My Parents, N.Y.: Tower Publications, 1970, 202 pp., (paperback $ .95).

Explores the reasons behind many relationships that produce hatred and offers suggestions as to what parents may do to help. Includes an examination of Charles Manson and his "family."

Taylor, B.J., A Child Goes Forth, Brigham Young University Press, 1970, 133 pp.

Information and teaching techniques that lead to a better understanding of the development and cognitive abilities of the preschool child. Stresses creative experiences.

Todd, Vivian E. and Helen Heffernan, The Years Before School: Guiding Preschool Children, Macmillan Company, 1964, 658 pp.

A book for parents, grandparents, teachers, social workers, nursery school workers and anyone who would like suggestions about preschool children and programs designed for them.

Trese, Leo J., Parent and Child, Sheed, 1962, 186 pp.

Concepts of love, discipline, punishment, virtue, delinquency are considered in a didactic way from a psychoanalytic point of view.

Wees, W.B., Nobody Can Teach Anyone Anything, Doubleday and Company, 1971, 203 pp., $5.95.

An edueator claims that what children learn, they learn on their own, not from the teacher, and calls for change in our educational system that will help teachers and parents do for and not to children.

Weiss, Robert R. and Myron R. Pexton, M.D., The Expectant Father, The Christopher Publishing House, 1970, 208 pp., $5.95.

This book is a dialogue between an expectant father and a doctor which raises many of the questions needing answers as the family grows to three members.

White House Conference on Children, Profiles of Children, 1970, U.S. Government Printing Office, (paperback $3.00).

Proceedings of the conference.

White House Conference on Children, Report to the President: White House Conference on Children, 1970, U.S. Government Printing Office, 450 pp., (paperback $4.75).

Thirty forum reports of the 1970 conference on the condition of children in the United States.

2. Audio-Visual Materials

Films

A Stride Forward, Audio-Visual Activities Commission of the Japan National Christian Council, 1970, 31 min.

A dramatic film showing the disruptive effect of Japan's involvement with the war in Vietnam on an upper middle-class Japanese family.

Up Is Down, Pyramid Films, 1970, 6 min.

An animated fable about a boy who walks on his hands and who not only looks different, but can see things differently. Presents a direct treatment of tolerance, conformity, and conflicts between a man and his society and between one generation and another.

Walk in Their Shoes, Brigham Young University, Department of Motion Picture Production, 1969, 24 min. color, $246.

A film about parent-child communication in which Stan and Sherly come to look through their parents' eyes.

Filmstrips

How an Average Child Behaves Ages 1 Through 5, Parent's Magazine Films, Inc.

Five filmstrips with accompanying record to guide mothers in what to expect as their child grows through the first five years.

B. More Comprehensive Information

Anthony, E.J. and C. Koupernik, The Child in His Family, Wiley-Interscience, 1970, 487 pp., $12.50.

The International Yearbook for Child Psychiatry and Allied Disciplines, Volume I, is a collection of the most recent research in child psychiatry.

Anthony, E. James, M.D. and Therese Benedek, M.D., Parenthood: Its Psychology and Psychopathology, Little, Brown and Company, 1970, 617 pp.

An examination through medical psychology of the subject of parenthood in the context of the biological and environmental evolution of human behavior.

Arieti, Silvano (ed.), World Biennial of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Vol. I, Basic Books, Inc., 1970, $20.00.

This volume begins a major series in the field of psychiatry. The latest developments in the field will appear every two years. This volume covers four main areas; new development is psychiatric theory; clinical studies; childhood and youth; and biological studies in psychiatry.

Brazelton, T.B., Infants and Mothers: Differences in Development, Delacorte Press, 281 pp., $10.00.

A month-by-month developmental outline for both active and quiet babies designed to ease the anxiety of the mothers of first borns and to show how each child's development is unique.

Brisbane, H.E., The Developing Child, (2nd edition), Charles A. Bennett, 1965, 470 pp.

A child development text stressing an analysis of physical, emotional, social, and intellectual functioning.

Bronfenbrenner, Urie, Two Worlds of Childhood: U.S. and U.S.S.R., New York: Russell Sage Foundation, 1970, 190 pp., $7.95.

A scholarly report of a comparative study of child-rearing practices in America and the Soviet Union. Shows how American parents have driven their children to be brought up by their peers and TV. Shows parents how they fail to provide freedom to children and how, in contrast to Soviet parents, we are neglecting training of children to be cooperative, altruistic, and self-disciplined.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND PARENTHOOD

Buxbaum, Edith, Troubled Children in a Troubled World, International Universities Press, Inc., 1970, 315 pp., $10.00.

A neo-Freudian analysis of the psychology of the child as it affects his behavior.

Chandler, C.A., R.S. Lourie, A.D. Peters, and Laura A. Pittman (eds.), Early Child Care, Atherton Press, 1968, 385 pp.

Reports of a two year series of conferences and workshops on early child care in which the participants were experts in the fields of pediatrics, psychology, child psychiatry, anthropology and child development.

Chess, Stella, M.D. and Alexander Thomas, M.D. (eds.), Annual Progress in Child Psychiatry and Child Development, Brunner/Mazel, 1969, 585 pp., $15.00.

A selection of the year's outstanding contributions to the understanding and treatment of the normal and disturbed child.

Chess, Stella, M.S. and Alexander Thomas, M.D. (eds.), Annual Progress in Child Psychiatry and Child Development, Brunner/Mazel, 1970, 585 pp., $15.00.

Thirty-seven selected articles from the past year.

Cohen, Stewart (ed.), Child Development: A Study of Growth Processes, F.E. Peacock Publishers, Inc. 1971, 484 pp., $11.50 (paperback $5.95).

A reader containing many of the classics in the area of emotional, physical, and intellectual development of the child. Focuses on major theories, issues, and research questions.

Davis, Carroll, Room to Grow: A Study of Parent-Child Relationships, University of Toronto Press, 1968, 214 pp., $6.00.

A description of a twenty-four year longitudinal study.

Edge, David (ed.), The Formative Years: How Children Become Members of their Society, Schocken Books, 1970, 72 pp., $4.50 (paperback $1.75).

A series of six articles expanded from talks broadcast on the BBC Third Programme in which specialists examine the forces that mold our development and consider whether our grasp of social relationships and the formation of our personalities occurs in the very early life when a child is building up a working knowledge of his environment.

Evans, E. Belle, Beth Shub, and Marlene Weinstein, Day Care: How to Plan, Develop, and Operate A Center, Beacon Press, 1971, 337 pp., $6.95.

Presents a broad range of information and advice on planning, developing, and operating a high-quality day care center for preschool children. Emphasizes alternative ideas and solutions appropriate to laymen as well as professionals, and to small parent cooperatives as well as large federally funded enterprises.

Goodman, Mary Ellen, The Culture of Childhood, Teacher's College Press, 1970, 167 pp., $6.25 (paperback $3.25).

A cross-cultural study of learning experiences in childhood revealing a wide and diverse range of learning patterns which brings out the need for a universal perspective from which parents and teachers can develop a "child's eye view in their child-rearing." Children from the Philippines, Java, Puerto Rico, New Zealand, Japan, and the Middle East were studied in addition to American children from middle-class and minority backgrounds.

Lemasters, E.E., Parents in Modern America, Dorsey, 1970, 232 pp., $3.75 (paper).

Starting with the assumption that being a parent in modern America is a difficult and important job, Lemasters (a sociologist) offers a realistic, lively, and critical review of the literature on parent-child relations.

Mussen, Paul (ed.), Carmichael's Manual of Child Psychology, two volumes, Wiley, 1970 (3rd ed.), Volume I, 1519 pp., Volume II, 872 pp., $40.00.

Comprehensive and accurate picture of the current state of knowledge in the psychology of human development. A total of 29 chapters in five sections: biological basis of development, infancy and early experience, cognitive development, socialization, psychopathology. Contributions by leading authorities.

Piaget, Jean and Barbel Inhelder, Mental Imagery in the Child, Basic Books, 1971, 416 pp., $12.50.

Piaget's latest study of children's mental development, focusing on the role of imagery in human thought.

Richmond, P. G., An Introduction to Piaget, Basic Books, 1971, 128 pp., $4.95.

An introduction to the work of the eminent child psychologist--suitable for students, teachers, and others interested in understanding Piaget's approach to child psychology.

Winnicott, D.W., Therapeutic Consultations in Child Psychiatry, Basic Books, 1971, 416 pp., $15.00.

Contains a series of 21 therapeutic consultations which demonstrate Winnicott's successful techniques in the treatment of children. Based on the author's well-known theories of child development.

C. Special Kinds of Parent-Child Relationships

1. Books

Ansfield, Joseph G., M.D., The Adopted Child, Charles C. Thomas, 1971, 78 pp., $5.75.

Written in lay terms, this book airs the feelings, fears and resentments that adoptive parents have but are reluctant to express, making them more aware of their true motivations, the knowledge of which enables them to be better parents. Written for parents, prospective parents, adoption agencies, social workers, and other professional family workers.

Boguslawski, D.R., Guide for Establishing and Operating Day Care Centers for Young Children, Child Welfare League of America, 1966, 90 pp. (paperback $2.50).

A "how-to" book for starting a day care program that will serve the social, emotional, and physical needs of the children.

Clinebell, Howard J. and Charlotte Clinebell, Crisis and Growth: Helping Your Troubled Child, Fortress Press, 1971 (paperback $1.50).

Help on knowing when your child needs help, how to help him; how to know when professional service is needed and how to find that service.

Despert, J. Louise, M.D., The Emotionally Disturbed Child, Anchor Books, 1970, 339 pp. (paper $1.95).

Inquiry into the family patterns of families having emotionally disturbed children.

Helfer, Ray E. and C.H. Kemper (eds.), The Battered Child, University of Chicago Press, 1968, $12.50.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND PARENTHOOD

Herzog, Elizabeth and Cecelia Sudia, Boys in Fatherless Homes, U. S. Government Printing Office, 98 pp.

A survey of many studies of the effect of boys growing up in fatherless homes.

Herzog, Elizabeth, Cecelia Sudia, Jane Harwood and Carol Newcomb, Families for Black Children: The Search for Adoptive Parents: An Experience Survey, U. S. Government Printing Office, 70 pp. (paperback $.75).

This "experience survey" is part of the effort of the Office of Child Development to increase the number of adoptive families available for black children in need of placement.

Higgins, Jean C., Lindy, My Retarded Child, Judson Press, 1970 (paperback $1.50).

A mother's poetic tribute to her retarded child from whom she learned so much about living.

Jaffee, Benson and David Fanshell, How They Fared in Adoption: A Follow-Up Study, Columbia University Press, 1970, $13.50.

This is a study of the findings of research into the life adjustment of one hundred adult adoptees done by the Child Welfare League of America. It concludes that while the adoptive family shares many characteristics with the usual family, it also is unique in many respects and is relevant as subject matter for further investigation by the student of the family.

Kadushin, Alfred, Adopting Older Children, Columbia University Press, 1970, $10.00.

This is the report of a group of adoptive parents who accepted a child who was five or more years old. The book presents, primarily in the parent's own words, some of the joys and satisfactions, some of the sorrows and disappointments that resulted from welcoming an older child into the family

Katz, Sanford N., When Parents Fail: The Law's Response to Family Breakdown, Boston: Beacon Press, 1971, 251 pp., $12.50.

A critical look at the process of public intrusion into the parent-child relationship and an analysis of foster care and adoption. The author urges that the laws and agency procedures be clarified and reformed in light of new theories of child development.

Mittler, Peter, The Study of Twins, Penguin Books, 1971, 192 pp. (paperback $2.25).

Covers the study of the twin from mythology and supposition to present scientific studies of the psychology of the twin. It includes findings on the biological factors, cognitive processes, personality and mental disorders in the process of twinning.

Pavenstedt, Eleanor and Viola W. Bernard, Crises of Family Disorganization: Programs to Soften Their Impact on Children, Behavioral Publications, 1971, 103 pp., $5.95.

Presents practical recommendations and describes several preventive and remedial innovations in family crises. The papers are arranged in three categories: parents with mental illness; parents under unmanageable stress; and programs to assist parents.

Rice, Elizabeth P., Miriam C. Ekdahl and Leo Miller, Children of Mentally Ill Parents: Problems in Child Care, Behavioral Publications, 1971, 269 pp.

Presents tested methods for direct service to families in which a parent becomes mentally ill and the child is either left with the parent where there is turmoil, inconsistent care, and possibly abuse or neglect, or is separated from the parent and is often exposed to disruptive experiences which often result in frequent shifts in substitute care. Suggestions for improving methods and organization of services of community agencies are given.

Sauber, Mignon and Eileen M. Corrigan, The Six-Year Experience of Unwed Mothers as Parents, Community Council of Greater New York, 1970, 178 pp. (paperback $5.00).

A continuing study of 200 women who kept and reared their first-born, a child born out-of-wedlock nearly six years ago.

Thomson, Helen, The Successful Step Parent, Harper, 1966, 237 pp.

Emphasizes the feelings of the step child and the step parent with many examples of ways to handle problem situations.

2. Audio-Visual Materials

Everything But Hear, The Clarke School for the Deaf, 1971, 15 min.

This film features Miss Susan Phillips, 20, who was born deaf, and it demonstrates her capability to speak and to read the lips of others despite this handicap. The purpose is to demonstrate that she lives a full and normal life through the acquisition of these communication skills. Susan was chosen for this part because she had been chosen at age 5 for a role in a 1955 film, and flashbacks show her early training in the basics.

MIDDLE AND LATER YEARS

VII. MIDDLE AND LATER YEARS

A. General Information

1. Books and Pamphlets

Arnstein, Helene S., Getting Along With Your Grown-Up Children, Evans, 1970, 207 pp., $5.95.

Covers a wide range of subjects relating to the relationship with grown sons and daughters.

Barfield, R. and J. Morgan, Early Retirement: The Decision and the Experience, University of Texas Press, 1966, 258 pp.

A discussion of the factor of financial stability in deciding whether to retire early. It is the premise that as income from retirement benefits gets closer to $4,000 per year, more people will want to retire early.

Carp, F. M., A Future for the Aged: Victoria Plaza and Its Residents, University of Texas Press, 1966, 258 pp.

A study in planning housing for the aged. An examination of the planning of Victoria Plaza and its effects on the morale and life adjustment of its residents.

Faunce, Frances Avery, The Nursing Home Visitor, Abingdon Press, 1969, $4.00 (paperback $2.45).

Franzblau, Rose N., The Middle Generation, Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1971, $5.95.

For those between ages 25 and 55 who are dealing with their own children as well as their parents while carrying on with their life work. Some of the problems dealt with are: marital incompatibility when the children are grown; wide acceptance of the birth control pill; and sibling rivalries that carry over into middle years.

Fried, Barbara, The Middle-Age Crisis, Harper and Row, 1967, $4.95.

A study of the problems that plague men and women entering the Middle-Years.

Johnson, Paul H., The Middle Years, Fortress Press, 1971, 60 pp. (paperback $1.50).

A discussion of the middle years as a stage in the growth of the individual, with potential creativity and satisfaction.

Kinney, Jean, Living With Zest in an Empty Nest, Hawthorne Books, Inc. 1970.

Self-help idea for couples to look at many aspects of marital relationships after the children have left home. An optimistic approach to many aspects of middle age.

Lee, Robert and Marjorie Casebier, The Spouse Gap, Nashville, Abingdon Press, 1971, 222 pp. $4.95.

Considers the problems of middle-aged married couples. In order to help these couples who may be going through a middlescence crisis period, the authors lead them back to their dating days, then on to the early gaps in marriage when routine replaced honeymoon. They deal with the problems of sex, children leaving home, adultery, communication, and divorce, and propose some exciting possibilities for bridging the "spouse gap" through the couple's rediscovery of one another and through the re-creation of a full life together.

Legler, Henry, How to Make the Rest of Your Life the Best of Your Life, Simon & Schuster, 1967.

Although Florida-oriented (the only place to retire), it is a self-help and somewhat introspective book on planning for retirement.

MIDDLE AND LATER YEARS

Milne, Lorus J. and Margery Milne, The Ages of Life, Harcourt, Brace and World, 1968, $6.95.

Review of recent discoveries on growth and aging, and a look into the future to see how scientific progress can be applied toward usefully extending individual human life.

Peterson, James A., Marriage and Love in the Middle Years, Public Affairs Pamphlet #456, 1970, 28 pp. $.25.

Public Health Service, Working with Older People, Vol. I: The Practitioner and the Elderly, U. S. Government Printing Office, 1969, 54 pp., PHS Publication No. 1459.

The first volume of a guide to practice with the elderly. This volume presents an overview of aging in America and outlines the problems met by aging Americans.

Public Health Service, Working with Older People, Vol. II: Biological, Psychological, and Sociological Aspects of Aging, U. S. Government Printing Office, 1970, 51 pp. PHS Publication No. 1459.

Public Health Service, Working with Older People, Vol. III: The Aging Person: Needs and Services, U. S. Government Printing Office, 1970, 90 pp., PHS Publication No. 1459.

Public Health Service, Working with Older People, Vol. IV: Clinical Aspects of Aging, U. S. Government Printing Office, 1971, 388 pp., PHS Publication No. 1459.

Primarily concerned with physical aspects of aging but some consideration of clinical psychological aspects.

Riley, Matilda White, Ann Forner and Assoc. Aging and the Professions, Russell Sage Foundation, 1969.

Scott-Maxwell, Florida, The Measure of My Days, Alfred A. Knopf, Inc., New York, 1968.

A delightful account of one woman's view of aging--written in her 85th year. Illustrates some internal aspects of aging.

Sheppard, Harold L., New Perspectives on Older Workers, The W. E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research, 1971, 90 pp. (paperback $1.25).

A perspective on the status of older Americans in today's job market.

Steele, Harold and Charles B. Crow, How to Deal with Aging and the Elderly, Huntsville, Alabama: Strode Publishers, 1971, 172 pp. $5.95.

Offers suggestions for identifying and solving the unique problems of older persons. Provides answers to questions about aging and dealing with the elderly. Outlines a simple philosophy of living for the person who faces the inevitable events of time and change.

Whitehead, Anthony, In the Service of Old Age: The Welfare of Psychogeriatric Patients, Pelican Books, 1970, 155 pp. (paperback $1.25)

An examination of the need for changes in facilities, methods and attitudes in caring for the aging mental patient.

White House Conference on Aging, Aging in the United States, U. S. Government Printing Office, 1961.

A report of progress, concerns and goals for the aging in the United States.

2. Audio-Visual Materials

I Think They Call Him John, Mass Media Association, 16 mm, 1970, 26 minutes.

Low-keyed film about a Sunday in the life of an elderly man. Not much happens in this gentle, moving documentary and that is precisely the point of the film. Helps stimulate discussion on what old age means. John is a private citizen, not an actor.

MIDDLE AND LATER YEARS

The Weekend, Franciscan Communication Center, 15½ minutes.

The story of a rained out vacation weekend that becomes a time of discovery for a middle-aged couple whose lack of communication has driven them apart.

Book

Snow, John H., On Pilgrimage: Marriage in the 70's, New York: The Seabury Press, 1971.

The mjaor thesis of the book is that a revitalization of marriage could effect radical change in many other institutions of society which are malfunctioning. The author celebrates marriage as perhaps the one institution of our society capable of preserving truly human values.

FAMILY LIFE EDUCATION

VIII. FAMILY LIFE EDUCATION: PHILOSOPHY AND METHODOLOGY

A. Philosophical Perspectives and Current Status of Family Life Education

Pickarts, Evelyn and Jean Fargo, Parent Education: Toward Parental Competence, Appleton Century Crofts, 1971, 311 pp. $6.95.

Rodman, Hyman, Teaching About Families: Textbook Evaluations and Recommendations for Secondary Schools, Cambridge, Mass.: Howard A. Doyle, 1970, 95 pp. $6.50.

Critical of high school texts and teaching for its biases--in favor of outworn conventions, traditional morality, white American culture, middle class values, over-idealized concepts and pat solutions to complex human problems. Offers seven recommendations for an improved approach.

B. Curriculum Guides

Blanchard, Anne C., Youth Views Sexuality, Graded Press, 1971 (paperback).

A study unit composed of the reading book and the course design book. The purpose of the course is to find answers to such questions as "How can I approach my own sexuality as a responsible Christian?"

Burt, J. J. and L. A. Brower, Education for Sexuality: Concepts and Programs for Teaching, W.B. Saunders Company, 1970, 508 pp.

A resource book giving grade by grade outlines of material in sex education for grades one through high school.

Emerson, Sister R.M., The Wonder of Growing Up, George A. Pflaum Publisher, 1969, 46 pp., $2.50.

A sex education curriculum for the Roman Catholic school. Materials are for grades one through nine. The author includes a bibliography of suggested films and books.

Kilander, H. Frederick, Sex Education in the Schools, Macmillan, 1970, 435 pp.

A study of objectives, content, methods, materials, and evaluation of sex education in the schools. The text for the undergraduate and graduate courses on methods of teaching sex education. May also be useful for parents, community organizations, etc.

Limbacher, W.J., Becoming Myself, Pflaum Publishers, 1970, 204 pp.

A curriculum for the sixth grade to help the youngster better understand his emotional growth. Does not cover sexual development. Teacher's edition also available.

Limbacher, W.J., Here I Am, Pflaum Publishers, 1969, 82 pp.

A curriculum for the fourth grade to help the child understand his emotional growth in relation to his peers. Teacher's edition also available.

Limbacher, W.J., I'm Not Alone, Pflaum Publishers, 1970, 181 pp.

A curriculum for the fifth grader struggling to develop a pleasing personality. Teacher's edition also available.

Minor, Harold W., Joseph B. Muyskens, and Margaret Newell Alexander, Sex Education: The Schools and the Churches, John Knox Press, 1971, 80 pp. (paperback $1.95).

A study-action guide concerned with the issue of sex education and the attacks centered against these programs in the public school.

Willke, J.C. and Barbara Willke, Sex Education: The How-To for Teachers, Hiltz Publishing Company, 1970, 179 pp., $2.45.

A book of curriculum planning, parental involvement, and teaching suggestions for parents, teachers, and school administrators.

C. Bibliographies and Reference Lists

Singer, Laura J. and Judith Buskin, Sex Education on Film: A Guide to Visual Aids and Programs, Teacher's College Press, 1971, 170 pp. (paperback $3.95).

Description and evaluation of films (8 and 16 mm), filmstrips, and transparencies in the following areas: family relationships; physical and emotional development; creation of life; masculinity and femininity; marriage; social problems; and the philosophy and implementation of sex education. All films are annotated, listed with their distributor's address and indexed by age and socio-economic group.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS

IX. SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND THE FAMILY

A. General

Bryant, Clifton D., (Ed.), Social Problems Today: Dilemmas and Dissensus, J.B. Lippincott, 1971, 546 pp. (paperback).

The editor explores a wide range of contemporary social problems through the observations and analyses of sociologists, social critics, historians, lawyers, etc. Each section introduced by the editor. Includes such problems as alienation and disaffection, competition and inequity, institutional ineffectiveness, addictive withdrawal, disenchantment and destructive disorder.

Horton, Paul B. and Gerald Leslie, Studies in the Sociology of Social Problems, Appleton-Century-Crofts, 1971 (paperback).

A reader offering to students in one place both theoretical and popular articles on the many faceted subject of social problems including crime and delinquency, religion, population, family problems, poverty, race, health needs, war, etc.

Palmer, Stuart, Deviance and Conformity, College and University Press, 1970, 201 pp., $8.50.

An analysis of how individuals create, change, and are created by social systems and of the parts played by deviance and conformity in those processes.

Peters, William, A Class Divided, Doubleday and Company, 1971, 120 pp., $4.95.

The story of what happened when a Riceville, Iowa, school teacher decided to dramatize discrimination by declaring her brown-eyed students "superior." A study in prejudice.

B. Drugs and Alchohlism

1. Books and Pamphlets

Barber, Bernard, Drugs and Society, Russell Sage Foundation, 1967, $6.50.

Outlines a comprehensive sociology of drugs and provides broad perspectives against which to view all aspects of concern with and social action regarding drugs.

Blum, Richard and associates, Drugs I: Society and Drugs; Drug II: Students and Drugs, San Francisco: Jossey-Bass Publishers, 1969, 400 pp. each ($20.00 for two volumes).

These two volumes contain the results of eight years' research by Blum and his associates. Include historical, cross-cultural, social, and psychological studies on drug use and abuse. They are based on work covering over 200 cultures and 20,000 individual interviews and questionnaires.

Canadian Government's Commission of Inquiry, The Non-Medical Use of Drugs, Penguin Books, 1970, 448 pp. (paperback $1.65).

This report includes the Commission's interpretation of its task; a discussion of the drugs and their effects; the extent and patterns of non-medical drug use in Canada; some ideas on the causes of non-medical drug use; and some interim recommendations of the Commission.

Cassel, Russel N., Drug Abuse Education, Christopher Publishing House, 1971, 379 pp., $5.95.

This book is designed as a program text to minimize the need for technically prepared instructional staff. Answers many questions on drugs and their effects.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND THE FAMILY

Child Study Association of America, You, Your Child and Drugs, The Child Study Press, 1971, 73 pp. (paperback $1.50).

This book is aimed at allowing people to look at the complex drug problem openly and honestly and without argument. The book clears up some misleading concepts, discusses parent intervention and drug education, describes the misuse of drugs, and talks about parental responsibility.

Coles, Robert, M.D., Joseph Brenner, M.D., and Dermot Meagher, Drugs and Youth: The Medical, Psychiatric and Legal Facts, Liveright, 1970, $5.95.

A presentation of the medical, psychiatric, and legal aspects of drug usage. There is definition of some common terms and a discussion of various drugs. The authors present their own conclusions as well as those of young people. A summary of the laws concerning drugs in the fifty states is also given.

Drugs and the Young, Time-Life Books; 1970, $1.50 (for orders of more than 10 booklets, $1.00 each).

Described as a "clear, comprehensive, and unemotional look at drug abuse." Intended for teachers (primarily) and parents.

Fact Sheets, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, 1968, $.50. Order from U.S. Gov't. Printing Office.

Valuable, factual discussions of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, federal drug law, the drug abuser, drug abuse, narcotics, marijuana, depressants and stimulants, hallucinogens, and rehabilitation. Includes bibliography and film list.

A Federal Sourcebook: Answers to the Most Frequently Asked Questions About Drug Abuse, May, 1970. Available from the National Clearinghouse for Drug Abuse Information, 5454 Wisconsin Avenue, Chevy Chase, Maryland 20015.

This book, which presents the latest factual information about drug abuse, was produced cooperatively by the Departments of Justice; Health, Education and Welfare; Defense; and Labor; and the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Gannon, Frank, Drugs: What They Are/ How They Look/ What They Do, The Viking Press, 1971, $6.95.

This is a book about drugs--what they are, where they come from, what they look like, how they work, and what is not known about many of them. The author gives facts where facts are known and controversy where controversy exists.

Grinspoon, Lester, M.D., Marihuana Reconsidered, Harvard University Press, 1971, $9.95.

A thoroughly researched work on marihuana and its medical, psychological, social, personal, and legal significance in America today.

Group for the Advancement of Psychiatry, Drug Misuse: A Psychiatric View of a Modern Dilemma, Charles Scribner's Sons, 1971, 93 pp., $1.95 (paper).

A group of eminent psychiatrists presents findings on and recommendations for a way out of the dilemma posed by the use and misuse of drugs. They try to answer such questions as "Why do many people suffer chemically ecstatic nightmares?" "Why is our society in turmoil as some of its brightest minds decay and crime rates soar?" "Should the misuser of drugs be treated as a patient or a criminal?" "What is the role of the physician, the legislator, the law enforcement officer, the communications expert, the researcher in coping with these issues?"

Hart, Harold (Ed.), Drugs: For and Against, Hart Publishing Company, 1970, $7.50.

A series of discussions by both drug advocates and opponents, giving the reader a panorama of the vastly different current viewpoints.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND THE FAMILY

How to Plan a Drug Abuse Education Workshop for Teachers, National Institute of Mental Health, 1969, 35 pp., $.25. Order from U. S. Gov't. Printing Office.

An operational manual with guidelines for planning and conducting a drug abuse education workshop for teachers. Well-organized, practical, authoritative.

Maddox, George L. (Ed.), The Domesticated Drug: Drinking among Collegians, College and University Press Services, Inc., 1970, 475 pp., $9.00 (paperback $4.50).

A discussion of drinking among collegians which the author believes poses a greater problem than the use of all other drugs combined.

Marijuana, LSD, Narcotics, Sedatives, Stimulants--Five Leaflets, National Institute of Mental Health, 1968, 1969, 1971, 8 to 10 pages each.

Accurate scientific information in answer to frequently asked questions about these drugs: what they are, physical and psychological effects, dangers, legal situation. Good pieces. Writing is low-key, avoiding "scare" approach; style is fresh and readable. Comprehensive, yet concise.

Specimen copies (and limited quantities) available at no charge from Office of Communications, National Institute of Mental Health, 5454 Wisconsin Avenue, Chevy Chase, Maryland 20015. Purchase from U. S. Gov't. Printing Office.

McHugh, Gelolo, and J. C. Williams, A Drug Knowledge Inventory, Family Life Publications, Inc., 1969, 28 pp.

A short knowledge inventory and discussion guide for the drug educator.

Nowlis, Helen H., Drugs on the College Campus, Doubleday Anchor, 1969, 144 pp., $.95 (paper).

Distills a vast amount of information on drugs and their use, presenting it in the context of the larger problem of alienated youth seeking meaningful experience in a society they find largely irrelevant. Dr. Nowlis defines such terms as drug and narcotic, describes how a drug works in the human body, and discusses the most widely used drugs. She outlines the federal and state laws and discusses the roles of the educational institution.

Resource Book for Drug Abuse Education, National Clearinghouse for Mental Health Information, 1969, 117 pp., $1.25. Order from U. S. Gov't. Printing Office.

This resource book, drawing upon NIMH's experience, contains summaries of factual information on the major drugs and techniques and suggestions that experienced drug educators have found helpful in communicating with young people. An invaluable compendium.

Saltman, Jules, What About Marijuana? Public Affairs Pamphlets, 381 Park Avenue South, New York 10016, 1969, 21 pp., $.25.

Answers such questions as What is drug abuse? What are the narcotics? Who are the drug abusers? What can we do? Good pamphlets, useful for both youth and adults.

Schiller, Rose Leiman, The Underground Bird: A Play, American Social Health Association, 1968, 28 pp.

A lively half-hour play designed to stimulate serious discussion of the drug problem. It is a fantasy about the physical and psychological consequences which follow upon inhaling a new "ultimate drug." Satire is used as the device by which the hidden motivations of addiction are both concealed and revealed by addicts of various sorts. The audience is left to ponder, among other things, the wide range of hang-ups available to all. Single copies for perusal only, $2.00. A production packet of 6 copies, which includes performance rights, costs $12.00.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND THE FAMILY

Solomon, David, The Marihuana Papers, Signet Books, 1966, 470 pp. (paperback $1.50).

A pro-marihuana discussion of the marihuana controversy, tracing the history of marihuana use and contradicting the research that says that marihuana is harmful.

Tart, Charles T, (Ed.), Altered States of Consciousness, $9.95.

Thirty-five articles varying widely in orientation from first-person accounts and speculative articles to reports of rigorous experiments. Deals with dreams, meditation, hypnosis, and minor and major psychedelic drugs.

Thompson, G.N. (Ed.), Alcoholism, Charles C. Thomas, 1956, 535 pp.

A discussion of alcoholism as a medical problem written for the lay reader.

What You and Your Family Should Know about Drugs: The Official U. S. Government Guide Book, The Benjamin Company, 1971 (paperback).

Answers to 109 most frequently asked questions about drugs.

Whipple, Dorothy V., M.D., Q: Is the Grass Greener? Answers to Questions about Drugs, David McKay Company, 1971, 224 pp., $5.95.

The author discusses all drugs in common use today--LSD, barbiturates, mescaline, hashish, heroin, etc.

Whitney, Elizabeth (Ed.), A World Dialogue on Alcohol and Drug Dependence, Beacon Press, 1970, $12.50.

A series of essays reflecting the worldwide study of these two problems.

Wilkinson, Rupert, The Prevention of Drinking Problems: Alcohol Control and Cultural Influences, Oxford University Press, 1970, 301 pp., $10.00.

In this book the author outlines a number of methods in which public and private agencies might influence the whole idea of drinking in America and thereby relieve the extensive problem which is often thought to be only an individual or family problem.

Vogel, Victor and Virginia E., Facts About Narcotics and Other Dangerous Drugs, Science Research Associates, 1967.

This pamphlet attempts to present true facts about narcotics and other dangerous drugs--what these drugs do to people, what kind of people start taking drugs, how addiction is treated, and above all what we can do to help prevent it.

2. Audio-Visual Materials

Alcohol and You, BFA Educational Media, 1969, 28 min.

This documented treatment of drinking explores the social pressures and the drinking habits that can lead an individual into becoming an alcoholic.

Beyond LSD, 16 mm, sound, color, 25 min., 1968.

Intended primarily for adult audiences to stimulate thought and motivate discusson. The purpose of this film is to help parents understand that their teenagers are struggling with problems of aggression, sexuality, and identity. Lacking adult sumpathy, the teenager might turn to drugs as a means of coping with these problems. Communication can help to bridge the generation gap--if parents will stop being hysterical over such nonessentials as long hair, hip speech, rock music, and way-out clothes. Available from Film Associates, 11559 Santa Monica Boulevard, Los Angeles, California 90025. Rental: $15. Sale: $300.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND THE FAMILY

A Day in the Death of Donny B., 16 mm, sound, b/w, 16 min., 1970. Designed especially for use in ghetto schools.

A cinema veritae discussion film that shows a typical day of a heroin addict in the deprived inner-city. Donny B. is black. The setting is his neighborhood--call it Harlem, Hough, or Watts. There is no narration in the film except the outspoken voices of mothers, ex-addicts, policemen, clergy, storekeepers and doctors who themselves live amidst the junkie scene. A haunting ballad sounds out the sound track on this short discussion-provoking film. Distributed on free loan by the National Institute of Mental Health Drug Abuse Film Collection, Distribution Branch, National Audio-Visual Center (GSA), Washington, D.C. 20409.

The Distant Drummer. Three 22 min. color films, (or one 45 min. film) 1968.

Target audience: adults. Documentary narrated by Robert Mitchem and Paul Newman. Well done. Provides a history of drug use. Considers the current drug scene. Deals with LSD, methedrine, marijuana, heroin. Concludes that tight laws while needed are not the answer. There needs to be a two-pronged attack--on user and source.
1. "Flowers of Darkness" general problem of drugs and society.
2. "The Movable Scene" visit hippie communities and suburban communities.
3. "Bridge from No place" rehabilitation and community action.

Available: National Institute of Mental Health Drug Abuse Film Collection, National Audio-Visual Center, Washington, D.C. 20409. Free loan.

Drug Abuse: The Chemical Bomb. 16 mm, color, 19 min., 1969.

Target audience: Jr. and Sr. High School, especially suburban. Covers barbituate pills, methedrine, glue and deliriants, marijuana. Available: Film Distributors International, 2223 S. Olive Street, Los Angeles, California 90027. Purchase: $225. Rental Information on request.

Drug Abuse: Everybody's Hang-Up. Smith, Kline and French, 1969, color, 15 min., adults.

Deals with the overall drug scene -- common drugs such as alcohol, barbituates, amphetamines as well as the "exotic" drugs. Good for adults.

Drug Abuse -- One Town's Answer. 16 mm, 23 min., 1970. Recommended for high school and adults.

Describes the Awareness House Program, as told by the teenage participants. Ft. Bragg rehabilitation program. Available: AIMS Instructional Media Services, Inc., Box 1010, Hollywood, CA 90028. Purchase price: $275.

Drugs and the Nervous System. Churchill Films, 16 mm, sound, color, 18 min., 1967. Suitable for junior high, senior high, college, adults.

Explains how drugs affect many different parts of the body by working on the central nervous system. Aspirin is used to illustrate how a common drug acts to reduce pain and fever in this complicated way. Also issues a warning that drugs used without a doctor's instructions may be dangerous. Major portion of film explains the serious disruption of the nervous system caused by drugs, narcotics, and other substances taken for "kicks." Substances covered are airplane glue, stimulants (amphetamines), depressants (Barbituates and opiates), marihuana and LSD. Produced largely in animation.

Drugs and You. QED Productions (Cathedral Films), color sound filmstrip series.

Preconditions children at primary levels to say no to drugs. Dramatizes the after fatal dangers of misusing medicine and drugs, as well as their beneficial uses. Acts as an "antidote" to the thousands of "magic potion" commercials to which children are exposed.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND THE FAMILY

Escape to Nowhere. 16 mm, color, 25 min., 1968.

Target audience: Senior High, adults, especially suburban. The camera follows a 16-year old girl, living and wandering in the drug culture of today, as she answers the questions of an invisible narrator, as she thinks out loud about her unsettled, solitary life. She first smoked marijuana at 14; has tried hashish, pills, LSD, speed, heroin. The audience feels the futility of Debbie's method of escape. The film is open-ended, allowing for discussion in several areas. Available: Professional Arts, Inc., P. O. Box 8484, Universal City, CA 91608.

First Vibration. Record Album, Do It Now Foundation, P. O. Box 3573, Hollywood, CA 90028 ($3.00 + $.40 for first class postage).

An album of songs by some of the biggest names in pop music--The Beatles, Donovan, Jefferson Airplane, Jimi Hendrix, Ravi Shankar, The Byrds, Buffalo Springfield, and others. Its purpose: To spread the word that SPEED KILLS.

Gale is Dead, Time-Life Films, 1970, 58 min.

Gale, a good-looking, intelligent girl was born in 1950 and died in January 1970 at age 19 and a drug addict. This film does not try to apportion blame, but asks if Gale need have died.

Grooving. 16 mm, color, 31 min., 1970. Recommended for Junior High School; also useful with parents and less knowledgeable senior high students.

Centers on marijuana use. Format is a group of 14-18 year olds--drug users, non-users, and ex-users--in a series of "confrontations." Experiences and feelings are challenged and threaded out; motivations and rationalizations are searchingly questioned. Geared toward raising questions and stimulating thinking on this touchy subject--does not "preach", but rather gives material to allow the young viewer to think for himself.

Here's Help. 16 mm, color, sound, 28 min., 1970, Appropriate for general audience.

Shot on location at eleven different sites to show the broad range of treatment programs that are currently available. The central message of this film is that no single method of treatment works for all drug abusers, but various approaches work for different people. Available for free from: National Institute of Mental Health Drug Abuse Film Collection, Distribution Branch, National Audiovisual Center (GSA), Washington, D.C. 20409.

I'll Be Seeing You. 16 mm, sound, color, 11 min., 1970. For upper elementary grade level.

Purpose: To acquaint Upper Elementary age youngsters with the facts about drugs and narcotics, and their dangers. Deals with stimulants, depressants, and hallucinogens. Available: AIMS Instructional Media Services, Inc., Box 1010, Hollywood, CA 90028. Purchase price: $130.

LSD: The Acid World. Sound film strip (45 fr), color, 1969. Recommended for Jr. High and Senior High, parents, leaders.

Users, dealers, and doctors debate the use of LSD. When a boy takes a "bad trip," students are confronted with the dangers associated with hallucinogenic drugs.

LSD: Insight or Insanity? 16 mm, sound, color, 28 min., 1968. Target audience: Jr. High, High School, and college youth, adults.

Documents the dangers of unsupervised use of LSD, and explains what is known about its physiological and psychological effects. It counteracts some of the erroneous claims made in promoting the use of LSD. Explains the possible chromosome damage which may result in the use of LSD.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND THE FAMILY

Marihuana, 16 mm, sound, color, 34 min., 1968. Suggested for Jr. and Sr. high, college, adults.

Sonny Bono (of Sonny & Cher) narrates this film. He relates to the teenagers and provokes them to think for themselves. The film simply examines the facts about physical dangers, emotional dependency, and the legalities of marihuana.

The Mind Benders. 16 mm, sound, color or b/w, 25 min., 1968. Recommended for senior high and college age, also youth workers.

Through contemporary cinematography, sound, and color, this film objectively explores the potential therapeutic uses and the known hazards of LSD and other hallucinogens, as well as some of the motivations of abusers. Medical authorities and users of the drugs appear in this documentary. Purchase from: Precision Film Laboratories, 21 West 46th Street, New York, NY. Write for price. Available on free short-term loan from the National Medical Audio-Visual Center Annex, Station K, Atlanta, GA 30334. Free loan from Public Health Service Audio-Visual Facility, Chamblee, GA 30005.

The People Next Door, Bailey-Film Associates, 1969, 81 min., black and white.

This CBS Playhouse tells the story of two middle-class couples who discover that drugs have entered the lives of their children.

Speed Scene. Film Associates, 16 mm, color, 20 min., 1969.

Deals with methamphetamine (speed) particularly as "mainlined" by young people. Some discussion of amphetamines in weight control or as "pep pills" or "keep alert" drugs.

Students Look at Drugs. 16 mm, color, 20 min., 1969.

Suitable for Jr. and Sr. High, adults. Produced by Eli Lilly Company. A panel of five former and present teenage drug users interviewed by a psychiatrist. A most interesting and informative look into teenager's motivations for drug use. Should be especially useful for adult audiences. Would suggest cutting the film off before the psychiatrist's final "wrap-up" statement.

Up Pill, Down Pill, BFA Educational Media, 1970, 23½ min.

This dramatization explores different life styles--life styles through which the central figures try to adjust to disappointments and frustrations. For two young men, pills offer an escape from life. The open-endedness of the film may stimulate youth to discuss the type of decision they all have to make for themselves.

Youth Turns On, tapes, Center for Mass Communication of Columbia University Press, 1970, $100.

Personal accounts of young drug users presented on tape for groups who wish to promote discussion of the current drug phenomenon. Topics include: the varieties of drugs and their effects, the onset of drug use, the progression of drug usage, drug use as a way of life, family aspects of drug abuse, prevention and rehabilitation.

C. Poverty

Coles, Robert and Maria Piers, Wages of Neglect: New Solutions for the Children of the Poor, Quadrangle Books, 1969, $5.95.

An examination of the condition of poor children with an emphasis on what would help them grow through the stages of development.

Ferman, L.A., J.L. Kornbluh, and Alan Haber, Poverty in America, University of Michigan Press, 1969, 650 pp., $5.75.

An examination of the multiple phenomena of poverty and possible solutions to poverty in the United States.

Pinkney, Alphonso, and Roger R. Woock, Poverty and Politics in Harlem, College and University Press, 1970, 191 pp., $6.00.

The authors of this study examine one major short-term poverty program (Project Uplift), showing how the War on Poverty fails to effect significant social change in urban ghetto communities.

D. Mental Illness, Mental Health, Identity Problems, Self-Awareness

Bahr, Howard M., Disaffiliated Man, Essays and Bibliography on Skid Row, Vagrancy, and Outsiders, University of Toronto Press, 1970, $9.50.

An annotated bibliography on homelessness, chronic inebriety and related forms of disaffiliation and essays dealing with skid row and its men.

Lawrence, Margaret Morgan, The Mental Health Team in the School, Behavioral Publications, 1971, 169pp. $6.95.

This is an analysis of the school mental health unit which served as a community mental health, consultative service to schools in Rockland County, New York. This pilot project was primarily concerned with the opportunities for raising the level of emotional health of all children in those districts.

National Institute of Mental Health, Behavioral Sciences and Mental Health: An Anthology of Program Reports, U. S. Gov't. Printing Office, 1970, 419 pp. (paperback $2.00).

A series of reports designed to reflect the scope of the research of the National Institute of Mental Health. Included are articles on the development of behavior, brain physiology, and social and cultural influences on behavior.

Segal, Julius (ed.), The Mental Health of the Child: Program Reports of the National Institute of Mental Health, U.S. Gov't.Printing Office, 1971, 588 pp., (paperback $5.00), PHS Pub. 2168.

A collection of reports in the work of the National Institute of Mental Health including studies and demonstrations in prevention of deprivation of children, factors that influence the child's mental health, advances in diagnosis and treatment and basic studies in child development.

E. Death, Bereavement, Suicide

1. Books

Bowers, M.K., Edgar N. Jackson, J.A. Knight, and Lawrence Le Shan, Counseling the Dying. New York: Nelson, 1964, 183 pp.

Bowman, Leroy, The American Funeral: A Way of Death, New York: Paperback Library, 1964, 181 pp.

Brim, Orville G., Howard E. Freeman, Sol Levine, Norman A. Scotch (eds.), The Dying Patient, New York: Russell Sage Foundation, 1970, 390 pp.

Easson, William M., The Dying Child: the Management of the Child or Adolescent Who is Dying, Springfield, Illinois: Charles C. Thomas, 1970, 103 pp.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND THE FAMILY

Fargues, Marie, The Child and the Mystery of Death, Paulist Press, 1966.

Feifel, Herman (ed.), The Meaning of Death, New York: McGraw-Hill, 1965, 351 pp.

Glaser, Barney G. and Anselm L. Strauss, Awareness of Dying: A Study of Social Interaction, Chicago: Aldine Publishing Company, 1965, 305 pp.

Glaser, Barney G. and Anselm L. Strauss, Time for Dying, Chicago: Aldine Publishing Company, 1968, 270 pp.

Green, Betty R. and Donald P. Irish (eds.), Death Education: Preparation for Living, Cambridge: Schenkman Publishing Company, 1971, 143 pp., paper $1.95.

Grollman, E.A. (ed.), Explaining Death to Children, Beacon Press, 1967, 269 pp., $4.95.

The author believes that children should be taught that death is a part of the total experience of life and that they should share completely in our cultural practices surrounding death including mourning, grief, and funerals.

Grollman, E.A., Suicide, Beacon Press, 1971, 145 pp., $6.95, paper $1.95.

Religious, philosophical and psychological views of suicide. Guidelines for those wishing to work in suicide prevention efforts.

Grollman, E.A., Talking About Death, Beacon Press, 1970, $6.00.

A book for parents to help them explain death to children.

Hamovitch, Maurice B., The Parent and the Fatally Ill Child, Duarte, California, City of Hope Medical Center, 1964.

A demonstration of parent participation in a hospital pediatrics department.

Harmer, Ruth Mulvey, The High Cost of Dying, New York: Collier-Macmillian, 1963, Collier Books, 256 pp.

Jackson, Edgar N., Telling a Child About Death, New York: Channel Press, 1965, 91 pp.

Jackson, Edgar N., When Someone Dies, Fortress Press, 1971, 58 pp. (paper $1.50).

Emphasizes the skills and insights that help one to work through the process of grief.

Kastenbaum, Robert, Psychology of Death, Springfield: C.C. Thomas, in press.

Kubler-Ross, Elizabeth, On Death and Dying, Macmillan, 1969, 260 pp.

The psychology of death.

Kutscher, Austin H., (Ed.), Death and Bereavement, Springfield, Illinois: C.C. Thomas, 1969.

Mills, Liston O. (Ed.), Perspectives on Death, Nashville: Abingdon Press, 1969, 288 pp.

Mitchell, Marjorie E., The Child's Attitude to Death, New York: Schocken Books, 1966, 162 pp.

Mitford, Jessica, The American Way of Death, New York: Simon and Schuster, 1963, 333 pp.

Morgan, Ernest, A Manual of Simple Burial, Burnsville, North Carolina: Celo Press, 1971, 64 pp.

Pearson, Leonard, Death and Dying: Current Issues in the Treatment of the Dying Person, Case Western Reserve University Press, 1969, 237 pp.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND THE FAMILY

Quint, Jeanne C., The Nurse and the Dying Patient, New York: Macmillian Company, 1967, 306 pp.

Reed, Elizabeth L., Helping Children with the Mystery of Death, Abingdon Press, 1970, 143 pp., $3.50.

A religious book providing information and guidance for parents, teachers, ministers, and others who must help children face the reality of death.

Ruitenbeck, Hendrik M. (Ed.), Death Interpretations, New York: Dell Publishing Co., Inc., 1969, 286 pp. Delta paperback.

Schoenberg, Bernard, et al., Loss and Grief, Columbia University Press, 1970, 398 pp., $12.50.

A number of articles designed to define concepts and practices for professionals of all kinds who are called upon to handle matters relating to loss and grief.

Sudnow, David, Passing On: The Social Organization of Dying, Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey: Prentice-Hall, Inc., 1967, 176 pp.

Toynbee, Arnold, et al., Man's Concern with Death, St. Louis: McGraw-Hill Book Co., 1968, 280 pp.

Wolf, Anna W.M., Helping Your Child Understand Death, New York: The Child Study Association, 1961.

2. Pamphlets and Periodicals

Anonymous, "Death in America," Scientific American, 216 (February, 1967), 56.

Blauner, Robert, "Death and Social Structure," Psychiatry, 29: 378-394, November, 1966.

Chasin, Barbara, "Neglected Variables in the Study of Death Attitudes," The Sociological Quarterly, 12: 107-113, Winter, 1971.

Feifel, Herman, "Attitudes Toward Death: A Psychological Perspective," Journal of Consulting and Clinical Psychology, 33: 292-295, 1969.

Green, Betty R., "Death Education: A Dimension of Life," Minnesota Journal of Education, December, 1970, pp. 34-37.

Journal of Thanatology, Foundation of Thanatology: 630 West 168th Street, New York, New York 10032.

Leviton, Daniel, "Death, Bereavement and Suicide Education," in Donald A. Read (Ed.), New Directions in Health Education, New York: Macmillan Company, 1970.

Omega, Richard A. Kalish, (Ed.), Robert Fulton, Associate Editor, Greenwood Periodicals, Inc., 51 Riverside Avenue, Westport, Connecticut, 06880. An International Journal for the Study of Dying, Death, Bereavement, Suicide, and other Lethal Behaviors. First issue, February, 1970.

Somerville, Rose, "Death Education as a Part of Family Life Education: Using Imaginative Literature for Insight into Family Crises," The Family Coordinator, 20: 209-224, July, 1971.

3. Bibliographies

Berardo, Felix M., Death, Bereavement, and Widowhood: a selected bibliography, Department of Sociology, University of Florida, June-July, 1970, 70 pp. Mimeographed.

Fulton, Robert, Death, Grief, and Bereavement: a chronological bibliography, 1843-1970, Minneapolis; Center for Thanatological Studies, The University of Minnesota, 1970, 82 pp. Mimeographed.

Kalish, Richard A., Death and Bereavement: an annotated Social Science bibliography through 1964. From the author: UCLA School of Public Health, 38 pp.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND THE FAMILY

Marks, Renee U., The Sociology of Death: A selected bibliography, Department of Epidemiology, School of Public Health, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, 1965.

Portz, Alexius T., The Psychological Meaning of Death: a review of the literature, 1963. Mimeographed.

Venick, Joel J., Selected Bibliography on Death and Dying. Washington: National Institute of Child Health and Human Development. National Institutes of Health, Public Health Service, U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, 1970. 61 pp., 1494 citations. Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Printing Office. $.65.

F. Crime and Delinquency

Ambrosino, Lillian, Runaways, Beacon Press, 1971, 150 pp., $6.95.

Written for runaways themselves, their parents, and their counselors, this book gives an overview of the reasons for escape and the problems that runaways face. It discusses methods of survival, medical and legal consideration, and where to find help. Listings of all Traveler's Aid locations, hot lines, and halfway houses by state and city are included in a long appendix.

Flammang, C.J., The Police and the Unprotected Child, Charles C. Thomas Co., 1970, 310 pp., $11.75.

This defines and interprets the manifestations of child neglect and abuse, describing practical police methods in such areas as investigation, collection of evidence, interviewing and interrogating. It is also an analysis of interagency relationships with suggestions for improving need relationships with other child protection groups.

Forer, Lois G., No One Will Lissen, Grosset's Universal Library, 1971, 352 pp., $2.95 (paper).

Discusses the inadequacies of the juvenile court system from a perspective unique in the literature on juvenile courts.

Gil, David G., Violence Against Children: Physical Child Abuse in the U. S., Harvard University Press, 1970, $6.50.

A survey of 13,000 cases of child abuse and conclusions about its prevalence, causes, etc., also consideration of child abuse by the society through infant mortality, hunger and malnutrition, inadequate medical care, poor education, and officially sanctioned abuse in schools, institutions, child facilities and juvenile courts.

Gold, Martin, Status Forces in Delinquent Boys, Institute for Social Research, University of Michigan, 1963, 217 pp.

This is the report of the project undertaken by the Flint (Michigan) Youth Study Staff to isolate factors that would suggest social explanations for the fact that lower class boys are more likely to become delinquents than boys of the other social classes.

Herbert, W.L. and F.V. Jarvis, Dealing with Delinquents, Emerson Books, 1962, 203 pp.

A British study of the role of the social worker with the delinquent in counseling, home visits, etc. The method of working is based on the development of a relationship between the youth and the worker.

Hirschi, Travis, Causes of Delinquency, University of California Press, 1971, 315 pp. (paperback $3.25.).

An attempt to state and test a theory of delinquency, viewing the delinquent as a person relatively free of the intimate attachments, the aspirations, and the moral beliefs that bind most people to a life within the law.

James, Howard, Children in Trouble: A National Scandal, David McKay Co., 1970, 340 pp., $6.95.

The appalling story of the confined delinquent young people in the United States with suggestions for change and appeal for public sentiment.

Jenkins, Herbert, Keeping the Peace: A Police Chief Looks at His Job, Harper and Row, 1970, 203 pp. (paperback).

A policeman's-eye-view of crime in America.

Parker, Tony, The Frying-Pan: A Prison and Its Prisoners, Basic Books, Inc., 1970, 222 pp., $6.95.

Consideration of a new type of prison, Grendon Underwood, England's first and only psychiatric prison. The author reveals a prison community only six years old, which provides professional psychiatric treatment for offenders with whom the traditional form of incarceration has manifestly failed.

G. Work and Leisure

1. Books

Brightbill, Charles K., The Challenge of Leisure, Englewood Cliffs: Prentice-Hall Inc., 1960. Spectrum Paperback, 118 pp.

This book is a revised and condensed version of Man and Leisure: A Philosophy of Recreation by the author. The book explores the challenge of leisure, its costs, and its relation to recreation, religion, science, art, health, education, etc. He advocates leisure as an opportunity to enrich our lives, develop our personalities and to live meaningfully in the "push button" era.

De Grazia, Sebastian, Of Time, Work and Leisure, Garden City: Doubleday, 1964. Anchor Paperback, 548 pp., $1.95.

This monumental study explores the history of leisure and work both as ideal and as practical. The author contrasts his Greek classical viewpoint with the modern industrial American viewpoint. "Leisure refers to a state of being, a condition of man, which few desire and fewer achieve."

Larrabee, Eric and Meyersohn, Rolf, editors, Mass Leisure, Glencoe, Illinois: Free Press, 1958, 429 pp., $6.00.

This book contains contributions of scientists and literary men to the problems and social phenomenon of mass leisure in America. It is about time-off, weekend and vacation in America. The volume is an attempt to reveal the serious considerations of leisure which point the way for the individual confronted with agonizing questions of the use of his leisure time.

Lee, Robert, Religion and Leisure in America, Nashville: Abingdon Press, 1964, paperback, 271 pp.

This study of the history, meaning and significance of our leisure time was commissioned by the National Council of Churches. In four parts the study covers the contemporary, social-psychological, historical and theological dimensions of the leisure-time question; its conclusions point to the need for a leisure ethic today.

Packard, Vance, The Wastemakers, New York: Pocket Books, Inc., 1963, 305 pp., $.60.

The Wastemakers is an analysis of the nine strategies of consumerism and reveals how consumption for the sake of consumption affects our culture--and our pocketbooks. The study concludes with a statement toward a life style which provides a meaningful alternative.

Pieper, Josef, Leisure, the Basis of Culture, Translated by Alexander Dru, New York: New American Library, 1963, Mentor-Omega Book, 127 pp., $.60.

Pieper writes that Leisure has always been the foundation of culture. He demonstrates that the Greeks understood and valued leisure, as did the medieval Eurpoeans. "Leisure is an attitude of mind and a condition of the soul that fosters a capacity to perceive the reality of the world." He concludes with a warning that unless the western world substitutes true leisure for its hectic amusements, its very culture will be destroyed.

Linder, Staffan, The Harried Leisure Class.

A Swedish economist shows how the limitations of time are increasing its value, not only in the productive areas of life but also in areas of consumptior. A good analysis of why Western nations are developing a "throw away" culture.

Roberts, Kenneth, Leisure, Humanities Press, Inc., 1971 (paper $2.25).

A study of the new leisure of life in modern Britain.

Winnicott, D.W., Playing and Reality, Basic Books, 1971, 192 pp., $6.95.

In the author's view, play needs to be studied in its own right, as a natural and healthy activity. He directs his clinical experience to an analysis of "play" in the development of the individual.

2. Films

Day After Day, Contemporary Films, Inc., 267 West 25th Street, New York, New York 10010, 1962, 27 min., black and white. $10.00.

A powerful film about the tedium and dehumanizing experience of a factory upon men, raising the question of whether men are the masters or the slaves of their machines.

Eden, U.S.A., Office for Audio Visuals - United Church of Christ, 1720 Chouteau Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri 63103, 1965, 25 min., color, $12.00.

An excellent portrayal of the moral and religious question raised by American affluence. A study guide is available for use with this film.

Help! My Snowman's Burning Down, Contemporary Films, Inc., 1964, 10 min., color, $15.00.

A series of ridiculous episodes, each of which communicates a caustic comment about modern society, especially the superficial and exploitative character of human relationships.

Time Piece, Contemporary Films, Inc. 1965, 10 min., color, $15.00.

A funny, yet disturbing, film about the tempo and values of modern life, using the clock as its central image.

3. Other Materials

Leisure Education Kit for Congregations (Prepared by Leisure Studies, Inc., 1813 University Ave. S.E., Minneapolis, Minnesota 55414.

Contains: "It's Time You Heard About The Leisure Revolution in Christian Perspective," "Leisure and the Old Testament." "Leisure and the Life-Style of Jesus," "My Son, The Hippie," "The Greatest of These. . .Is Leisure," Annotated Bibliography: "Forty Basic Books on the Leisure Revolution." Cost $2.00.

APPENDIX

AUTHOR INDEX

Ackerman, Nathan W. - 35, 39
Adams, Bert N. - 1, 30
Adams, Wesley J. - 31
Aldous, Joan - 2
Alexander, Margaret Newell - 52
Ambrosino, Lillian 64
Amstutz, H. Clair - 29
Anderson, Michael - 2
Anderson, Wayne J. - 20
Ansfield, Joseph G. - 46
Anthony, E. James - 8, 44
Arieti, Silvano - 44
Arnold, Arnold - 39
Arnold, David - 4
Arnstein, Helene S. - 49
Athanssion, Robert - 9
Augsburger, David W. - 33
Avery, Curtis E. - 27

Bach, George R. - 33
Bachman, J. G. - 25
Bahr, Howard M. - 61
Baker, Katherine Read - 27
Barber, Bernard - 54
Barclay - 27
Barfield, R. - 49
Barnes, Kenneth C. - 28
Bartell, Gilbert D. - 9
Bass, Medora S. - 17
Beadle, Muriel - 39
Becker, Russell J. - 37
Beer, Ethel S. - 35
Belliveau, Fred - 9
Benson, Leonard - 30
Benedek, Therese - 8, 44
Berardo, Felix M. - 63
Berger, Milton M. - 35
Berger, Stephen D. - 6
Berger, Terry - 28
Bernard, Jessie - 37
Bernard, Viola W. - 47
Bernhardt, David K. - 39
Bernhardt, Karl S. - 39
Bernstein, Rose - 9
Berrill, N. J. - 15
Besancency, Paul H. - 32
Biller, Henry B. - 39
Bird, Caroline - 12
Bird, Joseph - 33
Bird, Lois - 33
Blake, Robert - 35
Blanchard, Anne C. - 52
Blauner, Robert - 63
Blum, Richard - 54
Boguslawski, D. R. - 46
Bohannan, Paul - 22
Boll, E. D. - 29
Bossard, J. H. S. - 29
Boszormenzi-Nagy, Ivan - 35, 37
Bowers, M. K. - 61
Bowman, Henry A. - 30
Bowman, Leroy - 61
Brayboy, Thomas L. - 7
Brazelton, T. B. - 44
Breasted, Mary - 20
Bremner, Robert H. - 3
Brenner, Joseph 55
Bricklin, Barry - 39
Bricklin, Patricia - 39
Briggs, Dorothy Corkille - 39
Brightbill, Charles K. - 65
Brill, Mordecai 32
Brim, Orville G. - 61
Brisbane, Holly E. - 30, 44
Brister, C. W. - 28
Broderick, Carlfred B. 1
Brodey, Warren M. - 35
Bronfenbrenner, Urie - 4, 44
Brower, L. A. - 9, 52
Brown, Fred - 22
Bryant, Clifton D. - 54
Buder, Leonard - 1
Bulmer, M. G. - 15
Bunch-Weeks, Charlotte - 13
Burke, Susan - 20
Burt, J. J. - 9, 52
Buskin, Judith - 53
Button, Alan Dewitt - 39
Buxbaum, Edith - 45

Calderone, Mary S. - 15
Callahan, Daniel - 15
Callahan, Sidney Cornelia - 35
Cantor, Donald J. - 37
Carlson, Robert - 2
Carp, F. M. - 49
Carr, Jo - 33, 40
Carter, Hugh - 37
Cartwright, Ann - 15
Casebier, Marjorie - 49
Cassel, Russell N. - 54
Chandler, C. A. - 45
Chassin, Barbara - 63
Chess, Stella - 45
Christie, Lee S. 30
Clark, Homer H., Jr. - 37
Clark, LeMon - 20
Clark, Margaret - 6
Clatworthy, Nancy M. - 31
Claven, Sylvia - 12
Clemens, Lois Gunden - 12
Cleveland, Garry - 42
Clignet, Remi - 4
Clinebell, Charlotte H. - 33, 46
Clinebell, Howard J. - 33, 46
Cohen, Stewart - 45
Coleman, Richard P. - 5
Coles, Robert - 55, 60
Colton, Helen - 12, 20
Conant, Roger - 22
Condon, Thomas - 2
Cooke, Joanne - 13
Corrigan, Eileen M. - 47

AUTHOR INDEX

Cox, Rachel Dunaway - 32
Craft, Maurice - 5
Crawford, Charles O. - 1
Cronin, Constance - 4
Crook, Roger H. - 40
Crow, Charles B. - 50
Curtis, L. R. - 21, 33

Dahlstrom, Edmund - 13
Dales, Ruth J. - 41
David, Henry P. - 16
Davison, T. N. - 25
Davis, Carroll - 45
De Bie, Pierre - 5
DeGrazia, Sebastian - 65
Del Solar, Charlotte - 21
DeMartino, M. F. - 9
Demos, John - 3
Denzin, Norman K. - 34
Despert, J. Louise - 46
Diamond, Milton - 15
Dizenzo, Patricia - 9
Dobson, James - 40
Dodson, Fitzhugh - 40
Donovan, F. R. - 25, 40
Douglas, Emily Taft - 16
Drakeford, John W. - 29, 33
Dreikurs, Rudolf - 40
Du Bois, W. E. B. - 6
Duffy, Joseph - 25
Duvall, Evelyn Millis - 1, 2

Easson, W. M. - 25, 61
Edens, David - 28
Edge, David - 45
Ehrlich, Anne H. - 16
Ehrlich, Paul R. - 16
Eichenlaub, J. E. - 29
Eisner, Betty Grover - 33
Ekdahl, Miriam C. - 47
Elkind, David - 40
Emerson, R. M. - 52
Epstein, Cynthia Fuchs - 13
Epstein, Nathan B. - 27
Evans, Byron - 11
Evans, E. Belle - 45
Fader, Daniel -

Fader, Daniel - 40
Fane, Arthur - 25, 33, 40
Fane, Xenia - 25, 27, 33, 40
Fanshell, David 47
Farber, Bernard - 8
Fargo, Jean - 52
Fargues, Marie - 62
Farmer, Mary - 2
Faunce, Frances Avery - 49
Fawcett, James T. - 16
Feifel, Herman - 62, 63
Feinstein, Sherman C. - 25

Ferm, Deane William - 9
Ferman, L. A. - 61
Feucht, Oscar E. - 2
Figes, Eva - 13
Firth, Raymond - 8
Flammang, C. J. - 64
Fletcher, Joseph - 16
Folkmau, Jerome D. - 31
Foote, Nelson - 2
Forer, Lois G. 64
Forge, Anthony - 8
Forner, Ann - 50
Fox, Lorene K. - 4
Frankel, Lillian B. - 16
Franzblau, Rose N. - 49
Freeman, Lucy - 43
Freeman, Howard E. - 61
Fremon, Suzanne S. - 40
Frey, Sherman - 25
Fried, Barbara - 49
Friedman, Alfred S. - 35, 36
Friedman, Leonard J. - 9
Frerichs, Allen H. - 26
Fryer - Peter - 16
Fulton, Robert - 63

Gagnon, John H. - 9
Galarze, Ernest - 6
Gallegos, Herman - 6
Gangsei, Lyle B. - 36
Gannon, Frank - 55
Gardner, G. E. - 40
Genne, William H. - 32, 34
Gersh, Marvin J. - 25
Gifford-Jones, W. - 15
Gil, David D. - 64
Giovacchini, Peter - 25
Giuliani, George A. - 25
Glaser, Barney G. - 62
Glassberg, Bert Y. - 28
Glazer, Nathan - 5
Glick, Paul C. - 37
Glidewell, John C. 34
Gold, Martin - 64
Goldstein, Martin - 10, 21
Goode, William J. - 1, 2
Goodman, Mary Ellen - 45
Gordon, Sol - 22, 17
Gordon, Thomas - 41
Gornick, Vivian - 13
Grams, Armin - 21
Green, Betty R. - 62, 63
Greene, Bernard L. - 36
Greer, Germaine - 13
Grey, Alan L. - 34
Grey, Loren - 40
Grinspoon, Lester - 55
Grollman, Earl A. - 62
Grossman, B. - 6
Guttmacher, Alan F. - 16

AUTHOR INDEX

Haber, Alan - 61
Haeberle, Erwin J. - 10, 21
Hainstock, Elizabeth G. - 41
Hall, Robert E. - 16
Hamilton, E. H. - 22
Hamilton, Eleanor - 29
Hamovitch, Maurice B. - 62
Hansel, Robert R. - 26
Hardin, Garrett - 17
Harding, M. Esther - 13
Harmer, Ruth - 62
Harrington, Charles C. - 13
Harris, C. C. - 8, 31
Hart, Harold H. - 10, 55
Harwood, Jane - 47
Hathorn, Raban - 32
Hatch, Claudia - 23
Hayakawa, S. I. - 10
Hedgepeth, William - 29
Heffernan, Helen - 43
Hegeler, Inge - 10
Hegeler, Sten - 10
Helfer, Ray E. - 46
Henderson, George - 41
Henry, William E. - 36
Herbert, W. L. - 64
Herzog, Elizabeth - 47
Hesse, Emily - 41
Hettlinger, Richard F. - 10, 23
Hewitt, Margaret - 5
Higgins, Jean C. - 47
Hill, Mary Lamb - 38
Hill, Reuben - 2, 5
Himes, Norman E. - 17
Hine, James R. - 36, 37
Hirschi, Travis - 64
Hobson, L. Z. - 22
Holmes, Urban T. - 10
Holter, Harriet 13
Homan, William E. - 41
Hopkins, Elizabeth - 1
Horton, Paul B. - 54
Howells, John G. - 36
Hubert, Jane - 8
Hunt, David - 3
Hunt, Morton - 34

Imbiorski, W. J. - 29
Inhelder, Barbel - 46
Irish, Donald P. - 62
Ishee, John - 1
Ishwaren, K. - 5

Jackson, Edgar N. - 61, 62
Jackson, Elizabeth Noland - 21
Jaffee, Benson - 47
James, Howard - 65
Jarvis, F. V. - 64
Jeffries, D. J. - 41
Jenkins, Herbert - 65
Johannis, Theodore B., Jr. - 27
Johnson, Cecil E. - 10
Johnson, Corinne B. - 28
Johnson, Eric W. - 10, 23, 28
Johnson, L. D. - 25
Johnson, Paul H. - 49
Johnson, Ronald C. - 26
Johnson, Stanley - 17
Johnson, Virginia E. - 11
Jones, S. N. - 23
Julian, C. J. - 21

Kadushin, Alfred - 47
Kalish, Richard A. - 63
Kane, Michael B. - 6
Kann, R. L. - 25
Kanwar, Mahfooz A. - 2
Kanter, Rosabeth Moss - 29
Karlen, Arno - 10
Kastenbaum, Robert - 62
Katz, Sanford N. - 47
Kavanaugh, Robert - 26
Kemper, G. H. - 46
Kempton, R. T. - 22
Kempton, Winifred - 17
Kennedy, David M. - 17
Kinney, Jean - 49
Kephart, William H. - 31
Kilander, H. Frederick - 52
Kinsie, Paul M. - 12
Kirkendall, Lester A. - 10, 21, 31
Kiser, Clyde V. - 6
Klein, Ted - 41
Klemer, Richard H. - 31
Knight, J. A. - 61
Konig, Rene - 4
Kornbluh, J. L. - 61
Koupernick, C. - 44
Kraditor, Aileen S. - 13
Krause, Harry D. - 10
Kubler-Ross, Elizabeth - 62
Kurth, Suzanne B. - 34
Kutscher, Austin H. - 62

Lader, Lawrence - 17
Landis, Judson T. - 27
Landis, Mary G. - 27
Landis. Paul H. - 31
Lanes, Selma G. - 29
Larrabee, Eric - 65
Lawrence, Margaret Morgan - 61
LeShan, Eda J. - 29, 41
LeShan, Lawrence - 61
Lee, Nancy Howell - 17
Lee, Robert - 49, 65
Leeper, Sarah Hammond - 41
Legler, Henry - 49
Lehman, Edna - 21
Lehrman, Nat - 11
Lemasters, E. D. - 46
Lenard, Grace - 26
Leslie, Gerald R. - 54

AUTHOR INDEX

Levenson, Sam - 21
Levine, Sol - 61
Leviton, Daniel - 63
Lewis, Claudia - 7
Lewis, Oscar - 5
Limbacher, W. J. - 52
Lind, A. W. - 7
Linder, Staffan - 66
Litt, Iris F. - 25
Lopata, Helena A. - 13
Lourie, R. S. - 45
Luckey, Eleanore - 31
Lukas, J. Anthony - 26

MacDonald, Robert - 2
Mack, Raymond - 7
Maddox, George L. - 56
Maizels, Joan - 26
Margolis, Herbert F. - 11
Marks, Renee U. - 64
Marshall, Donald S. - 11
Martinson, Floyd M. - 31
Massarick, Fred - 11
Masters, William H. - 11
McBride, Will - 10
McCall, George J. - 34
McCall, Michal M. - 34
McCary, James L. - 11
McClure, Helen M. - 1
McFarland, Helen Karr - 38
McHugh, Gelolo - 56
McHugh, James T. - 32
McIntire, Roger - 42
McIntyre, D. - 42
McLennan, John F. - 3
Mead, Margaret - 29
Meagher, Dermot - 55
Medinnus, Gene R. - 26
Mednick, M. T. - 25
Meiklejohn, Phyllis J. - 27
Meyerson, Rolf - 65
Miller, Arthur A. - 25
Miller, Leo - 47
Millet, Kate - 13
Mills, Liston G. - 62
Milne, Lorus J. - 50
Milne, Margery - 50
Milner, Esther - 17
Mindey, Carol - 37
Minor, Harold W. - 52
Mitchell, Marjorie Editha - 62
Mitford, Jessica - 62
Mittler, Peter - 47
Moran, Barbara - 13
Morgan, Ernest - 62
Morgan, J. - 49
Morgan, Robin - 13, 14
Morrison, A. - 42
Moss, A. C. - 34
Moss, J. Joel - 34
Mumaw, Evelyn King - 14
Mussen, Paul - 46
Muus, Rolf E. - 26
Muyskens, Joseph B. - 52
Myers, Caroline Clark - 42

Neill, A. S. - 42
Nelson, Elof - 42
Neubeck, Gerhard - 11
Neugarten, Bernice L. - 5
Newcomb, Carol - 47
Noonan, John T., Jr. - 17
Novalis - 29
Nowlis, Helen H. - 56

O'Brien, John A. - 17
Oden, Marilyn Brown - 14
O'Neill, William L. - 14
Otto, Herbert A. - 3, 30, 34

Packard, Vance - 65
Palmer, Stuart - 54
Pannor, Reuben - 11
Parker, Tony - 65
Pavenstedt, Eleanore - 47
Pearlin, Leonard I. - 6
Pearson, Leonard - 62
Peel, John - 18
Peters, A. D. - 45
Peters, W. - 54
Peterson, James A. -
Pexton, Myron R. - 43
Piaget, Jean - 46
Pickarts, Evelyn - 52
Pierce, Ruth I. - 11
Pieper, Josef - 66
Piers, Maria - 60
Pinkney, Ivy - 5
Pinkney, Alphonso - 61
Pittman, Laura - 45
Plattner, Paul - 34
Pomeroy, W. B. - 23
Portz, Alexius T. - 64
Potts, Malcolm - 18
Powell, Marvin - 26
Presvelou, Clio - 5

Quint, Jeanne - 63

Rabichow, Helen G. - 26
Rainer, Jerome - 34
Rainer, Julia - 34
Reed, Elizabeth L. - 63
Reich, Hans - 42
Reimer, George R. - 32
Reiss, Ira L. - 2
Reiterman, Carl - 18
Reuben, David - 11

AUTHOR INDEX

Rice, Elizabeth P. - 47
Richmond, P. G. - 46
Richter, Lin - 9
Riker, Audrey P. - 30
Riley, Matilda White - 50
Riviere, Peter - 3
Roberts, Kenneth - 66
Roberts, Ron - 30
Robertson, Constance Noyes - 3
Rodman, Hyman - 7, 52
Rorvick, David - 15
Rosen, Harold - 18
Rossman, Isadore - 18
Rossi, Alice S. - 14
Rubel, A. J. - 7
Rubenstein, Paul M. - 10
Rubin, Isadore - 20, 34
Ruitenbeck, Hendrik M.- 63

Sager, Clifford J. - 7
St. Andre, Lucien - 14
Saltman, Jules - 56
Santamaria, Frances Karlen - 42
Sauber, Mignon - 47
Saxton, Lloyd - 31
Scanzoni, John H. - 1, 7
Schiller, Rose Leiman - 56
Schlein, Miriam - 22
Schlesinger, Benjamin - 7
Schoenberg, Bernard - 63
Scotch, Norman A. - 61
Scott, Anne Firor - 14
Scott-Maxwell, Florida - 50
Segal, Julius - 61
Seidenberg, Robert - 34
Self, William L. - 26
Semora, Julian - 6
Sennett, Richard - 4
Seton, Cynthia P. - 14
Seward, Georgene H. - 14
Shafter, Helen B. - 30
Shanin, Teodor - 4
Sharkey, Bernarda - 42
Shedd, Charlie - 42
Sheen, Fulton J. - 42
Shepard, Martin - 36
Sheppard, Harold J. - 50
Shub, Beth - 45
Silverman, Anna - 43
Silverman, Arnold - 43
Silverman, Sylvia W. - 26
Simon, William - 9
Sims, John H. - 36
Singer, Laura J. - 53
Skipper, Dora Sikes - 41
Sklansky, Morris A. - 26
Skolnick, Arlene S. - 4
Skolnick, Jerome H. - 4
Slater, Philip E. - 30
Smith, Gerald W. - 35
Smith, W. Robertson - 5
Snow, John H. - 50
Snyder, Ross - 27
Soloman, David - 57
Somerville, Rose - 63
Sorley, Imogene - 33, 40
Spock, Benjamin - 11
Spray, S. Lee - 36
Staples, Robert - 7
Strain, Frances B. - 22
Straus, Murray - 2
Strauss, Anselm - 62
Steele, Harold - 50
Stein, Calvert - 36
Stevens, Anita - 43
Stewart, Charles - 36
Stycos, J. Mayone - 18
Sudia, Cecelia 47
Sudnow, David - 63
Suggs, Robert C. - 11
Suttles, Gerald D. - 34

Tallman, Irving - 2
Tarnowski, Peter - 27
Tart, Charles T. - 57
Taylor, B. J. - 43
Taylor, Donald L. - 22
Thomas, Alexander - 45
Thomas, J. L. - 29
Thompson, G. N. - 57
Thompson, Mary Lou - 14
Thomson, Helen - 48
Thorp, Roderick - 35
Todd, Vivien E. - 43
Toffler, Alvin - 4
Toman, Walter - 3
Tooman, Charles - 27
Toynbee, Arnold - 63
Trese, Leo J. - 43
Trobisch, Walter - 35
Turner, Ralph H. - 32

Udry, J. Richard - 3

Venick, Joel J. - 64
Victor, Ann - 12
Vogel, Victor - 5
Vogel, Virginia E. - 5

Waller, Willard W. - 1
Washington, Joseph B., Jr. - 7
Waxenberg, Barbara R. - 7
Wees, W. B. - 43
Weinberg, R. D. - 18
Weinstein, Marlene - 45
Weirath, Thomas - 30
Weiss, Robert R. - 43
Weller, J. E. - 6
Weltage, R. E. - 12

AUTHOR INDEX

Werner, Hazen G. - 1
Westley, William A. - 27
Westoff, Charles F. - 18
Westoff, Leslie Aldridge - 18
Whipple, Dorothy V. - 57
Whitehead, Anthony - 50
Whitehurst, Robert N. - 10
Whitney, Elizabeth - 57
Wilkinson, Rupert - 57
Williams, Glanville - 18
Williams, J. C. - 56
Williamson, Robert C. - 14
Willie, Charles V. - 8
Willke, Barbara - 53
Willke, J. C. - 18, 53
Wills, Theodore - 30
Winch, Robert F. - 3
Winick, Charles - 12
Winnicott, D. W. - 46, 66
Wise, George W. - 31
Witherspoon, Ralph L. - 41
Wolf, Hanna W. M. - 63
Woock, Roger R. - 61
Wrage, Karl - 22
Wyden, Peter - 33
Wynn, John C. - 12

Young, Leontine - 12

Zuk, G. H. - 37

PUBLISHERS AND SOURCES FOR MATERIALS

Abbey Press, St. Meinrad, IN 47577

Abelard-Schuman, Ltd., 62 E. 45th St., New York, NY 10036

Abingdon Press, 201 8th Ave. So., Nashville, TN 37203

Aldine Publishing Company, 529 So. Wabash, Chicago, IL 60605

Allyn and Bacon, Inc., 470 Atlantic Ave., Boston, MA 02110

American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, 79 W. Monroe St., Chicago, IL 60603

American Educational Films, 331 No. Maple Dr., Beverly Hills, CA 90210

Anchor Books, Garden City, Long Island, NY 11530

Appleton-Century-Crofts, Inc., 440 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10016

Association Press, 291 Broadway, New York, NY 10007

Atherton Press, 70 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10011

Avon Books, 959 8th Ave., New York, NY 10019

Bailey-Film Associates, 11559 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025

BFA Educational Media, 211 Michigan Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90404

Bantam Books, Inc., 666 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10019

Barnes and Noble, Inc., 105 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10013

Barron's Educational Press, 113 Crossways Park Dr., Woodbury, NY 11797

Basic Books, Inc., 404 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10016

Beacon Press, Inc., 25 Beacon St., Boston, MA 02108

Behavioral Publications, 2852 Broadway, Morningside Heights, New York, NY 10025

The Benjamin Company, 485 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022

Charles A. Bennett, 809 W. Detweiller Dr., Peoria, IL 61614

Bobbs-Merrill Company, Inc., 1720 E. 38th St., Indianapolis, IN 46218

Brigham Young University Press, Provo, UT 84601

Brigham Young University, Dept. of Motion Picture Productions, Provo, UT 84601

Broadman Press, 127 Ninth Ave. So., Nashville, TN 37203

Donald W. Brown, Inc., 60 E. 55th St., New York, NY 10022

E. C. Brown Center for Family Studies, 1802 Moss St., Eugene, OR 97403

W. C. Brown Company, Publishers, 135 So. Locust, Dubuque, IA 52002

Brunner/Mazel, 80 E. 11th St., New York, NY 10003

Burgess Publishing Co., 426 So. 6th St., Minneapolis, MN 55414

Cana Conference of Chicago, 720 No. Rush St., Chicago, IL 60611

Case Western Reserve University Press, 2029 Adelbert Rd., Cleveland, OH 44106

Cello Press, Burnsville, NC

Center for Mass Communication of Columbia University Press, 136 So. Broadway, Irvington, NY 10533

Chandler Publishing Co., 604 Mission St., San Francisco, CA 94105

Channel Press, NY

Child Study Association of America, 9 E. 89th St., New York, NY 10028

The Child Study Press, 9 E. 89th St., New York, NY 10028

The Child Welfare League of America, 44 E. 23rd St., New York, NY 10010

The Christopher Publishing House, 1140 Columbus Ave., Boston, MA 02120

Churchill Films, 662 No. Robertson Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069

City of Hope Medical Center, Duarte, CA 91010

The Clarke School for the Deaf, Northampton, MA 01060

College and University Press Services, Inc., 263 Chapel St., New Haven, CT 06513

Columbia Books, Inc., 440 W. 110th St., New York, NY 10022

Columbia Pictures, 711 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10022

Columbia University Press, 1365 Bradway, Irvington-on-Hudson, NY 10533

Commission of the Japan National Christian Council, Intermedia, National Council of Churches,
Room 670, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, NY 10027

Community Council of Greater New York, 225 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10003

Concordia Publishing House, 3558 So. Jefferson Ave., St. Louis, MO 63118

Cornerstone Press, 630 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10020

Florence Crittenton Association of America, Inc., 608 So. Dearborn, Chicago, IL 60605

Crown Publishers, 419 Fourth Ave., New York, NY 10016

C R M Publishers

F. A. Davis Company, 1914-16 Cherry St., Philadelphia, PA 19103

The John Day Company, 257 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10010

Delacorte Press, 750 Third Ave., New York, NY 10017

Dell Publishing Company, 750 Third Ave., New York, NY 10017

T. S. Denison, 5100 W. 82nd St., Minneapolis, MN 55431

Diablo Press, P. O. Box 187, Los Gatos, CA 94030

The Dial Press, Inc., 750 Third Ave., New York, NY 10017

Division of Vocational and Technical Education, State of Illinois, Springfield, Il

Dodd, Mead and Company, 79 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10016

Dolphin Books, Garden City, Long Island, NY 11530

Dorsey Publishing Company, 1818 Ridge Road, Homewood, IL 60430

Doubleday and Company, Inc., Garden City, Long Island, NY 11530

Howard A. Doyle Publishing Company, Cambridge, MA 02139

The Dryden Press, Inc., 901 No. Elm, Hinsdale, IL 60521

Educational Information Institute, Ogden, UT

Emerson Books, Inc., 251 W. 19th St., New York, NY 10011

Essandess Specials, Simon and Schuster, 1 W. 39th St., New York, NY 10018

M. Evans and Company, Inc., 216 E. 49th St., New York, NY 10017

Exposition Press, 50 Jericho Turnpike, Jericho, NY 11753

Family Forum, 1539 N. Courtney Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90046

Family Life Publications, Inc., Dr. Gelolo McHugh, RFD 1, Saluda, NC 28773

Family Planning and Population Information Center, Syracuse, NY 13210

Fawcett Publications, Inc., Fawcett Building, Greenwich, CT 06830

Fernhill House, Ltd., 303 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10010

The Florham Park Press, Inc., Madison Theatre Building, P. O. Box 225, Madison, NJ 07940

Fortress Press, 2900 Queen Lane, Philadelphia, PA 19129

Foundation of Thanatology, 630 W. 168th St., New York, NY 10032

Franciscan Communication Center, 1229 So. Santee St., Los Angeles, CA 90015

Franciscan Films, P. O. Box 6116, San Francisco, CA 94101

Free Press, 866 Third Ave., New York, NY 10022

Freeman and Company, 660 Market Street, San Francisco, CA 94104

Roseman-Robbins, Berkeley, CA

Ginn and Company, 275 Wyman St., Waltham, MA 02154

Glendessary Press, 2512 Grove St., Berkeley, CA 94704

Graded Press, 201 8th Ave. So., Nashville, TN 37202

Graphic Publishing Company, Lake Mills, IA 50010

Greenwood Periodicals, Inc., 51 Riverside Ave., Westport, CT 06880

Grosset and Dunlap, Inc., 51 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10010

Group for the Advancement of Psychiatry, 419 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10016

Grove Press, 214 Mercer St., New York, NY 10012

Harcourt, Brace, Jovanovich, Inc., 757 Third Ave., New York, NY 10017

Harper, 7555 Caldwell Ave., Chicago, IL 60648

Harper and Row Publishers, 49 E. 33rd St., New York, NY 10016

Hart Publishing Company, 510 6th Ave., New York, NY 10010

Harvard University Press, Harvard University, Cambridge, MA 02138

Hawthorn Books, Inc., 70 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10011

Health Publications, 200 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10003

Heath Lexington Books, 125 Spring St., Lexington, MA 02173

Herald Press, Mennonite Publishing House, Scottdale, PA 15683

Herder and Herder, Inc., 232 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10016

Hewett House, Old Tappan, NJ 07675

Hill and Wang, 72 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10011

Hiltz Publishing Company, 6300 Hamilton Ave., Cincinnati, OH 45224

Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc., 383 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10017

The Home and School Press, Titusville, NJ

Houghton-Mifflin Company, 110 Tremont St., Boston, MA 02107

Humanities Press, 303 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10010

Indiana University Press, 10th and Morton Sts., Bloomington, IN 47401

Institute for Social Research, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48106

International Planned Parenthood Federation, London, England

International Scientific Commission on the Family

International Universities Press, 239 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10003

Interstate Printers and Publishers, 19-27 Jackson St., Danville, IL 61834

Jossey-Bass, Inc., 615 Montgomery St., San Francisco, CA 94111

Journal-Chronicle Company, Owatonna, MN 55060

Judson Press, Valley Forge, PA 19481

Kentucky Paperbacks, Lexington, KY

Kimberly-Calrk, Neenah, WI 54956

King Screen Productions, 320 Aurora Ave. No., Seattle, WA 98109

Alfred A. Knopf, Inc., 501 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022
KTVA Publishing House, Inc., New York, NY 10016
John Knox Press, 801 E. Main St., Richmond, VA 23209
La Leche International, Franklin Park, IL
Lawrence Publishing Company, 617 So. Olive St., Los Angeles, CA 90014
Liveright, 386 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10016
J. B. Lippincott Company, 521 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10017
Little, Brown and Company, 34 Beacon St., Boston, MA 02106
The Macmillan Company, Crowell, Collier, and Macmillan Building, 866 Third Av., New York, NY 10022
Macrae-Smith, 225 So. 15th St., Philadelphia, PA 19102
Markham Publishing Company, 3322 W. Peterson Ave., Chicago, IL 60645
Massachusetts Institute of Technology Press, Ayer Building, Cambridge, MA 01843
McClelland and Stewart, Ltd., 25 Hollinger Rd., Toronto 16, Ontario, Canada
McCutchan Publishing Corporation, 2526 Grove St., Berkeley, CA 94704
Katherine Dexter McCormick Library, Planned Parenthood/World Population, 515 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022
McGrawOHill Book Company, 330 W. 42nd St., New York, NY 10036
David McKay and Company, Inc., 750 Third Ave., New York, NY 10017
McNally and Loftin Publishers, Kimberly Press, Goleta, CA 93017
Mental Health Materials Center, 419 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10016
Mentor Books, New American Library, 1301 6th Ave., New York, NY 10010
Charles E. Merrill Publishing Company, 1300 Alum Creek Dr., Columbus, OH 43216
Merrill/Bracken Releasing Corporation, 10178 Meyer Place, Cupertino, CA 95014
Julian Messner, 8 W. 40th St., New York, NY 10018
Metropolitan Applied Research Center, Inc., 60 E. 86th St., New York, NY 10028
Milbank Memorial Fund, 40 Wall St., New York, NY 10005
William Morrow and Company, 425 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10016
Mouton and Company, 131, Boulevard Saint-Michel, 75 - Paris (5e)
National Clearinghouse for Drug Abuse Information, 5454 Wisconsin Ave., Chevy Chase, MD 20015
National Council on Illegitimacy, 67 Irving Place, New York, NY 10003
National Health Films, Box 13973, Station K, Atlanta, GA 30324
National Institute of Mental Health, 9000 Rockville Pike, Bethesda, MD 20014

New American Library, 1301 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10019

New York Academy of Science

Fred A. Niles Communications Centers, Inc., 1058 W. Washington Blvd., Chicago, IL 60607

Northwestern University Press, 1735 Benson Ave., Evanston, IL 60201

W. W. Norton and Company, Inc., 55 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10003

Novalis, 720 No. Rush St., Chicago, IL 60611

Oceana Publications, Inc., 40 Cedar St., Dobbs Ferry, NY 10522

Ortho-Pharmaceutical Corporation, Raritan, NY 08869

Oxford University Press, 200 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10016

Parents' Magazine Films, Inc., 52 Vanderbilt Ave., New York, NY 10017

Parents' Magazine Press, 52 Vanderbilt Ave., New York, NY 10017

Paulist-Newman Press, 400 Sette Dr., Parnasus, NY 07652

F. E. Peacock Publishers, 401 W. Irving Park Rd., Itasca, IL 60143

Pelican Books, 7110 Ambassador Rd., Baltimore, MD 21207

Penguin Books, 7110 Ambassador Rd., Baltimore, MD 21207

Pergamon Press, Ltd., Maxwell House, Fairview Park, Elmsford, NY 10523

George A. Pflaum, Publisher, 38 W. Fifth St., Dayton, OH 45402

Philosophical Library, Inc., 15 E. 40th St., New York, NY 10016

Pilgrim Press, Christian Education Press, Schaff Bldg, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia, PA 19102

Planned Parenthood Association, Philadelphia, PA

Planned Parenthood Federation of America, Inc., Center for Family Planning Development, 515 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022

Playboy Press, 919 No. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL 60611

Pocketbooks, Inc., 630 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10020

Polymorph Films, Inc., 331 Newbury St., Boston, MA 02115

The Population Council, 245 Park Ave., New York, NY 10017

Clarkson N. Potter, Inc., 23 E. 67th St., New York, NY 10021

Praeger Publishers, 111 Fourth Ave., New York, NY 10003

Prentice-Hall, Inc., Englewood Cliffs, NJ 07632

Publisher's Press, 1900 W. 2300 So., Salt Lake City, UT 84117

Public Affairs Committee, 381 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10016

G. P. Putnam's Sons, Inc., 200 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10016
Pyramid Films, Box 1048, Santa Monica, CA 90406
Quadrangle Books, 12 E. Delaware Pl., Chicago, IL 60611
Rand McNally and Company, 405 Park Ave., New York, NY 10022
Random House, 201 E. 50th St., New York, NY 10022
Henry Regnery Company, 114 W. Illinois St., Chicago, IL 60610
Russell & Russell, Inc., 122 E. 42nd St., New York, NY 10017
Russell Sage Foundation, 230 Park Ave., New York, NY 10017
W. B. Saunders Company, West Washington Square, Philadelphia, PA 19105
Schenkman Publishing Compnay, Inc., Cambridge, MA 02138
Schocken Books, 67 Park Ave., New York, NY 10016
Science and Behavior Books, 599 College Ave., Palo Alto, CA 94306
Science Research Associates, Inc., 259 E. Erie St., Chicago, IL 60611
Scholastic Book Services, 50 W. 44th St., New York, NY 10036
Seabury Press, 815 Second Ave., New York, NY 10017
Sheed and Ward, 64 University Place, New York, NY 10003
Shoestring Press, 955 Sherman Ave., Hamden, CT
Signet Books, 1301 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10019
Simon and Schuster, 630 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10020
SNPA (Southern Newspaper Publishers Association Foundation) Seminar Books, P.O. Box 11606, Atlanta, GA 30305
Springer Publishing Company, Inc., 200 Park Ave. So., New York, NY 10003
Stackpole Books, Telegraph Press Bldg., Cameron & Kellker Sts., Harrisburg, PA 17105
St. Anthony's Guild Press, Paterson, NJ
St. Francis Productions, 1229 So. Santee St., Baltimore, MD 21218
Stein and Day Publishers, 7 E. 48th St., New York, NY 10017
Strode Publishers, P.O. Box 4245, Huntsville, AL
Syracuse University Press, University Station Box 87, Syracuse, NY 13210
Teacher's College Press, 1234 Amsterdam Ave., New York, NY 10027
Charles C. Thomas, Publisher, 301 E. Lawrence Ave., Springfield, IL 62703
Time-Life Films, 43 W. 16th St., New York, NY 10011
Tower Publishing, New York

Trident Press, 630 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10020

Tyndale House, Publishers, 337 Gunderson, Wheaton, IL 60187

United States Catholic Conference, 1312 Massachusetts Ave., N. W., Washington, D.C. 20005

United States Government Printing Office, Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D.C. 20402

Universitetsforlaget, P. O. Box 307 Blindern, Oslo, 3 Norway

University of California Press, 2223 Fulton St., Berkeley, CA 94720

U C L A School of Public Health, Los Angeles, CA

University of Chicago Press, Chicago, IL

University of Florida Press

University of Hawaii Press, 535 Ward Avenue, Honolulu, HI 96814

University of Michigan Press, Ann Arbor, MI

University of Minnesota Press, Minneapolis, MN 55455

University of Oklahoma Press, Norman, OK 73069

University of Texas Press, Austin, TX 78712

University of Toronto Press, Toronto 5, Ontario, Canada

The W. E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research, 300 So. Westnedge Ave., Kalamazoo, MI 49007

Van-Nostrand Reinhold Company

Lawrence Verry Publishing Co., Mystic, CT

Viking Press, Inc., 625 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022

Vintage Books, 201 E. 50th St., New York, NY 10022

Wadsworth Publishing Company, Belmont, CA 94002

Warner Press, 1200 E. 5th St., Anderson, IN 46012

West Publishing Company, 50 W. Kellogg Blvd., St. Paul, MN 55102

Western Publishing Company, Inc., 850 Third Ave., New York, NY 10022

John Wiley and Sons, Inc., Wiley-Interscience, 850 3rd Ave., New York, NY 10016

Williams and Wilkins, 428 E. Preston St., Baltimore, MD 10028

Word Book Publishers, P. O. Box 1790, Waco, TX 76703

World Health Organization, Geneva, Switzerland

World Population Council, 245 Park Ave., New York, NY 10017

World Publishing Compnay, 2331 W. 110th St., Cleveland, OH 44102

Peter H. Wyden, Inc., 750 Third Ave., New York, NY 10017

Yale University Press, 92A Yale Station, New Haven, CT 06520

PRODUCERS AND/OR DISTRIBUTORS

The National Council on Family Relations publishes articles on the films whose producers and/or distributors are listed below. The Second Annual Film Award Competition is covered in the April 1971 issue of The Family Coordinator and the Third Annual Film Awards are in the October 1971 issue. Both articles discuss the films entered in the contest and those that won awards.

ACI Films, Inc., 35 W. 45th St., New York, NY 10036
Aetna Life and Casualty, Film Library, 151 Farmington Ave., Hartford, CT 06115
AIMS Instructional Media Services, Inc., P. O. Box 1010, Hollywood, CA 90028
American Heart Association, 44 E. 23rd St., New York, NY 10010
American Home Economics Association, 1600 20th St. N. W., Washington, D.C. 20009
Atlantis Productions, Inc., 1252 La Granada Dr., Thousand Oaks, CA 91360
Audio Productions, 630 Ninth Ave., New York, NY 10036
Award Records & Film Co., 1000 E. Colorado Blvd., Pasadena, CA 91101
Bailey-Film Associates, 11559 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025
Arthur Barr Productions, Inc., P. O. Box 7-C, Pasadena, CA 91104
Benchmark Films, Inc., 145 Scarborough Rd., Briarcliff Manor, NY 10510
BFA Educational Media, 2211 Michigan Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90404
Billy Budd Films, 235 E. 57th St., New York, NY 10022
Brigham Young University, Educational Media Services, 290 Herald R. Clark Bldg, Provo, UT 84601
E. C. Brown Trust Foundation, P. O. Box 25130, Portland, OR 97225
Carousel Films, Religious Television Assoc., 315 Queen St. E., Toronto 2, Ontario, Canada
Center for Mass Communication of Columbia University Press, 562 W. 113th St., New York, NY 10025
Centron Educational Films, 1621 W. 9th St., Lawrence, KS 66044
Churchill Films, 662 No. Robertson Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069
Clarke School for the Deaf, Northampton, MA 01060
Columbia Pictures, 711 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10022
Coronet Instructional Films, 65 E. So. Water St., Chicago, IL 60601
Dahlia Productions, Inc., 300 W. 55th St., New York, NY 10019
Doubleday Multimedia, 1371 Reynolds Ave., Santa Ana, CA 92705
Edcom Productions, 285 W. Sixth St., P. O. Box 494, Mansfield, OH 44901
Education Development Center, 39 Chapel St., Newton, MA 02160
Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1833 Pickwick Ave., Glenview, IL 60025

Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation, Inc., 15 16th St. N. E., Atlanta, GA 30309
Family Films, 5823 Santa Monica Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90038
Film Associates, 11559 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025
Films Incorporated, 1144 Wilmette Ave., Wilmette, IL 60091
Stuart Finley, Inc., 3428 Mansfield Rd., Falls Church, VA 22041
Fleetwood Films, Mt. Vernon, New York
Focus Education, Inc., 400 Park Ave., New York, NY 10022
Franciscan Communication Center, 1229 So. Santee St., Los Angeles, CA 90015
Graphic Curriculum, 145 E. 69th St., New York, NY 10021
Harris Communications, Inc., 1480 Egbert Ave., San Francisco, CA 94124
Harvest Films, Inc., 11 W. 42nd St., Rm. 745, New York, NY 10036
Hobel-Leiterman Prod. Ltd., 21 Woodlawn Ave. E., Toronto 7, Ontario, Canada
Theodore Holcomb Films, 11 E. 90th St., New York, NY 10028
Indiana University, Field Services, Audio-Visual Center, Bloomington, IN 47401
Institute for Development of Educational Activities, Inc. - I/D/E/A, P. O. Box 446, Melbourne, FL
Intermedia, National Council of Churches, Room 670, 475 Riverside Dr., New York
Janus Films, Inc., 745 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10022; 17000 Ventura, Encino, CA 91316
Mass Media Associates, 2116 N. Charles St., Baltimore, MD 21218
Harold Mayer Productions, Inc., 155 W. 72nd St., Room 700, New York, NY 10021
McGraw Hill/Comtemporary Films, 330 W. 42nd St., New York, NY 10036
Mennonite Brethren Churches USA, General Conference, Box 1017, 1123 N. Main St., Harrisonburg, VA
Merrill/Bracken Releasing Corporation, 10178 Meyer Place, Cupertino, CA 95014
Modern Talking Picture Service, Inc. (Assoc. for the Study of Abortion, Inc., 120 W. 57th St., NY)
National Film Board of Canada, P. O. Box 6100, Montreal 101, Quebec, Canada
Fred A. Niles Communications Centers, Inc., 1058 W. Washington Blvd., Chicago, IL 60607
Ohio State University, Dept. of Photography and Cinema, Columbus, OH 43210
Paulist Productions, 17575 Pacific Coast Highway, Pacific Palisades, CA 90272
Perennial Education, 1825 Willow Rd., Northfield, IL 60093
Pictura Films Distribution Corp., 43 W. 16th St., New York, NY 10011
Polymorph Films, 331 Newbury St., Boston, MA 02115
Population Dynamics, 13201 Ninth Ave. N. W., Seattle, WA 98177

Professional Arts, Inc., P. O. Box 8484, Universal City, CA 91608

Psychological Cinema Register, Audio-Visual Services University Park, PA 16802

Pyramid Films, Box 1048, Santa Monica, CA 90406

Peter M. Robeck & Co., 230 Park Ave., New York, NY 10017

Roche Laboratories, Nutley, NJ 07110

Rocinante Sight and Sound, Box 814, Lake Forest, IL 60045

St. Francis Productions, 1229 So. Santee St., Los Angeles, CA 90015

Sterling Educational Films, 241 E. 34th St., New York, NY 10016

Gerald Temaner & Gordon Quinn, Northwestern University, Chicago, IL

Time-Life Films, 43 W. 16th St., New York, NY 10010

Trafco, 1525 McGavock St., Nashville, TN 37203

United States Educational Films, 17414 Devonshire St., Northridge, CA 91324

University of Michigan Television Center, 310 Maynard St., Ann Arbor, MI

Vocational Films, 11 Euclid, Park Ridge, IL 60068

WCAU-TV, City Line & Monument Aves., Philadelphia, PA 19131

WGN Continental Broadcasting Co., 2501 W. Bradley Place, Chicago, IL 60618

Wholesome Film Center, Inc., 20 Melrose St., Boston, MA 02292

WKYC-TV, 1403 E. Sixth St., Cleveland, OH 44114

WRC-TV, 4001 Nebraska Ave. N. W., Washington, D.C. 20016

ERIC Clearinghouse
MAY 3 1972
on Adult Education